THE JACKSONVILLE POST

Official Paper of the City of Jacksonville, Oregon

A weekly newspaper published every Saturday at the county seat of Jackson County, Oregon. D. W. BAGSHAW, Editor.

Entered as second-class matter June 22, 1907, at the post office at Jacksonville, Oregon, under Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1911

SUBSCRIPTION: One year by mail $1.50. Advertising rates furnished on application.

The prospects are good for the completion of the waterworks at an early date. With plenty of good water for domestic use, fire protection and watering lawns, we can look for an increase in the population of the town next year, several parties have declared their intention to build residences and move here as soon as the water is an assured fact.

The papers of the state are alleging various causes for commutation of the death penalty by Governor West in the case of the murderer Webb. Perhaps the real reason for the governor's action was an aversion to the infliction of the death penalty. A number of the thinking people of the state are opposed to capital punishment and contend that the law authorizing its infliction should be repealed.
