

LOCAL NEWS

Chapman's for Oyster Cocktails.
T. L. DeVore was in Medford Tuesday.
John Norling of Medford was in town Thursday.
Mrs. Kate Cople is visiting at Ruch this week.
Benj. M. Collins transacted business in Medford Tuesday.
E. W. Wilson spent Tuesday evening with friends at Medford.
Harland Skinner of Medford was in Jacksonville Wednesday.
Fred Offenbacher of Applegate was a Tuesday visitor in our city.
Mrs. Frank Cameron of Applegate spent Tuesday in Jacksonville.
J. S. Gill of Medford was a business visitor at Jacksonville Tuesday.
"Shorty" Hamilton of Medford was a county seat visitor Wednesday.
For the next sixty days, 25 per cent on all wall paper. Fred J. Fick.
Chas. Nickell of Medford was in Jacksonville the beginning of the week.
Attorney W. P. Mealey who at the court house Tuesday morning on business.
Misses Lillian and Ella Mullen visited Medford friends for a few days this week.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Nunan left Tuesday for San Francisco where they will visit friends.
Art Kleinhammer of Applegate was a Jacksonville visitor the beginning of the week.
Contractor Fred J. Fick is finishing a house for H. P. Hoppin on "Millionaire Row."
Attorney F. W. Mears of Medford was in town on professional business Wednesday.
Mrs. Walter Kentner and daughter were visiting relatives in Jacksonville Wednesday.
Miss Dora Smith of Medford is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Tungate.
Attorney W. J. Moore of Ashland was attending to business at the court house Monday.
Bert R. Greer, editor of the Ashland Tidings transacted business at the county seat Monday.
School Superintendent J. Percy Wells and wife were at Rogue River Tuesday on business.
John Bellinger, candidate for constable, Medford precinct spent Wednesday in Jacksonville.
Mayor T. T. Shaw and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ulrich enjoyed an auto trip to Ashland Sunday.
B. N. Bunch of Medford was visiting at the home of his son, Ray Bunch, the beginning of the week.
W. W. Usher, independent candidate for coroner was interviewing Jacksonville voters Tuesday.
Jesse Baker, Chester Wendt, Chas. Mitchell and "Toots" Thompson were at Medford Saturday evening.
Mr. and Mrs. Powell and H. J. Boyd of Ashland, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Dunford Sunday.
Major D. R. Andrews, a prominent real estate man of Medford spent a few hours in Jacksonville Monday.
Lewis Ulrich and W. H. Bowen were at Willow Springs after quail Wednesday. They bagged their day's limit.
Lewis Ulrich, Chas. Prim and Frank Coleman were hunting in the Applegate country Sunday, with good success.
Chas. Boyce, representing Mason & Ehrman Co., of Portland and Medford, was calling on local customers Wednesday.
R. E. Hine of Medford, representing the Investors' Building & Trust Co., of Portland was a Jacksonville visitor Monday.
Chauncey Florey returned Sunday evening from a hunting trip to the upper Rogue river country. He reports game plentiful.
George Bigham, a former resident of Jacksonville, now residing at Oregon City, is visiting relatives and friends at Medford this week.
J. A. Lemery of Ashland, nominee for the office of prosecuting attorney on the prohibition ticket, made a business trip to Jacksonville Monday.
James Cantrall returned Wednesday from a short trip to Beaver creek. He reports securing one black and one brown bear in that section this fall.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Percy Wells entertained a party of friends at a first wedding anniversary dinner, Sunday. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Whittington, Mrs. A. Elmer, Miss Issie McCully and Miss Mary S. Hurst.
22,000 ballots weighing 1500 pounds were received at the county clerk's office this week and a special force of deputies, consisting of Miss Eva Humprey and Don Cameron was put to work checking ballots and correcting a slight numeral error preparatory to sending them to the various precincts. County Clerk Coleman has issued sample ballots to William H. T. Theodore Roosevelt and Woodrow Wilson.

