Bids for the laying of cement walks in front of certain lots, were opened by the council at the city hall Tuesday evening, and the contract given to the Jacksonville Construction Co., whose bid of 96 cents per foot for six foot walks and $1.45 per foot for 8 foot walks with curb, was considered the best submitted.

David Cronemiller Died Tuesday after a short illness.

Died--At his home in Jacksonville at 4:45 P. M., Tuesday, Oct. 25, 1910, David Cronemiller, aged 81 years, 1 day. Mr. Cronemiller came to Jacksonville from Pennsylvania in 1861, and for many years conducted the blacksmith shop now occupied by Chas. Basye, but retired from active business about seven years ago. He leaves a son and three daughters, Misses Kate and Mamie Cronemiller of Jacksonville, Mrs. Carrie Horton of Fillmore, Cal., and James M. Cronemiller, county treasurer of Jackson county. Funeral services were held at the family residence Thursday, Oct. 27, at 2 P. M. Interment at Jacksonville cemetery under auspices of I. O. R. M. $800 Pocket On Old Gold Hill.

A single pocket containing about $800 was taken from Gold Hill a few days ago by Joseph Perry, who is working the property under lease from the owners, Col. and Dr. Rav. There are many people in southern Oregon who are confident that Gold Hill, or mountain, contains as much more of the precious metal as was taken out in the famous discovery back in the fifties. Mr. Perry's strike is regarded locally as being proof of the contention that Gold Hill is still worthy of its name.--Gold Hill News.

"WILD MAN" CAPTURED

Milton Carter, Applegate Desperado lodged in jail.

Milton Carter, who is charged with committing numerous depredations in the Applegate country, was brought to Jacksonville and lodged in the county jail Wednesday. Carter succeeded in eluding his captors for five days, during which time he dodged about the Applegate valley, stopping long enough at various farm houses and cabins to pick up whatever goods and chattels took his fancy. He was so successful in this line that when he was finally captured near the junction of Poormans creek and Forest creek, he had in his possession two horse loads of assorted plunder.

Lewis Eaton, who was one of the party that brought Carter in, is convinced that the "wild man" had been dodging his pursuers in constant fear of early extinction, as he had been told that the posse intended to shoot on sight.

County High School Fund

We are in receipt of a circular, signed by a committee appointed by the School Board Convention, which lack of space forbids our publishing in full this week. The circular advocates the establishment of a county high school fund and says in part:

"This is not a question of creating one or more central high schools at county expense, but makes possible a high school in any part of the county where ten or fifteen pupils who have passed the eighth grade of the common school can be brought together. It makes the high school possible in the small centers of population as well as in the large centers, and makes every high school in the county free to every boy and girl in the county who has passed the eighth grade of the common school. Under this law any number of districts in thickly settled rural communities may unite for high school purposes and draw upon the county high school fund."

PORTLAND LETTER.

Oregon apples at Northwest apple show---Columbia to be restocked with Sockeye Salmon.

Portland, Or., Oct. 25, (Special)--Oregon apples will be heard from at the different apple shows of the Northwest this fall. There is close rivalry between the apple states as to which shall take the chief prizes, and on this account the Oregon growers will be put upon their mettle. Eugene has held its apple show and many specimens of perfect fruit were exhibited. Albany will have a fine apple show on November 9, 10 and 11. There is keen interest in the outcome and the many prizes will be sharply contested for. These shows will bring out the best apples in their localities and the prize fruit, together with that of other sections, will be sent to the Oregon Apple Show at Portland November 30, December 1 and 2. The best apples will, in turn, go to the National Apple Show at Spokane, the Vancouver Show and the Chicago Apple Show.

Some Oregon districts will make individual displays at these fruit expositions. Hood River expects to send the two finest cars of apples ever leaving that district to the Spokane Show. One car each of Spitzenbergs and Yellow Newtown apples will be entered for the sweep stakes prize, and as the showing will be gathered from the large acreage given to growing these varieties, it will be of a very high quality.

Medford will make a strong showing at the Canadian National Apple Show at Vancouver, B. C. A car of fancy Yellow Newtown Pippins will be sent from one orchard. Medford people believe this will be as fine a carload of yellow apples as has ever been placed on exhibition. Medford will also send exhibits to Spokane and Chicago.

The Columbia River is being restocked with Sockeye salmon. The first shipment of 1,500,000 eggs from the Yes Bay, Alaska, hatchery is on the way here and will be hatched at Bonneville and the young fish liberated in the Columbia River when they reach a suitable size. A similar number of eggs will be brought from Alaska and hatched here each season for four years in succession and it is thought that at the end of that time variety of salmon will be much more plentiful in the Columbia and its tributaries.

Portland business men and others from this state who attended the recent Southwestern Washington Development Association convention at Goldendale were struck by the spirit of good feeling and co-operation that prevailed. They found a great territory working together for common objects and succeeding in bringing about improved conditions in country and city life, in promoting industry and advancing the material interests of the people. Such a movement has a great future and all who attended the recent convention were benefitted. The next convention will be held in Vancouver in February.

Wenatchee is in line for opening the Columbia River from beyond the Canadian boundary to the sea. The Wenatchee Commercial Club has written the Portland commercial bodies that it will co-operate heartily in the movement and in fact practically the whole Columbia River Valley is united in the work.

R. R. V. RY. TO BUILD

Will extend its line up the gulch to Opp mine.

The Rogue River Valley Railway Co. is preparing to extend their track up Jacksonville creek to the Opp mine. The purpose of the proposed extension is to facilitate the handling of tailings from the cyanide plant, which is in great demand as a top dressing for paved streets. All preliminary arrangements have been completed and active construction work will commence as soon as the necessary rails and material arrives.

