INDUSTRIAL FAIR

The Following Circular is Being Sent to Different School Districts.

Jacksonville, Oregon, Apr. 30, 1913. To Teachers, Pupils, School Officers, and School Patrons:

We take pleasure in announcing to you that a Children's Agricultural and Industrial Fair will be held in Jacksonville next fall. The exact date has not yet been determined upon but it will probably be in September, just preceding the county fair. This fair will be open to all children under twenty-one years of age, residing in any of the following school districts: Jacksonville, Ruch, Applegate, Provoit, Murphy, Thompson Creek, Steamboat, Union Town, Buncom, McKee, Watkins, Sterling, Poorman's Creek, Griffin Creek, Oak Grove, and West Side. All children under 12 years of age shall constitute Class "B," and all over 12, Class "A," and those in either class will not compete against those in the other class.

Prizes will be offered for the following exhibits:

Agriculture—Field corn, (10 ears); pop corn, (10 ears); watermelon, (one) muskmelon (one); squash (one); pumpkin (one); potatoes (ten); cabbage (one); onions (one gal.)

Domestic Science—Bread, (one loaf) canned fruit and vegetables (one jar of each variety); jelly (one glass each variety.) Quality and number of varieties to be considered.

Domestic Art—Hand made dress and apron, machine made dress and apron, darning (three pieces).

Flowers—Sweet Peas, Asters.

Poultry—European Class (trio), American Class, (trio), Asiatic Class (trio)

Woodwork—Piece of furniture.

In addition to the above list children are invited to exhibit any article found in the State Fair prize list for children, for which the first prize in each case will be a blue ribbon. The State Fair Prize List has been distributed over the county, through the schools, but anyone who has not received a copy may apply to the county school superintendent for same.

The rules governing State Fair exhibits, found on page 30 of the State Fair List, are adopted for the Jacksonville Fair, as far as they can be made apply to the local fair.

The county educational board has recommended that each school district contribute $1.00 for each school room maintained, from the funds of the district, to be used for prizes. School boards who are willing to comply with this recommendation, are requested to send the amount at once to H. W. Rummell, Secretary Children's Industrial Fair, Jacksonville, Oregon.

All persons who are interested in the welfare of the boys and girls of Oregon, and in the industrial progress of the state, are invited to contribute to the prize list by giving cash, poultry, livestock, or any other commodity that might appeal to the children. It is hoped that your district will raise at least $..... in cash and commodities. Send your cash subscription to H. W. Rummell, or notify J. M. Williams, Chairman Committee on Solicitation for Prizes, of the article you wish to contribute.
