A Good Position

Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or Railway telegraphy. Since the 8-hour law became effective, and since the Wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chance of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute of Portland, Ore., operates six official institutes in America, under supervision of R. R. and Wireless Officials and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details.

AN INTERESTING COMPARISON

343 Prohibition towns have a tax rate of $2.54.
 846 License towns have a tax rate of $1.58.
 Tax rate in prohibition towns average 61 per cent MORE than in license towns.
 The above figures were gathered from towns in 41 states where conditions other than excise were equal. They conclusively prove that prohibition creates higher taxes and generally adds to the cost of living. One year after Atlanta was voted "dry" the tax rate increased 40 per cent.
 In 29 Kansas towns under State-wide Prohibition the tax rate is as high as $5.63 on $100.
 In Birmingham, Ala., with the advent of prohibition the city authorities were compelled to place a special tax on every class of business from blacking boots to the public utility corporations, said tax ranging from $2.50 to $15,000.

In most places where prohibitory legislation has been enacted a deficit has followed; public buildings have been neglected because there was no money in the treasury to keep them up; schools have been closed or at best run on short time; and the public debt has increased at a startling rate.
 In Los Gatos, Cal., a prohibitory and a search law, such as is now proposed in your own state, were put into effect. What was the result?
 Wives and daughters were insulted by petty officers who came to search houses during the absence of the husbands and fathers. After a short trial of such an outrageous imposition Los Gatos went back to the old regime of license by an overwhelming majority; the prohibis welcoming it most, no doubt, as they could not stomach this infamous search law.

It is easy to tell others what to do but to sweep in front of your own door is often hard work and seldom accomplished even by Prohibition Agitators. To see yourself as others see us is not paid enough attention to.

"Forget not, I pray you, the rights of PERSONAL FREEDOM. Self-government is the foundation of all our political and social institutions. Seek not to enforce upon your brother by legislative enactment the virtue that he can possess only by the dictates of his own conscience and the energy of his will."—John Quincy Adams