J. Beery was a recent visitor at Medford.
Dr. O. N. Nelson was at Medford Sunday.
Bob Ray of Ruch was seen on our streets Monday.
Frank Cameron of Applegate spent Monday in Jacksonville.
Hollis Parks of Buncom drove to Jacksonville Wednesday.
Mrs. M. A. Pryce of Gold Hill was in Jacksonville Tuesday.
City Recorder H. G. Dox spent Sunday afternoon at Medford.
A. E. J. Percival spent a few hours in Jacksonville Wednesday.
Col. F. L. TouVelle and E. E. Kelly autoed to Jacksonville Monday.
A. E. Reames of Medford was at county seat Monday on business.
Assessor W. T. Grieve and wife autoed to Medford Tuesday morning.
For the next sixty days, 25 per cent off on all Wall Paper, at Fred J. Ficks.
William Matney of Applegate spent a few hours in Jacksonville Wednesday.
Attorney Gus Newbury transacted legal business at the court house Monday.
The Board of Equalization was in session at the assessor's office this week.
Ed. Helma returned Saturday from a trip to Portland and other northern cities.
District Attorney B. F. Mulkey was at the court house on official business Monday.
Mrs. A. Parker of Medford was in Jacksonville Wednesday transacting business.
N. Jerry, the "Nugget King" was a Jacksonville visitor the beginning of the week.
Chris Saulo, a former resident of this city, was in Jacksonville for a short time Tuesday.
Grant Mathews, a prominent citizen of Foothills creek was at the county seat on business Monday.
Don Cameron spent Saturday and Sunday at Wilbur Cameron's, on the Applegate hunting quail.
E. C. Hogsett of the Rogue River Valley Abstract-Title Co. was a Sunday visitor in Jacksonville.
Charles Lindsay of Lewellen, had business before the equalization board at the court house Monday.
G. A. Gardner of Talent, republican candidate for county clerk, was campaigning in Jacksonville Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Guthrie expect to leave soon for London, England. They expect to return about April.
Mrs. Chris Ulrich visited friends at Phoenix the beginning of the week. She was the guest of Mrs. Fred Furry.
Benj. M. Collins and Cale Springer left for Illinois Valley Wednesday morning on a week or ten days hunting trip.
Dave Duncan, Jesse Garrett, Don and Wilbur Cameron leave today (Saturday) for a deer hunt on the upper Applegate.
Mrs. Joe Morcom, who is visiting friends in North Dakota and Montana is expected to return home the latter part of the month.
Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Linn of Portland who have been residents of Jacksonville for a short time, and Miss Cora Linn were in Medford Tuesday.
Jacksonville High School Basketball team has organized and will shortly be in shape to arrange for games. "Curley" Wilson is coaching the boys.
John Dunnington spent several days at Applegate this week, assisting in the work of rounding up a bunch of cattle sold to Nichol & Ashpole of Medford.
The Bank of Jacksonville recently received a nicely mounted specimen of monkey-faced owl. This is a handsome bird and is said to be a stranger to this country.
Mrs. Gertrude Norton and Miss Edna Willis, who spent last week in Jacksonville, returned to Yreka, Cal., Sunday. Miss Flo Thompson accompanied them to Medford.
Mrs. Lewis Ulrich entertained Misses Fay Sears, Eva and Ona Humphrey, F. L. Coleman and E. W. Wilson at dinner Thursday evening. The evening was spent at cards.
State Game Warden Sam Sandy spent Tuesday night with friends in Jacksonville, after a trip to the county poor farm where he had taken Mr. Albright of Evans creek.
Dr. J. W. Robinson arrived Tuesday evening from Oakland, Cal., where he has been residing for some time. The doctor says he will remain in Jacksonville until after election at least.
WANTED—The Cosmopolitan Group requires the services of a representative in Jacksonville and surrounding territory, to look after subscription renewal and to extend circulation by special methods which have proved unusually successful. Salary and Commission. Previous experience desirable but not essential. Whole time or spare time. Address, with references, Charles C. Schwab, The Cosmopolitan Group, 331, Fourth Ave., New York City.