There is no truth in the rumor that the road will immediately build to Ruch. W. S. Barnum, president of the line, will attend a meeting at Ruch today to discuss with the citizens of that place and vicinity the feasibility of extending the road, but as yet no definite steps have been taken.

All citizens of Ruch and vicinity who are interested in securing railway facilities are urged to meet with Mr. Barnum and talk over the matter.

Work On Highway Commenced.

Ground was broken Monday on the much talked of Crater Lake highway. Contractor Natwick, who has charge of the work, expects to throw the road open for travel by April 1st of next year. He now has 30 men and several teams at work and expects to employ 30 more men. It is expected this highway will attract many tourists, especially those making auto tours, to Southern Oregon.

MEDFORD MEN ARRESTED

Held to answer charge of obtaining money under false pretences.

Walter Hayter and James Dykes, wanted at Merced, Calif., on a charge of obtaining money under false pretences, were arrested at Medford Thursday of last week by Marshal Hammersley of Gold Hill.

Hayter and Dykes, who are charged with beating a sheep man out of $2,700 worth of his sheep, arrived at Medford about three months ago and bought out the Rogue River Fish Co., changing the name of the concern to the Hayter Fish Co.

Shortly before their arrival at Medford, word was received at Sheriff Jones' office that the men were wanted, also the information that Hayter's wife had purchased a ticket to Gold Hill, Oregon, and Marshal Hammersley was notified to be on the look-out, with the above result.

The men were released upon giving bonds of $1,000 each to appear when the California sheriff arrived.

Walter Hayter was liberated Wednesday under habeas corpus proceedings, by Judge Neil. It was shown that Walter Hayter was only an employe of his brother, James Hayter, and had nothing to do with the transaction beyond driving the sheep to the railroad and assisting in shipping them.

WEST TALKS TO VOTERS

Delivers a short address to Jacksonville voters Tuesday--Says that Oregonian must retract.

Oswald West, democratic candidate for governor of Oregon, and party consisting of Turner Oliver, democratic direct primary nominee for secretary of state, Hugh McLane, candidate for railroad commissioner and H. D. Reed, who seeks to be joint representative, were in Jacksonville Tuesday.

Mr. West delivered a short but able address from the walk in front of the Bank of Jacksonville, for the most part devoting his attention to political issues of the day. During the course of his remarks he referred to the charges made by the Portland Oregonian concerning the mileage he collected from the government while on a trip to Washington.

Mr. West said he was sent to Washington to secure data for the state railroad commission at the state's cost. He demanded that the federal government reimburse the state for the money his trip cost. This the government was unable to do, but offered him mileage which he accepted, and after paying his expenses at Portland, where he was subpoenaed as a witness in the Binger Hermann trial, turned the balance over to the state.

He branded the Oregonian's charge as a "lying bit of libelous slander" and promised to force that paper to retract its statement as soon as the campaign was over.

Jacksonville Property Sold.

A deal was consummated this week whereby Sid M. Nichol, who recently opened a grocery store in the Ryan Bldg. near the post office, became the purchaser of the Tom Williamson property on California St., almost directly opposite his present place of business. This lot is 30 feet wide and extends from California St. back to the R. R. V. Ry. tracks and is in a splendid business location. The deal was made through the agency of the County Seat Real Estate Office.

Crippen Hangs Nov. 8

Dr. H. H. Crippen, who in a sensational trial was convicted of the murder of his wife, Belle Elmore Crippen, at London, England, has been sentenced by Lord Chief Justice Alverstone, to be hanged at Bentonville prison on Nov. 8.

The trial of Miss Leneve, who was charged with being an accessory to the murder, commenced Tuesday. After a short trial Miss Leneve was acquitted of the murder of Mrs. Crippen. The jury was out only three minutes.

Illegal Train Riding

Tramp train riding is pretty popular but it leads to the county jail nowadays. The report of the number of persons confined in the Dauphin county prison during the year 1909 has just been made public. It shows that 7,333 persons were committed for various offenses, of which number 1,762 served terms for illegal train riding and 335 for trespass. The total expense to the county was $23,354.22.--Philadelphia Record.

To the Lover of Good Coffee

We wish to advise you that we have installed in our store a new Royal Electric Coffee Mill, which is being placed on the market by The A. J. Deer Co., of Hornell, N. Y. This machine is equipped with steel knives which cut the berry into uniform clean cut particles, instead of grinding and crushing it, as by the old method.

All Coffee Mills heretofore used will only crush the berry, mauling the minute oil cells, allowing the Coffee Oil to evaporate, thus impairing the strength and flavor.

By this new process the little oil cells remain unbroken, the essential oil (food product), can not evaporate and the coffee thus retains its fine, rich, aromatic flavor in its full strength.

This is one reason why a pound of coffee cut in this mill will make from twelve to fifteen cups more of full strength coffee than will any coffee ground the old way. The Lover of Good Coffee finds here a richness of flavor never found in Coffee ground in the ordinary way at any price.

Another feature about this Mill is that you may have your Coffee cut as fine as the finest sand and it will still be practically free from that fine dust which is produced by the old method of grinding. You will, therefore, always have a clear cup of coffee instead of a muddy effect--a result of using the old style Mills.

Royal Cut Coffee is also adaptable for percolators or French Drip Coffee Pots.

Try a pound of our coffee cut on a Royal Mill and we know you will be pleased with the results.

Yours truly,

Ulrich Brothers
