SHIPS JACKSONVILLE FRUIT

W. I. McIntyre Reports Splendid Crop of Apples, Pears and Peaches.

W. I. McIntyre, who owns and operates a 17-acre orchard, situated at the southern edge of town, is probably one of the busiest men in Jacksonville at this season of the year. Mr. McIntyre told a Post representative who called at his packing house Thursday, that he is shipping daily 100 boxes of peaches and would continue to do so for several days. His total shipment of Early Crawfords, all of which are consigned to Page & Son of Portland, will reach 500 or 600 boxes. These peaches are large, of beautiful color and delicious flavor.

Mr. McIntyre also shipped 185 boxes of Bartlett pear through the agency of the Rogue River Valley Fruit & Produce Association, Wednesday. Experienced packers who handled these pears, declare them to be the equal of any they had ever seen. Pears in one box selected for exhibition purposes average one pound each, are of fine shape and perfectly smooth skinned. A fair sample from this box may be seen at the Post office.

If his apple crop matures as well as present indications promise, Mr. McIntyre expects to market a full carload of Newtowns this fall. Such an abundance and variety of fruit as is mentioned would seem to be all one could expect from an orchard of limited acreage, but in addition, from his 17-acre orchard, Mr. McIntyre dries from 1500 to 3000 pounds of prunes every year. None of this fruit is shipped as there is a strong demand for it at home.

This is an illustration of what the soil and climate of Rogue River valley is capable of, when aided by intelligent toil.

WANTS JOB BACK

Ex-mayor Jones of Redmond Says Resignation is Void.

Metolius, Or., Aug. 28.—Affairs have been assuming quite a lively attitude in Redmond the past two days. On Sunday evening ex-Mayor Jones returned from Portland and demanded to be reinstated as Mayor, declaring his resignation to have been irregular. On being refused he entered a contest on Monday in a straw vote, to decide whom the Council should appoint to fill out his time. The people who have been working for a clean town refused to have anything to do with the election, saying that it was up to the Council to give them a Mayor, and if the Councilmen gave them a bad one they could get rid of him in the same manner as that used in eliminating Jones.

Jones and J. F. Hosch were the only candidates before the people at the straw vote, and by much hustling got out about half the voting population to the election, most of the ballots being cast for Hosch. A lively scrap is expected, as Jones is still contending that he is Mayor and the Council is most likely to appoint Hosch. The clean town faction, like the monkey that divided the cheese for the two cats, is sitting by, looking on and waiting for the time to come when it shall have to step in and settle the fuss.

Crazy Woman Atter Taft.

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 29.—While President Taft was at breakfast this morning at the Southern Hotel, Mrs. Beers, a middle-aged woman, who is supposed to be insane attempted to gain admittance to the dining hall.

Mrs. Beers, who was overpowered by the secret service men after causing considerable excitement claimed that she was the wife of the president and said she was following him to see that he remained true to her while on his visit in this state.

When searched Mrs. Beers was found to have a knife with a three-inch blade, the point of which was ground to a fine point. The woman said it was a "sacred knife" and would protect her honor. Mrs. Beers made an unsuccessful attempt a year ago to interview President Taft.

Motor Street Cars for Medford.

Medford will have a motor street car line in the near future, giving service over the principal streets every fifteen minutes if the plans of J. A. Westerlund do not miscarry. He is now organizing a company, capitalized at $20,000 to put on four motor cars to make regular trips.

Mr. Westerlund has gone carefully into the subject and has received encouragement from the business men of the city whom he has consulted.—Mail-Tribune.

During the summer months mothers of young children should watch for any unnatural looseness of the bowels. When given prompt attention at this time serious trouble may be avoided. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy can always be depended upon. For sale by all dealers.

SCHOOL STARTS SEPT. 9.

Rules of Reading, Writing and Arithmetic Expounded a Week From Monday.

At a meeting of the school directors held in the office of Dr. T. T. Thaw, Wednesday, it was decided to commence the ensuing school year on Monday September 9th. An efficient corps of teachers has been secured and everything points to a highly successful term. J. C. F. Harrington, principal of last year will again have charge of the school and will be assisted by Miss Mary S. Hurst, who served in the same capacity the preceding term. Miss Clara Clausen, a teacher from Minnesota, will take charge of the 6th and 7th grades; Miss Nanna Fleming, another stranger, coming from Washington, will have the 4th and 5th grades; Miss Pearl Gillette, who taught here last term, will take the 2nd and 3rd grades and Miss Emma Wendt will teach the very "young idea how to shoot."

Fire on Forest Reserve.

Fire which broke out on the left hand fork of Forest creek Saturday afternoon, burned over about 100 acres of the forest reserve in that section. State Fire Warden Harper, who discovered the blaze while on his daily round, hastened to the scene and raising a force of settlers from the adjacent country, after a hard struggle lasting from Saturday afternoon until Monday morning, succeeded in subduing the flames. The origin of the fire is unknown.

NEWSPAPERMEN LOST

Klamath Editor and Manager Spend Two Days on Lake.