Circuit court was in session this evening in Medford.
Miss Lelia Prim was a Medford visitor Tuesday.
Gus Puppis of Medford was in Jacksonville Friday.
Geo. E. Neuber was a passenger to Medford Tuesday.
R. G. Chapman transacted business at Medford Monday.
Miss Mary Wettler spent a few hours in Medford Tuesday.
M. M. Taylor was attending to business in Medford Tuesday.
L. R. Baker made a business trip to Medford Saturday evening.
A. Throckmorton of Applegate made a business trip to our city Monday.
Deputy Sheriff R. B. Dow journeyed to Ashland Wednesday on business.
J. A. Westerlund, republican nominee for representative, was in town Thursday.
James and Dave Buckley of Applegate were Jacksonville visitors Tuesday.
Will Hanna of Seattle visited at the home of his brother, H. K. Hanna this week.
Mrs. Gould, of Steamboat was in town this week looking after business affairs.
County Clerk W. R. Coleman made a business trip to Medford Thursday evening.
Prosecuting Attorney B. F. Mulkey was at the court house on official business this week.
Ben J. Trowbridge, a real estate dealer of Medford was at the court house on business Friday.
Dr. R. E. Golden, John Marsh and Denver Marsh left for Derby Tuesday morning on a hunting trip.
Miss Bonner, who had been visiting friends in this city returned to her home at Grants Pass Wednesday.
Dr. E. H. Porter of Medford was a witness at the hearing of Parker held at the court house Thursday afternoon.
Homer Peart and wife, who are residing on the Charles Nickel place near Sterling were in Jacksonville Wednesday.
Mr. Blakeley, representing the M. A. Gunst Co., of Portland transacted business for his firm in this city Tuesday.
Harry Cingcade of the Medford police force was interested in the Parker hearing at the court house this week.
Tom Dunnington, who has spent the summer months in the Applegate country was in town for a short time this week.
L. I. Brown journeyed to Medford Wednesday to hear what Governor Marshall had to say on the political situation.
H. L. DeArmond of Medford, democratic candidate for representative for Jackson county was campaigning in Jacksonville Friday.
R. G. Smith, mayor of Grants Pass attended the Parker hearing at the court house this week. He appeared as attorney for Mike Spanos.
Clarence L. Reames, democratic nominee for joint representative, Jackson and Douglas counties was calling on Jacksonville friends Wednesday.
W. P. Mealey of Medford was in town the latter part of the week, acting as attorney for Parker in the latter's hearing for the murder of Dedaskalous.
FOR SALE—155 acres of land cheap, 6 miles from Jacksonville, on stage road, 1 mile from Ruch. For information call at the Lyden House, Jacksonville.
J. Teuscher, traveling agent for the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society of Portland, was in Jacksonville Tuesday and delivered an interesting address to the pupils at the public school.
Miss Lula Williams has accepted a position as clerk in the postoffice, beginning November 1st. Miss Williams is no stranger to this work, as she has had two years experience in a Kentucky postoffice.
The S. P. Ry. Co. recently paid into the sheriff's office the sum of $24,236.85 taxes on property in this county valued at $3,851,998. It will require about ninety receipt blanks, each of thirteen lines, to receipt for these taxes.
The local lodge of Odd Fellows has purchased a small tract of land on the brow of the cemetery hill. This tract which consists of about half an acre, will be beautified, divided into 39 lots and added to the I. O. O. F. cemetery.
Among the political announcements appearing in the Post this week are those of C. L. Reames, democratic nominee for joint representative, Jackson and Douglas counties; and Lewis Ulrich, democratic nominee for the office of county treasurer. Both of these gentlemen are well known to the people of this vicinity. Mr. Reames may be regarded as a local man as he spent 28 years of his life in Jacksonville, practicing law here for a number of years, during which time he won the confidence and esteem of a large circle of friends. Mr. Ulrich is a keen, progressive business man, perfectly competent, in case he is elected, to conduct the office in an up-to-date and business like manner.

