Oregon Activities

Oregon's financial condition, as shown by the State Treasurer's report, is in excellent condition. There is $424,913 on hand, with no debts, bonded or otherwise.

Oregon raises the best apples. This is no idle boast for not only has this state won the sweepstakes prize at the Spokane National Apple Show two successive years but also captured the first prize of $1,000 at the Chicago show this year.

Oregon City has a paper mill that is the third largest in the world.

Wallawa has a startling potato story. One vine, that grew on new ground, is said to have attained the height of 6 feet, 1 in height, and produced 40 tubers, the total weight of the potatoes being 16 pounds.

Four hundred boxes of Comice pears, grown near Medford, sold in the London market this season for $10 a box.

Siberia is buying Oregon apples. One hundred boxes of choice Hood River fruit recently shipped there for sale.

Rogue River orchardists will plant 1,500,000 pear and apple trees this season. This new planting will cover 20,000 acres and bring the total orchard acreage in that valley to 85,000.

The annual report of the Portland Union Stockyards Company shows Portland is becoming a great packing center. The value of livestock shipped the first year the concern was in operation amounted to $3,355,000.

A large acreage around Hermiston is being seeded to alfalfa. This is not only a profitable crop for hay but there but there is money in raising seed, which brings 23 cents per pound.

Estacada, an Oregon town seven years of age, has become one of the most prosperous communities of its size and is attracting much attention as a fruit section. It ranks high in apple and walnut production. Strawberries in the Estacada district yield at the rate of $200 an acre.

State banks have been prosperous the past year, as shown by the annual report of State Bank Examiner Wright, who found individual deposits in Oregon banks on November 10 totaled $104,270,300, a net gain since November 16, 1909, of $14,221,550. Total resources of Oregon banks increased during the year almost $20,000,000.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets give this necessary help. They work in nature's own way. They do not merely flush the bowels but tone up the liver and stomach to fulfill their proper functions. So mild and gentle do they act that one hardly realizes that they have taken medicine.
