Medford Land Mark Burns.

A fire alarm was turned in Tuesday morning about four o'clock from 301 South Grape street, at which number Noyer and Black have a paint shop.

The fire boys responded promptly but before the flames could be subdued the one-story frame building was burned beyond any possible repair. The stock of paint and tools were completely destroyed.

The origin of the fire is not known but is presumed to have resulted from a spontaneous combustion of old paint-besmeared rags.

This fire puts out of commission one of the oldest frame buildings used as a business house in Medford. Over twenty years ago it was built by Adkins and Wood at the corner of Main street and Central avenue and was occupied by Adkins and Wood as a hardware store until replaced by the three story brick building now occupied hy T. E. Daniels. The building was moved south on Central avenue and was the Medford Tribune home for several years. In the fire, about a year ago, which consumed the Enyart-Carnahan frame building on South Central avenue this building was badly scorched, but was repaired and moved to the corner of Tenth and Grape streets, where it met its final devastation Tuesday morning. The building was owned by C. W. Palm.—Tribune.

J. W. Copeland, of Dayton, Ohio, purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for his boy who had a cold, and before the bottle was all used the boy's cold was gone. Is that not better than to pay a five dollar doctor's bill? For sale by all dealers.