Miss Mabel Henry spent Saturday evening in Medford.
Mrs. Cale Springer visited friends at Grants Pass this week.
Sheriff W. A. Jones was at Medford on official business Friday.
Fletcher Stout was a passenger to Medford Thursday afternoon.
Hurry! Hurry! Get your chance on that shotgun at the City Drug Store.
Walter Boatwick of Applegate was a business visitor at Jacksonville Friday.
Geo. W. Dunn, republican candidate for county judge, was in Jacksonville Friday.
Ed. Briggs of Ashland had business at the court house the latter part of the week.
William McDaniels of Applegate was among the out of town people in Jacksonville Friday.
August Schmidling of Portland, a former resident of this city was a visitor at the county seat Friday.
D. Perozzi, Fred Wagner, Ed. Staples and B. F. Billings of Ashland were at the court house on business Friday.
Frank Parker, who is charged with the murder of George Dedaskalous, a Greek laborer at Medford last month, at a hearing held at the court house this week was bound over to stand trial at December term of court.
School Superintendent J. Percy Wells completed this week the work segregating and preparing for shipment to the different districts, a fresh supply of library books, About $740 is available yearly for the purchase of these books, which are secured through the Oregon Library commission, the different district having the privilege of selecting books desired from a list furnished by the commission.
"How to Pull Stumps" is the name of a new pamphlet covering this important subject in a new way. Every owner of stump land should read it, as it describes a device just perfected for clearing stump land at the lowest known cost per acre. If you are interested, write for a copy of a pamphlet on this subject, just published by John A. Gorman, 1112 Western Avenue, Seattle, Wash. Sent free on request.
M. E. Church Notes.
A week ago last Wednesday evening the Epworth League held their regular monthly business meeting at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Rummell. After the usual business was transacted the evening was passed by playing games. Refreshments were served by the hostess.
The Epworth League lesson tonic last Sunday evening was "Mission Study Classes." The subject was presented by Mrs. Harrington in a manner which was helpful and inspiring to all who were present. We hope to soon have a mission study class organized with Mrs. Harrington as instructor.
The W. H. Missionary Society met on Friday of this week at the home of Mrs. Harrington.
The first quarterly meeting service of the Conference year will be held at the Methodist Church on Sunday evening Nov. 3. District Superintendent Dunlap is expected to be here and preach on this occasion. Quarterly Conference will be held on Monday following.
Following is the order of the regular services:
Sunday School - - - 10 a. m.
Preaching Services - - - 11 a. m.
Epworth League - - - 6:30 p. m.
Preaching Services - - - 7:30 p. m.
Mid-week prayer meeting each Thursday - - - 7:30 p. m.
You will find a welcome at all of these services.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET

ELECTION TUESDAY, NOV. 5
President—Woodrow Wilson.
Vice-President—Thos. R. Marshall.
Presidential Electors—Hugh McLain, Coos county; Will M. Peterson, Umatilla county; D. M. Watson, F. C. Whitten, Multnomah county.
U. S. Senator—Harry Lane of Multnomah county.
Congressman First District—Robert G. Smith of Josephine county.
Secretary of State—John B. Ryan of Multnomah county.
Justice of Supreme Court—R. J. Slater of Umatilla county.
Prosecuting Attorney—First District—E. E. Kelley of Jackson county.
Joint Representative—Clarence L. Reames of Jackson county.
Representative Jackson County—J. E. Barkdull, H. L. DeArmond.
County Judge—Frank L. TouVelle.
County Commissioners—W. C. Daley (2 year term), George Lyman, (4 year term.)
County Clerk—W. H. Miller.
Sheriff—W. A. Jones.
Recorder—R. L. Taylor.
Treasurer—Lewis Ulrich.
Assessor—Martin McDonough.
County Surveyor—G. Elksnat.

