

U'REN CRIES OUT TO FELLS FOR CASH

BOOKS BY SHIELDS SENT BACK TO MILLIONAIRE.

Single Taxers Make Claim for Funds to Keep Army of Paid Workers Going—Farmers and Businessmen in Fight

Indications have been furnished in Portland of the tremendous sum of money that is to be expended to force down the throat of the state the Single Tax doctrine of Henry George.

Because there seems to be a temporary financial stringency, W. S. U'Ren is sending back an earnest call to Joseph Fells and the other millionaire subscribers to the Single Tax Fells Fund. He is using a club, too.

U'Ren Asks for Books. Mr. U'Ren's club is proof of the work being done by the Oregon Equal Taxation League, the organization of farmers and business men that is combating Single Tax.

U'Ren called upon Charles H. Shields, secretary of the league, and asked for 50 copies of "Single Tax Exposed" the work that is being distributed by the league.

"Why," said Mr. Shields, "I know what you want them for. You intend to send them back to the subscribers of your fund and get more money, don't you?"

"Er—er—" says U'Ren.

"Er—er—" began Mr. U'Ren, but he ended by admitting the truth.

"Sure you can have the books," said Shields, and I trust that they prevent you from getting a single other subscription by converting all the men whom you intend to reach.

"You know and I know that Single Tax is just a trick and a snare." But Mr. U'Ren did not answer.

TRYING IT ON

By DEAN COLLINS

Oh, ours would be a beautiful state, if the Single—Sh—h! I mean, if the Graduated Land Tax Scheme Got into our social machine; For then we would get a chance to know how fast the neighboring states could grow. It will be simple, for then they will keep growing while we are standing still.

When the graduated land tax scheme gets working, then we'll say Capital flocking to neighbor states And passing our own state by; And thus, at the very trifling cost Of several billions of dollars lost We'll have a chance to perceive, I wot, The size of the lemon that we have got.

Experience is a bitter school. Where a fool, however, may learn; And that is the school to which our friends Of the new regime would turn.
