NO. 21

ANNUAL REUNION

Southern Oregon Pioneer Society to Meet Here Sept. 26.

The committee on arrangements for the annual meeting of the Southern Oregon Pioneer Society, which will be held here Thursday Sept. 26th, issues the following notice.

"Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the Southern Oregon Pioneer Society will be held at the Court House in Jacksonville, Oregon, on Thursday Sept. 26th, 1912. Exercises commence at 11:00 a. m.

"All Pioneers are requested to be present, and a general invitation is extended to the public.

"Dinner will be served free to all pioneers by the Native Daughters of Jane McCully Cabin No. 1.

"All members should come prepared to pay their annual dues of $1.00. Matters of importance will come before this meeting.

"By order of committee on Arrangements."

Including pioneers, their friends and Native Sons and Daughters of Oregon, between 200 and 300 visitors are expected in Jacksonville on the day of the reunion, and preparations for their entertainment are rapidly nearing completion. Exercises of the day will be held at the court house, where Rev. Paul S. Bandy of this city, has been invited to speak Thursday morning. In the afternoon the pioneers will be addressed by Harry Lane of Portland, son of General Joseph Lane, first territorial governor of Oregon.

Dinner will be served to all pioneers by the Native Daughters of Jane McCully Cabin No. 1, at I. O. O. F. hall.

This is a Fish Story.

Benj. M. Collins, Roy Ulrich, Albert Gangwisch, Charley Dunford and Harry Luy, all of whom have enviable reputations for truth and veracity, say that they caught 325 trout while fishing on Big Applegate Wednesday. The largest fish captured measured fifteen inches, while the smallest would easily pass inspection. This may be called a record catch and goes to show that one need not journey deep into the wilderness to enjoy a day's sport.

Buncom Reports.

Fine weather in sight.
Fred Cople was in town the first of the week.
Hollis Parks was in the city recently.

W. R. Garrett and Ancel Gilson was in town on business matters Monday.

Miss Mae Lawrence of Gold Hill commenced her school at Uniontown. F. Forman made a flying trip to town the other day.

Mr. Frank Cameron was the guest Mrs. George Wolf Sunday.

Ella Parks commenced teaching at Sterling last Monday.

Joe Goldsby was in town Tuesday.

Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Cameron was seen on the streets last week.

We are glad to mention about two more telephones on our line which are Ancel Gilson, No. 31 F 41, and Joe Ginett, No. 31 F 15. We don't expect to get lonesome up here as long as our line is in order.

FOR SALE—Five graded jersey cows, all giving milk. At J. Goldsby's.

UTAH MINERS STRIKE

State Militia May be Called to Suppress Trouble.

Bingham, Utah, Sept. 18.—Forty-five hundred men employed in the copper mines laid down their tools this morning after operators had refused last night to meet their demand for an increase in pay of 20 cents a day. Every mine district with one exception is idle and the strikers are mostly foreigners and are determined no one shall enter the mines or buildings until their demands are granted. So far there has been little trouble. Seventy-five deputies are patrolling the streets tonight and all the saloons are closed. Twenty-five deputy sheriffs who went to the camp last night attempted to stop the promiscuous shooting and to lift the blockade. Their efforts led to the first bloodshed when one of the deputies shot and slightly wounded a striker who refused to obey the order to stop shooting. This brought a fusillade upon the deputy, who made a hurried retreat.

Sheriff Sharp dispatched reinforcements to the first squad of deputies, and when the officers attempted to go to the mines and draw the fires under the boilers they did not proceed far when bullets began to spout on the ground about them and the deputies retired and discovered that the miners had thrown up breastworks along the narrow defile between this place and the mine.

Dysentery is always serious and often a dangerous disease, but it can be cured. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has cured it even when malignant and fatal. For sale by all dealers.

AGAIN IN TROUBLE

W. J. Boosey Placed Under $800 Bond Tuesday.

Following renewed trouble between W. J. Boosey and C. S. Sanderson of Central Point over a strip of land, a hearing was held before Justice Dox Tuesday and Boosey was placed under an $800 bond to keep the peace.

This land has been the cause of much strife and litigation, figuring in the circuit court a number of times, on one occasion Boosey drawing a county jail sentence for contempt of court.

The dispute was renewed Sunday when Sanderson attempted to remove a roll of barb wire from the land in question, Boosey backing his opinion of the proceeding with a gun, Sanderson ran across the field to his house and returning with a rifle, chased Boosey to his own territory. It is also said that Boosey swung a gate on Mrs. Sanderson's rig as she was driving through on her way to Central Point.

