KING DETHRONED

In Lisbon, and Revolutionists are in command.

London, October 4.—The Daily Mail says that a revolution broke out in Lisbon today. The Dispatch adds that King Manuel is a prisoner, that street fighting has occurred and that warships are bombarding the palace and all communication with the capital is cut off.

"A Paris newspaper prints the following wireless dispatch from its correspondent at Cape Blanco: "Revolution broke out in Portugal. Great part of army and all navy have gone on side of revolutionists. At two o'clock this afternoon the bombardment began. All egress to city forbidden. Impossible, therefore, to procure and forward details."

VERDICT AGAINST M. W. A.

Fraternal Order loses case recently decided at Grants Pass

For the second time, Mrs. Lathrop, of Grants Pass, has won in her suit against the Modern Woodmen of America, on account of the death of her husband, who was accidentally killed, the case having recently been decided in Circuit court. The verdict is for $3000, and is the result of a second trial, the first outcome having been reversed by the Supreme court.

At the time of his death, Lathrop had just been taken into the order, and under the by-laws his first assessment could be paid at any time during the month in which he became affiliated. In the meantime, however, Lathrop was accidentally killed while blasting out stumps on his premises.

The head camp contested the suit brought by the widow with results as above noted. E. D. Briggs of this city, was attorney for the Woodmen, and H. D. Norton, of Grants Pass, represented the widow's interests in the case.

The case will again be taken to the Supreme court, it is authoritatively stated.—Ashland Tidings.

BURNED AT STAKE

By mob in Alabama, is fate of negro convict.

Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 4.—Six hours after he had attacked Mrs. Hiram Stuckey, a young woman of Covington county, Rush Withers, a negro trusty at the Henderson convict camp, was taken from the warden last night while en route to prison at Andalusia, tied to a stake by an infuriated mob of 400 men and burned.

The mob dispersed leaving no trace of their fury save the ashes of the negro.

The negro went to the farm of Mr. Stuckey early yesterday afternoon to get drinking water for fellow convicts, who were at camp near by. Entering the house, it is charged the negro assaulted Mrs. Stuckey, who was alone, after which he clubbed her into insensibility in an effort to stifle her cries. It was reported that the woman is in a precarious condition.

Before becoming unconscious Mrs. Stuckey informed her rescuers of the assault, naming the trusty, whom she knew. The negro was caught and hurried to the stockade at Sanford, six miles from Anadulasia.

On hearing that a mob was forming, Warden J. T. Long at 9 o'clock attempted to spirit the convict to the prison at Anadulasia, but was intercepted on the outskirts of the village.

The Successful Woman

The working woman who has achieved success shows it. You can pick her out from a throng as you can a successful business man in a sidewalk crowd. It is not wholly a matter of garments, although that has something to do with it. She possesses the undefinable air of having "made good"—also a wide-awake, alert manner, acquired by hard work and its rewards. She carries herself with a pride and dignity quite unlike the haughty air we associate with social position or wealth. It is simply the well earned insignia of a self made woman. As a rule the self-woman cares little about the suffrage question. During her busy career she has had scant leisure to study such things; besides she confesses to a belief that politics would have helped her less than her own efforts. She took up her work as she would have plunged into a study in a co-educational school, remembering that sex privileges and sex disabilities count for nothing when a woman shoulders a man's work. Perhaps suffrage for women, if they ever achieve it, may bring more strenuous careers and larger opportunities. Of what avail, however, will that be unless the woman chooses work according to her capacity and does it to the best of her ability—cheerfully, loyally, faithfully and with a heart-felt interest.—Success.

ANTI-PROHIBITION

Senator Ruth delivers lecture in U. S. Hall Wednesday evening

A. S. Ruth of Olympia, Wash. delivered an address in the U. S. Hall, Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Oregon Prohibition Association. Mr. Ruth is a forcible speaker and his presentation of the prohibition question was along somewhat different lines from those usually followed by platform orators.

The speaker aimed to show by statistics that prohibition does not prohibit, and that in states where it had been tried it had proved a failure, causing deceit, hypocrisy, etc. The address was interspersed with numerous quotations from eminent preachers, statesmen, etc.

The speaker claimed to be a believer in temperance, but held that prohibition would never help the temperance cause, merely changing the manner of drinking and quality of liquor used.

OBJECTS TO NEW ORLEANS

St. Louis Editor favors holding Exposition in San Francisco

New Orleans is lustily proclaiming its endorsement by St. Louis as the logical site for the Panama-Pacific Exposition. That this crowing is rather premature and that the "endorsement" is not all that could be desired is indicated by the following editorial in the St. Louis Times frankly advocating the claims of San Francisco: "Despite the fact that a partial promise has been made in St. Louis which would seek to anchor this city to the position of favoring New Orleans as the place for holding the Panama Exposition, there is a distinct tone of another kind to be heard on every side.

"The question is being asked, why should New Orleans be favored in this relationship, at the expense of San Francisco, which is making a vigorous effort to obtain the exposition?"

"The St. Louis Times is free to say that it can think of no good reason why this city should favor New Orleans as against San Francisco.

