To Petition For Pardon.

Petitions to Governor West for a pardon for T. A. LeMaster, who pleaded guilty recently to a bigamy charge and was fined $400, are now being prepared and will be circulated in the near future. It is hoped in this manner to secure the release of LeMaster who is unable to pay the fine and is serving out the time in the county jail.

LeMaster is well thought of by a large number of business men with whom he had business relations, and the charge against him is said to be a technical crime and not a moral one, as he believed himself to be a free man when he married a second time in this city, after being separated from his first wife seven years.—Tribune.

Von der Hellen Praises Asylum.

Salem, Or., Jan. 28.—That the Oregon State Insane Asylum will receive words of high praise from the investigating committee, which has been named by the legislative assembly, is indicated by a tentative report which Senator Von der Hellen has framed to submit to the balance of the members of the committee.

Senator Von der Hellen went carefully over the institution Sunday and was surprised at the cleanliness, order and neatness which he found predominant.

"Admirable care and comfort is provided for the unfortunates of the state," says the report, which has been formulated.

The report further declares that from what could be gathered the administration of the State Insane Asylum deserves praise for such care and comfort given.

KEEP KIDNEYS WELL

Health is Worth Saving, and Some Jacksonville People Know How to Save it.

Many Jacksonville people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger. Use Doan's Kidney Pills—a remedy that has cured thousands of kidney sufferers.

The following statement leaves no ground for doubt.

Mrs. Mary Winterhalter, near W. Jackson St., Medford Ore., says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills with beneficial results when suffering from kidney trouble, and I know of other persons who have taken them with success. Since I used Doan's Kidney Pills about a year ago, I have had the least trouble from kidneys. This remedy deserves my hearty endorsement."

For sale by all dealers. Price 70 cents, Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

The Brigand Chief.

Not many years ago the highways of Mexico and especially that of Guadalajara, were infested with brigands, who usually stopped all travelers whom they met. Whenever a conveyance entered the capital with the curtains removed it was taken for granted that the victim of the brigands had taken them to use as a substitute for his own garments of which he had been deprived. The situation at length became unbearable, and a daring robbery having been committed, the authorities sent out troops to pursue the malefactors. The leader of the gang was captured, bound, placed on a mule and escorted to the city. The president sent for the chief of police. He was not forthcoming.

"Does any one know where he is to be found?" asked the president.

"Why, yes, sir," the men replied in chorus; "he is on the mule!"

Goldsmith's Showy Clothes.

Goldsmith was ludicrously fond of showy clothes. When he sought to take orders in Ireland he tried to dazzle his bishop by a pair of scarlet breeches. While studying medicine in Edinburgh he wore "rich sky blue satin," "fine sky blue shalloon" and silver hat lace. Before Johnson, Reynolds and Garrick he strutted about bragging of his bloom colored coat, and when his reputation had been made by his two principal poems he blazed forth in purple silk small clothes, a scarlet greatcoat and a physician's wig. He carried a gold headed cane, and a sword hung by his side, a weapon so disproportioned to his diminutive stature that a coxcomb who passed him in the Strand called out to his companion to "look at that fly with a long pin stuck through it."

An Omitted Story.

The reminiscences of the late Melton Prior, the English artist war correspondent, do not contain, for obvious reasons, perhaps the best story told of that irrepressible little man. At a dinner given to Mr. Prior the chairman, Sir Evelyn Wood, who was seated next to the guest of the evening, commenced his speech thusly: "Our honored guest, Mr. Prior, has been in twenty-one engagements." Prior, prompting, "Twenty-two, my lord, twenty-two." Sir Evelyn continued, "In twenty-two engagements and has never seen a shot fired!"

The Lava Lake of Hawaii.

One of the large volcanoes in Hawaii has a large lake of liquid lava in its crater or hollow. This seething, boiling mass looks like red-hot bottle glass to the naked eye, but under the microscope pieces of the original rocks of very minute size may be detected. Where it has cooled in curious festoons along the "coast" it resembles slag from some mammoth furnace.