Boosey has not, as yet, secured bondsmen and is being held at the county jail.

Special Panel for U. S. Court.

The United States District Court has ordered a special panel of 36 jurors to be drawn from Josephine and Jackson Counties to act during the Fall term of court at Medford, which will convene October 1. The list drawn by Tom Ward, jury commissioner for the court is as follows:

CRIMINAL DOCKET CLEARED

Twelve Convictions Secured Out of Sixteen Indictments.

Out of sixteen indictments returned by the recent grand jury twelve convictions were secured, one man was acquitted, two indictments were dismissed and one trial resulted in the jury failing to agree. The criminal docket was closed Monday, leaving several cases to be brought up at the next term of court.

M. W. Dunlap and Peter Lobes, who pleaded guilty to larceny, were each given sentences Monday of three months imprisonment in the county jail, and D. Monk, Thomas Lawrence, Richard Moe and Bert Van Syde were sentenced to serve indeterminate sentences of from one to seven years in the state penitentiary. They were taken to Salem Tuesday in charge of Ralph Jennings and E. Sutton of Gold Hill.

The case of Jim Ling, the Chinaman accused of assault with a dangerous weapon resulted in the jury failing to agree and he was released on his own recognizance to appear at the next term of court.

Bondsmen for E. C. Montgomery, who is charged with non-support of his wife, and who failed to appear to stand trial, have been instructed to produce Montgomery in court, and if located he will be brought here to be tried at the next term.

PIONEER EDITOR SUICIDES

Captain Merry, Former Editor of Jacksonville Times Shots Himself.

Captain Thomas B. Merry, 77 years old, a steamboat captain and veteran newspaperman, shot himself through the heart Monday morning in the wash-room under the grandstand at the Country Club race track at Portland after a policeman who had been sent to find him and return him to his friends, had asked him to go to the police station. He died instantly. Captain Merry is well known among the pioneers of Southern Oregon and Northern California, having edited papers at Jacksonville and Yreka in the '70's.

The suicide, a climax to days of despondency over his growing age and inability to secure work, was evidently premeditated and the appearance of the officer served only as the final event to hasten the determination to his resolution. He had evidently chosen to seek the end at the race track, in remembrance probably of other days when, as a sporting writer, he had "covered" brilliantly many a race meet of great importance.

In 1871 Captain Merry edited the Jacksonville Times when Chas. Nickell, the pioneer newspaper man, was a "devil" on the same paper.—Tribune.

Capt. Merry was well and favorably known to the older inhabitants of this city. In the early days, when he had charge of the Jacksonville Times, that paper had its offices in a building situated on the corner now occupied by the Union Livery Stable. This building was later destroyed by fire. It is said Capt. Merry edited the first paper published at Ashland.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE

Will be Held in Ashland Sept. 25-26-27.

The Annual Teachers' Institute for Jackson and Josephine counties will be held at the High School Building in Ashland, commencing at 10 o'clock, a. m. Wednesday, September 25th, 1912, and continuing for three days.

It is illegal for any public school in either of the two counties to be in session during the progress of the institute, and all teachers in the public schools, and those intending to teach are required by law to attend. Any teacher who closes school for not more than three days for the purposes of attending this institute shall not forfeit his or her salary as teacher for such time. For each teacher whose attendance aggregates at least 16 hours, the district in which such teacher is employed, or shall be employed during the current school year, shall be reimbursed in the sum of $5.00 at the time of the next annual apportionment of county school funds.

Railroad rates of one and one-third fare for the round trip have been secured. You will pay full fare to Ashland, taking a receipt therefor from the agent who sells you your ticket. This receipt will be countersigned by the Secretary of the institute and you will be able to purchase your return ticket for one-third the usual rate.

A Reception Committee of Ashland teachers has been appointed, the members of which will advise you relative to securing board and rooms. This committee will have headquarters at the High School Building and members will meet all incoming trains. If you wish to arrange for rooms and board in advance write to Mr. G. W. Milam, Chairman Reception Committee, Ashland, Oregon.

Some of the best institute instructors and lecturers in the country have been secured, including Dr. A. E. Winship of Boston, Superintendent of Public Instruction, L. R. Alderman, of Salem S. H. Ackerman, Pres. of the Oregon Normal School at Monmouth, and other noted instructors of the state. We believe this will be the best institute ever held in Southern Oregon.

