Official Paper of the City of Jacksonville, Oregon
 A weekly newspaper published every Saturday at the county seat of Jackson County, Oregon. D. W. BAGSHAW, Editor.
 Entered as second-class matter June 22, 1907, at the post office at Jacksonville, Oregon, under Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1912
 SUBSCRIPTION: One year by mail $1.50. Advertising rates furnished on application.

The best way to build up a city is for each and every man in it not to strive to rend and tear down. Whenever a man in the town is doing well do not try to tear him down. All the residents of a town are partners not opponents. In all likelihood the more business done by your rival the more you will do. Every gentleman who treats his customer honestly, courteously and fairly, will get his share, and the more business that can be secured by united effort, the better it will be for all. When a town ceases to grow it commences to die, and the more the people try to kill off each other in their business and good name, the more rapidly will utter ruin come to all. Stand together for the advancement of every citizen. If a man shows ability to prosper do not pull him back with jealousy or weigh him down with cold indifference.---Ex.

If you are a housewife you cannot reasonably hope to be healthy or beautiful by washing dishes, sweeping and doing housework all day, and crawling into bed dead tired at night. You must get out into the open air and sunlight. If you do it every day and keep your stomach and bowels in good order by taking Chamberlain's Tablets when needed, you should become both healthy and beautiful. For sale by all dealers.

THE BEST PROOF

Jacksonville Citizens Cannot Doubt It.

Doan's Kidney Pills were used—they cured.
 The story was told to Jacksonville residents.
 Time has strengthened the evidence. Has proven the cure permanent.
 The testimony is from this locality. The proof convincing.
 Mrs. J. H. Baussum, Central Ave., Medford, Oregon, says: "I was so bad with kidney trouble that I could not do my housework. My back was weak and painful and in the morning when I got up, I was lame and sore. The kidney secretions were unnatural and my health steadily ran down until I was hardly able to get about. While in that condition, I read about Doan's Kidney Pills and got a box. I felt better from the time I commenced their use and it was not long until I was cured. I am in a position to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to any one afflicted with kidney complaint." (Statement given Sept. 14, 1907.)
RE-ENFORCEMENT.
 When Mrs. Baussum was interviewed on October 26, 1909 she said: "My former endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills still holds good. Since this remedy cured me I have had no further attack of kidney complaint and I have enjoyed good health. I do not hesitate to say that Doan's Kidney Pills are beneficial for all difficulties caused by weak kidneys.
 For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milbram Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
 Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
 For soreness of the muscles, whether induced by violent exercise or injury, there is nothing better than Chamberlain's Liniment. This liniment also relieves rheumatic pain. For sale by all dealers.

Salt Sold by Postmasters.
 At Beviens (Old Bex), among the Alps, the railroad passes the rock salt mines from which the Swiss government procures most of the salt whose sale is a government monopoly and often sold only by the local postmaster, who deals not only in stamps, but in salt. At this point a toothed rail is brought into play, and the gradient rapidly increases, as the cars pass through woods of walnuts and chestnuts, here an important item of the diet and income of their owners.—National Magazine.

Funny, but Not Humorous.
 "Who says there are no women humorists?"
 "I don't know. Why?"
 "My typewriter spells as funny as Artemus Ward in his plainest days."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

The Inducement.
 "John, whatever induced you to buy a house in this forsaken region?"
 "One of the best real estate men in the business."—Life.

Too Ready With Assistance.
 Smith—Goldmore is a very generous old fellow. Do you know, he's always helping somebody out. Jones (sadly)—Yes, I know. I was down to see his daughter the other night, and he helped me out too.—Stray Stories.

Marking a Bullet.
 When a leaden bullet traverses cloth, characteristic marks are left upon the projectile which are not obliterated by the subsequent passage of the bullet through flesh, provided that it does not strike a bone. It is even possible to identify the nature of the garment through which the bullet has passed by a careful examination of the marks on the lead.

Put Your Farm on a Business Basis
 YOU may be spending much more than is necessary for power to do your plowing, seeding, harrowing, cultivating, harvesting, threshing, silage cutting, hauling, etc., etc. An I H C kerosene-gasoline tractor reduces the cost of plowing from about $1.25 an acre with horses, to less than half that amount. A like proportion of saving can be made by using an I H C tractor for the other operations.
An I H C Kerosene-Gasoline Tractor
 can be used for so many different kinds of work that you will find almost constant use for it on your farm. It furnishes the cheapest and handiest form of power for belt and draw-bar work.
 An I H C tractor is simple and therefore easy to manage. It carries its own supply of fuel. It is clean and safe, making neither smoke, soot, nor sparks. There is no limit to its working hours. All bearings are protected from flying dirt, sand and grit. There are no rapidly moving parts to be quickly worn out. I H C tractors are built in 12, 15, 20, 25, and 45-horse power sizes. I H C engines for general purposes on the farm or in mill, shop, and factory are made in sizes from 1 to 50-horse power. The complete I H C engine line includes the tractors and also horizontal and vertical engines; air and water-cooled; stationary, portable and mounted on skids; built to operate on gas, gasoline, kerosene, naphtha, distillate, and alcohol. The I H C local dealer will give you catalogues and full information, or, write
