A Good Position

Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or Railway telegraphy. Since the 8-hour law became effective, and since the Wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chance of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute of Portland, Ore., operates six official institutes in America, under supervision of R. R. and Wireless Officials and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details.

In spite of Mr. Huges' anti-gumming law there was a big game pulled off at Saratoga last week.

What does the cow get out of this proposed increase in milk?

Let the kickers and croakers say all they have to say and get over with it.

Says a paragraph from the N. Y. convention. "According to the present indications, Mr. Sherman will be lucky if 'T. R.' lets him get up in the convention and suggest that the windows be raised for ventilation. It came true all right."

That New York porter who found a pocket-book containing $5,500 and got a $5 bill as a reward probably now seriously doubts that honesty is the best policy.

The government is going to put 4,000,000 fish into the Great Lakes. That ought to furnish good material for next year's fish stories.

To use an eloquent baseball term, Mr. Ballinger does not evidently approve of the sacrifice hit.

Dr. Woodrow Wilson was playing golf when he heard the news of his nomination. Golf, he it remembered is the pastime of the Presidents.

If Mr. Schuab is going to build a new navy for China, he ought to be made to guarantee that Japan will not swipe.

It is too bad that George Ade was not here to welcome him, but welcome, Sultan of Sulu, to our country.

A Chicago dressmaker says that dresses should be made to fit, not alone the body but the disposition. Yes and the pocket book too.

Well at my rate the Sultan of Sulu has had a clever press agent preparing us for his visit.

Talk about the perils of aviation. One of those balloons that started from Indianapolis landed in Jacksonville, Fla.

At physician that says that mince pie and baked beans are deadly food we probably trying to account for Boston's slow growth in population.

A democratic victory will not upset the recent Indiana tradition in one respect. The two Hoosier Senators will despise each other.

The man who pays a week's salary to provide his family with tickets to hear a grand opera singer gets off much easier than the one who makes love to her.
