

FOR DECEMBER

Copyright 1910 by C. H. RIETH.

Tom, Tom, the piper's son, Thought to steal another one, But when, with bacon 40 cents, He thought upon the consequence, And what he probably would get In case he landed in the net, The lawyers he would have to hire To save him from the butcher's ire, The money Cudahy would spend To push it to the bitter end, The merciless concern of Swift To see he was not set adrift, The sum that Armour, if he fled, Would offer for him live or dead, And how the unforgiving lust For vengeance would move the trust To make example of him lest Some other piper's son protest Against pork chops at thirty flat, And pickled pigs' feet selling at Six-bits a dozen, soux a bit, And sausage even close to it— When Tom considered it, in brief, And also how much more a thief He would be this time than before, He wisely passed the butcher's door, Rejoiced that self had stood the test, And went on hoping for the best.

December is from the Latin decem, meaning ten. It was originally the tenth month of the year, but owing to the widespread unpreparedness for Christmas it has been shoved along from time to time, until it occurs now as far back as we have been able to get it. Caesar, who was in the habit of making each of his soldiers some kind of a present, even suggested pushing it further along still and having about fifteen months in the year, but the Roman merchants protested that it was impossible to sell holiday goods except in very cold weather, and Brutus, Cassius and several other Roman business men finally stabbed him.

The custom of giving presents was originated by the Greeks, and they had such a faculty for getting the better of it when they exchanged presents with anyone that the expression "Beware of the Greeks bearing gifts!" became historic. It was on Christmas day when all the Greeks were showing what they had gotten and were laughing about it that Diogenes, who made a practice of criticizing the national faults in some amusing way, set out on his famous search for an honest man. The Persians one time resorted to arms in an effort to get their presents back, but they were badly defeated at the battle of Marathon, and no serious attempt to get presents back has ever been made from that time to this.

The colt will burrow in the stack, and the festive colt will arch his back and gambol at a fearful gait to make his ichor circulate. The bear will slumber in his bed and dream that Roosevelt is dead, and the Winter night will worry through with the wolf ki-yi-ing down the flue.

The wind will push against the door and our old friend Boreas will roar and fill the Winter night and fell with samples of his college yell. The price of eggs will feel imbued to beat the mark for altitude, and butter will cavort around about two miles above the ground.

O happy man that has his hold stock-ed up against the Winter's cold, and has no urgent need to reek how many storms may sweep his deck. Who has his scuppers bulging kraut and all things ship-shape in and out, and all the products of his climate right at the port-holes all the time.

A Handsome Woman

Every woman may not be handsome, but every woman should keep with care the good points nature has given her. No woman need have sallow skin, dull eye, blotchy complexion, who pays proper attention to her health.

Where constipation, liver derangements, blood impurities and other irregularities exist, good complexion, bright eyes and sprightly movements cannot exist. Internal derangements reveal themselves sooner or later on the surface. Headache, dark rings around the eyes, sallow skin, a constant tired feeling—mean that the liver and digestive organs are needing help and correction. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets give this necessary help.

They work in nature's own way. They do not merely flush the bowels but tone up the liver and stomach to fulfill their proper functions. So mild and gentle do they act that one hardly realizes that they have taken medicine. Chamberlain's Tablets can be relied upon to relieve biliousness, indigestion, constipation and dizziness. Sold everywhere. Price 25 cents.