"The argument of 'neighborliness' is, perhaps, more than counterbalanced by other arguments which readily come to mind.

"Summer has always been the accepted season for World's Fairs; therefore, the matter of climate should be a first consideration. New Orleans has a very kindly climate to offer winter tourists, but its summers are unbearable. General Humidity appears to have his fortifications established most strongly in the beautiful Crescent City—and he is the known foe to comfort and exercise of every kind.

"On the other hand, San Francisco's climate in the summer season may almost be said to err in the other direction. It is cool, if not quite chilly; and it is the bracing quality in the air which acts as a stimulant to all pleasure seeking.

"Again, San Francisco is on the salt water, while New Orleans has to summon her fleets from a point more than half a hundred miles away.

"As to the benefits of the Panama Exposition, certainly there is no city which will reap so great a number as San Francisco. By the turning loose of the tides in the great canal, it will be suddenly incorporated as an American city in a new respect. It has been out of the American world all these years, and has built up a musical, literary and financial sphere of its own. With the completion of the canal, San Francisco's address will suddenly become, 'U. S. A.'—a sufficient reason why it should wish to celebrate on a mighty scale."

FOREST RANGERS

Examination for Assistant Rangers will be held October 24-25.

The Civil Service Commission will hold an examination for Assistant Forest Ranger on October 24-25, 1910. The U. S. Department of Agriculture estimates that 400 eligibles will be needed during the field season of 1911. Assistant Forest Rangers are paid an entrance salary of $1,100 per annum.

The examination will be held at National Forest headquarters in Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, Florida, Idaho, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska, New Mexico, Nevada, Oregon, South Dakota, Washington, and Wyoming.

No examinations will be held in Arkansas, Oklahoma, and Utah, except at Kanab, Utah, the headquarters of the Kaibab National Forest. Since all of the Kaibab Forest is in Arizona, residents of Arizona will, under the law, have preference in appointments for this Forest.

Forest Rangers must be, when practicable, citizens of the State or Territory in which the National Forest on which they are to be appointed is situated. In the States in which no examinations are to be held there is still a sufficient list of eligibles to make the holding of another examination unnecessary.

The requirements and duties of Forest Rangers are thus described in "The Use Book," which contains the regulations and instructions for the use of the National Forests:

"A ranger of any grade must be thoroughly sound and able-bodied, capable of enduring hardships and performing severe labor under trying conditions. He must be able to take care of himself and his horses in regions remote from settlement and supplies. He must be able to build trails and cabins, ride, pack, and deal tactfully with all classes of people. He must know something of land surveying, estimating and scaling timber, logging, land laws, mining, and the livestock business.

"On some Forests the ranger must be a specialist in one or more of these lines of work. Thorough familiarity with the region in which he seeks employment, including its geography and its forest and industrial conditions, is usually demanded, although lack of this may be supplied by experience in similar regions.

Details regarding the examination, including the names of the places at which it will be held, will be sent to anyone applying to the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C.

HOUSEHOLD CARES

Tax the Women of Jacksonville the same as Elsewhere

Hard to attend to household duties. With a constantly aching back. A woman should not have a bad back. And she wouldn't if the kidneys were well.

Doan's Kidney Pills make well kidneys. Mrs. J. H. Baussum, living Cor. Twelfth & C. Sts. Medford, Ore., says: "I suffered so severely from kidney trouble that I was unable to do my housework. My kidneys were very irregular in action. My back pained me severely when stooping or lifting and sharp twinges would shoot through my loins. I ran down in health and at times felt very miserable. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally brought to my attention, and I procured a box. They helped me from the first. I continued taking them and was entirely cured. I have often recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to other sufferers."

Plenty more proof like this from Jacksonville people. Call at The City Drug Store and ask what customers report.

To the Lover of Good Coffee

We wish to advise you that we have installed in our store a new Royal Electric Coffee Mill, which is being placed on the market by The A. J. Deer Co., of Hornell, N. Y. This machine is equipped with steel knives which cut the berry into uniform clean cut particles, instead of grinding and crushing it, as by the old method.

All Coffee Mills heretofore used will only crush the berry, mutilating the minute oil cells, allowing the Coffee Oil to evaporate, thus impairing the strength and flavor.

By this new process the little oil cells remain unbroken, the essential oil (food product), can not evaporate and the coffee thus retains its fine, rich, aromatic flavor in its full strength.

This is one reason why a pound of coffee cut in this mill will make from twelve to fifteen cups more of full strength coffee than will any coffee ground the old way. The Lover of Good Coffee finds here a richness of flavor never found in Coffee ground in the ordinary way at any price.

Another feature about this Mill is that you may have your Coffee cut as fine as the finest sand and it will still be practically free from that fine dust which is produced by the old method of grinding. You will, therefore, always have a clear cup of coffee instead of a muddy effect—a result of using the old style Mills.

Royal Cut Coffee is also adaptable for percolators or French Drip Coffee Pots.

Try a pound of our coffee cut on a Royal Mill and we know you will be pleased with the results. Yours truly,

Ulrich Brothers
