

Fresh, Succulent Sealshipt Oysters

It doesn't matter how you serve Sealshipt Oysters--raw, roasted, fried, stewed, escalloped--whether for lunch, dinner or supper, they are always good, and enjoyed under all circumstances.

From the Oyster Beds to Us Under Seal

Sealshipt Oysters reach us weekly from the coast under seal. When you see Sealshipt Oysters as we display them in our clean white and blue porcelain enamelled Sealshiptcase, you will marvel at their freshness. You couldn't get oysters more wholesome and appetizing.

Sealshipt Oysters are also economical--no waste. A pint is enough for the ordinary family.

Sealshipt Oysters

Straight From the Sea to Us

There are many imitations of Sealshipt Oysters. The only way you can be sure to get genuine Sealshipt Oysters is from the Shiptcase shown here--which you will see in our store. You can always identify Sealshipt Oysters by looking for the trade-mark in the center of the Sealshiptcase and the name and address of the "Sealshipt Oyster System" near the bottom; so in protection to yourself, buy from us. We are registered Sealshipt Agents.

NATIVE PENNSYLVANIANS

Will Hold Re-union at Medford Saturday Nov. 4.

The Rogue River Society of Native Pennsylvanians will meet on Saturday, November 4th, in the Reading Room of the Presbyterian Church, Medford, Oregon. All Pennsylvanians are invited, and every Pennsylvanian is to tell the other Pennsylvanian about it. The meeting is at 11 a. m. Basket dinner at 12 m. Everyone is to bring enough for himself and one more. Pennsylvania generosity and hospitality must be shown. Some good addresses. Reminiscences by all. Good social time. Everything Pennsylvanian. Wives and husbands of Pennsylvanians are members of this Society.

BY ORDER OF COMMITTEE.

Oregon Sidelights.

The city fathers at Baker are out of patience with speed fiends and have issued a stern warning that the ordinance will henceforth be rigidly enforced.

Medford Mail-Tribune: The city council has failed to create an office for a plain clothes office, owing to the lack of funds. The matter will come up at a later date.

A Himalaya berry bush on the premises of T. J. Cheshire of Salem has this year produced 364 quarts of berries and is still producing. The bush is 6 years old.

The Astoria council has established a detective bureau. The first plain clothes man appointed is patrolman Thompson who is said to have served long and faithfully.

Eugene Register: A full carload of railroad laborers went through Eugene to Natron Wednesday to work on the Oregon Eastern. It will take some time to finish up the work.

Stanfield Standard: Some people are investigating the matter of using Italian prunes as fillers in Winesap apple orchards instead of peaches, with the result that prunes are gaining in favor.

In the Criterion, Editor Fogle depicts the advantages of Lebanon as a town for homes. He is particularly impressed with the opportunity afforded by the amplitude of grounds surrounding the typical Lebanon residence.

Sherwood News Sheet: Houses are being built as rapidly as possible in Sherwood, but still there are those who can't find homes for the winter. Sherwood is a drawing card, however, and those who can't find houses put up tents.

Enterprise Record Chieftain: If you have surplus money to invest, put it into Wallowa county enterprises. If you want to throw it away on a stranger's game, buy stock in the Hoopdoodle company the oil-tongued stranger is representing.

Albany Democrat: A Mr. Wilson and his family are here from Texas, with a view to locating. He reported at least 40 families who were intending to come to Oregon to live. Failure of crops there and its frequency was causing a good deal of discouragement.

T. S. Shumway of Hobart, Okla., who has arrived at Baker, will tour Oregon as the representative of 20 Oklahoma families. The Herald quotes Mr. Shumway as saying that the extensive advertising of the commercial clubs throughout Oregon has deeply interested the people in Oklahoma and many are preparing to move to Oregon.--Journal.

When you have a bad cold you want the best medicine obtainable so as to cure it with as little delay as possible. Here is a druggist's opinion: "I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for fifteen years," says Erno Lollar of Saratoga, Ind., "and consider it the best on the market." Sold by all dealers.

Electric Sparks.

There is nothing worse than a rainy washday except two rainy washdays.

Italy is anxious to have its Turkey done brown.

"A Chicago architect is said to have arrived at the conclusion after careful study of the subject, that the capitol at Washington cannot last more than 500 years." Colonel Bryan had better get a sprint on.

Same as bacon this season--steak of fat and steak of lean, steak of cool and steak of warm.

Mrs. Leslie Carter's press agent is again having her sued for the price of the clothes she never had.

Some people are so unlucky they would be run over by a pushcart instead of an automobile.

Italy is wise. It starts its wars in the fall just when the Italian visitors to America are getting home with their earnings.

Now that his foes have been ousted, Dr. Wiley's job, like the prophets of old, is "guaranteed." Pure Food and Drugs.

"We have to have organization" has passed into its immortal place in the pages of the political Joe Miller joke book.

The perfect wife, as we understand it, is the one who assures her husband that tobacco smoke improves lace curtains.

Now that reciprocity has been disposed of, the country can once more revert to the consideration of the tariff, the whole tariff and nothing but the tariff.

Although the death rate in New York lowers steadily it is getting harder and harder to live there.

A Georgia Admirer says that Hoke Smith has 250 pounds of pull, but it isn't weighed that way in Washington.

John D. is boasting that he is descended from the early Kings of France, Scotland and Spain; if we had a lot of poor relations in Europe we would have kept it quiet.

It would be a fine thing for this country if Italy would call home all of her "blackharders" to help fight the Turks.

The situation seems to boil down to this, "The more gold there is the less we have."

Attorney-General Wickersham is determined to force the Wall Paper Trust to the wall, as it were.

Next time the prophets meet in Washington the saloons should have their signs read "Welcome Profits."

In his perplexity over the selection of his Canadian cabinet we suggest to Mr. Borden that he let the Washington correspondents do it in the usual way.

Col. Bryan deploring the reciprocity outcome, says he spent the last ten days in Canada. That explains it Sir Wilfred Laurier had Bryan running with reciprocity.

Mr. Bryan has no word to say for that distinguished Democrat whom he once supported, Alton B. Parker.

Secretary Fisher has returned from Alaska with the rheumatism. That country gave his predecessor all kinds of troubles.

Jack Johnson's lecture to the clergymen on the ethics of boxing was not as well attended as the one he delivered to Jeffries.

Admiral Chadwick says Admiral Schley was justified in looping the loop at Santiago. Those on the Spanish feet there never had any reason to doubt it.

J. W. Copeland, of Dayton, Ohio, purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for his boy who had a cold, and before the bottle was all used the boy's cold was gone. Is that not better than to pay a five dollar doctor's bill? Sold by all dealers.

A Child's Delight

is a few of our delicious Candies, but older children, we notice, never turn up their noses at them. The most critical judges pronounce our confections to be pure and wholesome, and we ourselves vouch for the positive cleanliness of their ingredients, and their making and handling. But--though of the highest grade--the prices are moderate.