POLITICAL CARD

Wilbur A. Jones

Regular Democratic nominee for the office of Sheriff of Jackson County.
(Paid Advertisement)

H. K. Hanna

Republican Nominee for PROSECUTING ATTORNEY
Vigorous and honest administration of the office and impartial enforcement of the criminal law.
General Election, November 5, 1912.
(Paid Advt.)

W. T. Grieve

Republican nominee for assessor for second term. Residence, Jacksonville.
(Paid Advt.)

Representative

J. A. Westerlund

Republican nominee for re-election for state representative of Jackson county.
(Paid Advt.)

For County Treasurer

LEWIS ULRICH

Regular Democratic Nominee for County Treasurer.
(Paid Advt.)

Joint Representative

Clarence L. Reames

Democratic nominee for joint representative, Jackson and Douglas counties. Residence Medford.
(Paid Advt.)

Geo. W. Dunn

Republican Candidate for County Judge.
(Paid Advt.)

VOTE FOR

G. A. Gardner

No. 89 on the official ballot for COUNTY CLERK

Business like administration assured. Duties performed strictly to law. Due courtesy to all. Special attention given to inquiries for information. Republican nominee. Home vote in April Primaries where candidate has been in business several years, 102 out of 111 votes cast.
(Paid Advt.)

JUDGE FOR YOURSELF

Which is Better—Try an Experiment or Profit by a Jacksonville Citizens Experience.

Something new is an experiment. Must be proved to be as represented. The statement of a manufacturer is not convincing proof of merit. But the endorsement of friends is. Now supposing you had a bad back, A Lame, Weak or Aching one, Would you experiment on it? You will read of many so-called cures. Endorsed by strangers from far-away places. It's different when the endorsement comes from home. Easy to prove local testimony. Home endorsement is the proof that backs every box of Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this case: Andrew Cantrall, of Jacksonville Ore., says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills and am glad to say that they helped me greatly. This remedy came to my aid when I was suffering from backache, and out of gratitude, I recommend it highly." For sale by all dealers. Price 750 cents. Foster-Millbran Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

WANTED AGENT—Write Health and Accident Insurance, Oregon Surety and Casualty Co., 322 Board of Trade, Portland, Oregon.

BUSINESS CARDS

GUS NEWBURY

Attorney-at-Law.
Will Practise in All Courts in the State
MEDFORD, OREGON.

D. W. BAGSHAW

Attorney at Law
NOTARY PUBLIC AND CONVEYANCER
Office Hours: Forenoon 9 to 12
Afternoon 1:30 to 5
Bank of Jacksonville Building.
ACKSONVILLE, OREGON

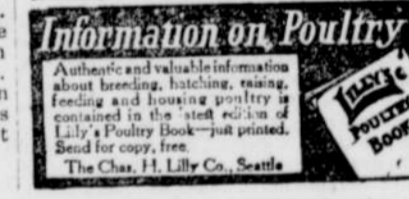

D. T. T. STAV

Dentist.
Office in Ryan Building, California St.
Upstairs
JACKSONVILLE, OREGON

H. K. HANNA

Lawyer
Office in Bank of Jacksonville Building
JACKSONVILLE, OREGON

Here is a woman who speaks from personal knowledge and long experience, viz., Mrs. P. H. Brogan, of Wilson, Pa., who says, "I know from experience that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is far superior to any other. For croup there is nothing that excels it." For sale by all dealers.

Be Not Deceived
The Home Telephone Company of Southern Oregon is STRICTLY INDEPENDENT
The Owners have no idea of selling to the Bell Telephone Monopoly or any one else but intends to maintain it for the purpose of giving the people of the Rogue River Valley the best telephone service known.
Are you supporting your HOME COMPANY
The Home Telephone & Telegraph Co.
of Southern Oregon.