Klamath Falls, Aug. 27.—Lost for two days without food in a network of swampy islands covered with high tule was the experience of Mahlon T. Dolman and Rossiter Nikel, editor and advertising manager of the Klamath Falls Northwestern. Exhausted they reached Worden, 14 miles from here today. They lost their way in a launch in lower Klamath lake in a maze of islands. The engine became disabled. After the second night they abandoned their boat and tramped through the morass to the mainland.

GRAND JURY BUSY

Find True Bills in a Number of Cases Heard This Week.

The grand jury chosen for the March term of court consisting of Ira Shoudy, foreman; G. B. Ross, Elmo Neil, R. H. Toft, T. J. O'Hara, J. C. Brown and T. W. Sifers, convened at the court house Monday and returned indictments against a number of persons charged with various crimes. Indictments returned for the most part followed preliminary hearings in justice's courts in different parts of the county. Indictments were returned against Frank Ceol, his wife and daughter, Annie, for assault on W. C. Daley at Lake Creek some three months ago. Evidence produced at Ceol's preliminary hearing shows that Ceol, aided by his wife and daughter, attacked Daley after they had had some words over an irrigation ditch. Ceol and his wife were arraigned Thursday, and waiving time to plead, entered a plea of not guilty.

The grand jury returned several indictments for larceny, one of which is against Fred Schaffer, charged with robbing a jewelry store at Central Point, and who was later arrested at Portland with a portion of the stolen goods in his possession. Schaffer was arraigned Thursday and pleaded guilty. He was sentenced to serve an indeterminate sentence of from one to seven years in the penitentiary.

A true bill was also returned against W. M. Dunlap of Ashland who is said to have stolen tools.

Indictments were returned against Thomas Monk and Lawrence Brooks, two 17-year old boys, for larceny committed at Ashland. The boys were arraigned Thursday and pleaded guilty. On account of their age, the court continued time to sentence and will take the matter under advisement.

A true bill was found against James Gibbs, a Medford barber, for assault on Bert Johnson of the same city. Gibbs was arraigned Thursday and pleaded not guilty.

Indictments were returned against Peter Lopez for the larceny of a bicycle; Alvin Walker for failure to support his wife; and Earl Jackson, who was held on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

An indictment was returned against E. C. Montgomery, charged with deserting his wife, Elsie Montgomery, shortly after their marriage. Montgomery who was released on bail, is said to be in Idaho. In case he does not soon appear he will probably be charged with jumping a bond.

True bills were returned against Charles G. Crane for larceny and against Boyd Ambrose for embezzlement of funds belonging to Charles Tull.

Two indictments were returned against Bert VanCyle, one charging theft of gas stoves from Walter McCullum and the other theft of property from P. R. Dodge.

The grand jury concluded its labors Thursday and adjourned. In its final report it includes the following paragraph:

"We have made an examination of none of the offices or records of the county officers not deeming it necessary. Of the buildings of the county we have examined only the county jail, which we find to be a good building, a credit to the county and the manner in which it is kept reflects credit on the present management of the same."

Oregon Sidelights.

The Lebanon Tribune will miss its next weekly issue, in order to give its composing room force a vacation.

A new steel water main has been laid on Main street in Condon, displacing a wooden main and vastly increasing pressure.

Donald is to have a bank, to be called the Donald Commercial bank. The incorporators are James P. Fuller, G. A. Cone and Jess Hayes. The bank is capitalized at $15,000.

Lebanon Tribune: Perry Parker, of Sand Ridge, reports a yield of nine bushels of clover seed per acre. At the prevailing prices this will give a return of $34.80 per acre, a good profit on land worth even $100 per acre.

Lakeview Examiner: Peter Burke, the well known brickmaker from Reno, is turning out fine high grade brick, which are going into the Heryford building now being rapidly constructed.

Joseph Herald, This week Al Jones left several heads of head lettuce at this office that were nearly as large as a wheat shock, and George Tucker several turnips as large as a half-grown hog.

Willowa Sun: One of the prettiest sights that ever gladdened an eye are the magnificent wheat fields for miles to the north, east and west of Joseph. The grain was so heavy that there was scarcely room to shock it on the same ground it was cut from.

Fossil Journal: John Flock of Prairie City delivered a ton of honey at Burns and expects to sell 9000 pounds this year from his 101 hives. Mr. Flock used to keep a bee farm at Mitchell, and made good money. Homer Knox has lately embarked in the bee business on the John Day river below Clarno.

Condon Globe: The Globe man is indebted to G. W. Marvel of Rock creek for a large box of apples and peaches which are as fine as can be grown anywhere. Several of the apples measure 13 inches in circumference. Both apples and peaches are sound showing no trace of moth or worm.

Sumpter American: No longer will the miser, lumberjack, or other persons in Sumpter with a roll of bills in his pocket and a desire to tempt the fair goddess of luck over the green cloth find opportunity to satisfy his desire when in Sumpter. This decision has been reached through a mutual understanding and agreement between the saloon men of the city and is the result of an order issued by Mayor Edwards.—Journal.

