Rattlesnakes are Plentiful.

It is reported that a total of 500 rattlesnakes have been killed during the past month by Weavers & Miller's crew, on Clover Hill. Johnnie Bowman says he slaughtered 42 of the reptiles within an hour and did not receive a scratch. Art Frink reports that in order to save trouble he just raked them off the wagon wheels, while Marshall Pinkston and Walter Ash declared they spread their blankets on a bunch of them one night and slept peacefully.—Wallula Wash., Gateway.
