

Mother Bear Reclaims Cub.

Glacier Park, Mont. Aug. 12.—An old mother bear stole into the Taft party's camp on the side of Red Eagle mountain last night and thereby hangs a tale of how President Taft is to be spared the political embarrassment of having to receive a Teddy bear cub into his household when his son Robert returns from his outing in Glacier National Park.

The cub was presented to young Taft by Big Top, Blackfoot Indian chief. On the arrival of the Taft expedition August 6, "Scotty," the guide, got a dog collar for the cub and the mascot was tied in camp as a pet. The young animal cried nearly all last night until rescued and adopted by the old bear, which bravely descended the mountain side, gnawed the rope in two parts and defiantly marched back up the mountain growling her feeling at two of the guides who started to follow the bold "cubnapper."