BENCH WARRANT ISSUED

Laura White Wanted as Witness in Jim Ling Case.

District Judge F. M. Calkins issued a bench warrant Tuesday afternoon for the apprehension of Laura White also known as Viola Miller who was a prominent figure in the Wo Lee-Jim Ling stabbing affray at a Medford Chinese laundry some time ago. The woman, who is said to be at Portland, is wanted as a witness in the case of the state vs. Jim Ling for an assault with a deadly weapon, and an effort will be made to apprehend her and return to Jacksonville.

Jim Ling is the Chinaman who is accused of having stabbed and robbed Wo Lee in a local laundry some time ago. In the developments which followed a discovery was made of a white slave den in the basement of the laundry and a white girl, Laura White, taken from there. An effort was made to reform the girl which apparently failed. She is now said to be living in a Chinese den at Portland, being a confirmed opium slave.

Medford Chinese are said to be lined up solidly against Jim Ling, and have spent time and money in an effort to show the authorities his past record. They claim that he is a white slaver, a joint keeper and an altogether undesirable citizen. His case will probably come to trial next week.

CORNERS BARLEY CRIP

Portland Man Makes Largest Deal in History of Northwest.

Portland, Aug. 28.—One of the largest grain deals in Pacific northwest history came to light today, by the purchase of the Dayton barley pool. M. H. Houser of Portland, an exporter, practically secured a corner on all brewing barley produced in this region and made a profit of a quarter of a million last year by a similar deal. He sold the barley in the east last year, and this year will sell in Europe on account of a shortage in brewing barley there. The Dayton pool amounting to 120,000 sacks was bought at $1.25 per hundred. Individual lots aggregating 125,000 bags were also bought later.

ASHLAND PLANS FAIR

Part of Display at Grants Pass Will be Added to Jackson County Exhibits.

Ashland, Or., Aug. 28.—Premium lists for the coming Industrial Fair to be held in this city September 25 to 28, have arrived from the state printer's office. Superintendent Lowe, who has charge of the exhibits reports an unusual interest in the fair and the prospects is for the best fair ever held in southern Oregon.

Mr. Lowe has made expeditions into the outlying districts and has every assurance that exhibits will appear from the farthest points in every section of Jackson and Josephine counties.

Word from Grants Pass to Secretary Day indicates that the metropolis of Josephine county is preparing to send a splendid exhibit. The Grangers of Grants Pass are planning to hold a fair September 18 to 20 and the best of the exhibits will be brought to Ashland. Local growers are enthusiastic and will endeavor to make the Ashland exhibit excel those from other sections. The ladies will collect the best exhibit of fancy work ever assembled.

GOVERNOR OUSTS CAMERON

District Attorney of Multnomah County Removed.

Salem, Ore., Aug. 27.—Governor West today removed from office District Attorney Cameron of Portland and appointed as his successor Walter H. Evans, assistant United States district attorney. The removal was made under the statute providing that whenever a district attorney fails to furnish the governor with a complete statement of facts in a pardon case, the governor may remove him.

The action of Governor West is the result of District Attorney Cameron's refusal to allow Evans to act as special prosecutor and carry out Governor West's reform plans.

With Walter H. Evans, assistant United States district attorney, declaring that he would not accept Governor West's appointment of him in place of District Attorney Cameron for the next few days, at least, and Mr. Cameron uncertain of his status, Multnomah county is just now without an official prosecutor.

Unless Mr. Evans is induced to change his mind and accept the office after a conference with Governor West the situation may have to be solved by the attorney general, prominent lawyers believe, has the power to step in and take charge of the local prosecutor's office under such conditions.

Portland, Aug. 28.—Walter H. Evans declined to accept Governor West's appointment as special deputy district attorney giving as his reason the pressure of business in the office of United States district attorney, where Evans is a deputy.

Ashland Landmark Destroyed.

Ashland, Or., Aug. 26.—For the second time this month, the fire department has been called out in the early hours of the morning to quench a fire in business property on Main street. The man to suffer loss was G. W. Stevenson, a retired capitalist. The latest loss occurred at 4 o'clock yesterday, when a wooden block with a frontage of 60 feet was burned beyond repair by a fire of unknown origin. The block is the last of the wooden structures facing on the Plaza and was one of the landmarks of Ashland. Good & Darford, electrical supply house, are the heaviest losers.

The upper floor was occupied by the Plaza rooming house, operated by G. J. Ferguson and wife. Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson came here several months ago for their health. They had about $500 invested in furniture, all of which was a total loss. They had no insurance. The total loss on building and contents will probably reach $10,000.

Peasant Died at Age of 188.

Vienna, Aug. 27.—A Sofia despatch reports the death at Tornaova, Bulgaria of a peasant woman named Marie Palanoff, at the age of 188 years. She has been a widow for 75 years and all of her fourteen children died long ago. She left nearly 100 living descendants.