Yours very truly,
J. Percy Wells, Sup't. Jackson Co.
Lincoln Savage, Sup't. Josephine Co.

Notice to Teachers.

Headquarters for teachers during the Teachers' Institute to be held at Ashland, Sept. 25-27 will be at the Hotel Oregon. Other hotels expecting to accommodate teachers are the Columbia and Eastside Inn. Prices at these hotels will be $1.00 per room, two persons in a room. Meals will be served at from 25 cents to 50 cents.

It will be well for teachers to make arrangements for hotel accommodations before arriving in Ashland, because the hotels will doubtless be crowded on account of the District Fair.

Arrangements are being made to place teachers in homes at 50c. per day for bed and $1.00 per day for board.

A committee of Ashland Teachers will meet incoming trains Tuesday evening, conducting those coming to boarding places. Those arriving Wednesday morning not having hotel accommodations will go to the High School building on Iowa Street, and there report to the entertainment committee, who will provide them with accommodations.

COMMITTEE.

Wives Console Each Other.

L. B. Rich, a Klamath Falls shoe merchant, is sought by the authorities on the charge that he has two wives. Rich has been living here a year. He married Miss Jessie Layton, wife No. 2, in Grants Pass, Ore., in November of last year. He opened a shoe store in this city and the couple had many friends.

Rich last month employed architects in this city to draw plans for a house. He sent the plans to wife No. 1 in San Francisco, it is stated, and wrote several letters stating that he would have a home for her soon.

On Monday night wife No. 1 arrived and hunted for Rich. Wife No. 2 started by the announcement from wife No. 1, threw her arms around the latter and wept.

Rich threatened at this point, it is charged, to kill wife No. 1 and then end his own life, but lost his nerve. The first wife expressed sympathy for the second wife. Both are young girls. Rich's store was closed by creditors.—Ashland Tidings.

American Held For Ransom.

Douglas, Ariz., Sept. 16.—A message received today from El Tigre, an American mining camp in Sonora, which was captured Saturday by rebels under General Inez Salazar, said that the main body of rebels departed after looting the company store. Thirty rebels were left in camp to await a reply to their demand for ransom and protection money.

The rebels threatened to carry away L. R. Budross, superintendent of the mining company, and to destroy the company's $2,000,000 plant unless he turned over $100,000 in American money. The rebels also threatened to carry away $60,000 in bullion.

While 400 federals were within six miles of the camp yesterday, no word was received to day of an attempt to retake it.

Fifteen Mormons, the last of the American residents, reached Douglas late last night from Colonia Morelos. They report a narrow escape from a band of General Rojas' rebels.

ACCIDENT AT WATKINS

J. P. Harr, Crushed to Death by Rolling Log

J. P. Harr, a prominent farmer of Watkins, residing about 80 miles south of this city, was fatally crushed beneath a heavy log, last Sunday morning.

Mr. Harr and son had felled a tree on the hillside near the ranch, and were engaged in sawing it into stovewood, when the log became loosened from the stump behind which it had lodged, and started down the hill. Mr. Harr endeavored to escape from its path, but fell and the log passed over him, crushing him almost beyond recognition.

The funeral was held from the M. E. church at Jacksonville, Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with interment at Jacksonville cemetery. Mr. Harr is survived by his wife, two daughters and one son.

Another Forest Fire.

A forest fire which started in the territory lying between Footh creek and Forest creek burned over about 400 acres Sunday and Monday morning. State Fire Warden Harper who, with the aid of farmers of that district, extinguished the blaze, reports that the damage is slight, as the timber destroyed was mostly second-growth. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Rogue River Valley Peanuts.

An experiment in peanut growing attempted the present season by Charles Erlwein, of this city, has resulted so successfully that the well known local gardener will plant an extensive patch next year to demonstrate yet another possibility of the Rogue river valley. Mr. Erlwein cultivated a single row of the goobers this season, and the plants have done remarkably well, bearing heavily and producing peanuts of large size and excellent quality. The peanut is a legume, the foliage closely resembling clover or alfalfa, and bearing a small orange colored bloom. Each blossom, as it matures and falls, sends earthward a single sprout which enters the soil and forms a bulb that in due course of time becomes a peanut—holiday food for elephants or folks. Mr. Erlwein and his neighbor, George Holcomb, who has also grown a small patch, believe that they have proven the adaptability of the crop to this locality, and propose to at least supply Gold Hill with its holiday quota of "fresh roasted" next season.—Gold Hill News.
