

EAST AND WEST MEET

Walter McCormack, Famous Grand Opera Tenor, makes Friends with the Blackfoot Indians from Glacier National Park

The East and the West came together in a rather striking and unusual fashion at the recent concert given by the St. Paul Symphony Orchestra in the Auditorium at St. Paul. The Indians attended the concert as guests of L. W. Hill and were very appreciative not only of the splendid solos sung by Mr. McCormack, but of the rather intricate and high-brow type of orchestration rendered by Prof. Rothwell and his well-known orchestra. Chief Fred Big Top, in referring to the concert, said he enjoyed it very much—"some of it was just like Indian music."

The Indians applauded long and loud at times and attracted considerable attention themselves. While the elite of St. Paul were present in evening dress they had nothing on the Indians, who were very elaborately attired and carried themselves with dignity and ease.

After the concert, the Indians were introduced to and photographed with Mr. McCormack as shown in the picture above. They extended him a cordial invitation to visit their native home, Glacier National Park, Montana, next summer.

County Court Accepts Bids For Highway Bonds. Signs Contract for Cement From Proposed Gold Hill Plant.

With the acceptance by the county court of the bid offered by H. B. HOME DAIRY

We wish to announce that after the first of November our price for milk will be $1.00 for thirteen quarts and $1.00 for twenty-two pints. Just a word of what we are doing for the money we ask.

We keep the best cows, housed in a new barn, on a cement floor which is cleaned, swept and washed each day. Every cow's udder is thoroughly washed before each milking. The cows are curried and kept clean. The milk is milked in new pails which have sanitary, inside soldered seams. When milked the milk is taken to the milk house and thoroughly aerated and the animal heat and smell taken off of it, then filled into glass bottles with sanitary caps that are never used but once.

In the past we have tried to furnish the best product at the cheapest price at which we could run, and in the future will do the same. Our product costs us more to produce now so we will have to make the raise.

Respectfully,
S. L. JOHNSTON, Prop.

Vice President Calvin Intimates that Natron Cut-off Will Be Cut Off From Further Consideration.

The Portland Oregonian of Monday contains the following interview with Vice-President Calvin of the Southern Pacific in which it is stated that the company is making an effort to secure a new survey over the Siskiyou: "E. E. Calvin, vice-president of the Southern Pacific, in charge of operation, arrived in Portland Saturday for a brief business visit in the city. He is accompanied by Mrs. Calvin and their daughters. All are staying at the Portland Hotel.

"Mr. Calvin is much interested in the progress being made on the Willamette-Pacific, which the Southern Pacific is building from Eugene to Coos Bay. If time permits he will take a trip over the completed portion of the line before returning to San Francisco.

"He is well pleased, also, with the development of the Willamette valley by the Portland, Eugene & Eastern—another Southern Pacific subsidiary. He saw part of the work being done on this line while travelling to Portland yesterday. As soon as this road is finished and electrified it will pass out of the hands of the Southern Pacific, so far as its operating is concerned.

"Neither Mr. Calvin nor any of the Southern Pacific officials hold out any immediate hope for resumption of construction activity on the Natron-Klamath line although several new surveys of that road have been ordered. An effort is being made to secure a way over the Siskiyou at a lower elevation than originally established."

MAKES SIXTH CONESSION

Medford Man Condemned to Die Oct. 31, Tells Another Tale.

Mike Spanos, condemned to die in the state prison at Salem, Friday, October 31, with Fred Seymour alias Parker, for the murder of George DeLaskalos in Medford a year ago, made his sixth confession to the the wardens Thursday, laying the blame for the death of the Greek, upon the shoulders of Tom Frost, a section hand and life long friend of the dead man. Seymour, in his confession, bears out Spanos' tale. They say that they stood by, and watched Frekas take a dash because he would not give him money for whiskey.

Causes of Cancer.
"Constant irritation," says a cancer hospital physician, "is one of the principal causes of cancer, and if a person has a wart or lump on his skin which is constantly scratched, it is likely to be converted into a cancer. If there is a tear which is not attended to and causes irritation, it may give rise to a cancerous growth. The sharp edge of a tooth or an injury to the internal organs may also give rise to cancerous tissues."

The doctor emphasized the remarkable vitality of cancer tissue and its power of growth. He said he had in his laboratory a mouse on which are growing cancer cells that were alive in another mouse thirteen years ago.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The English Yeoman.
"Yeoman" is a good old English word, the meaning of which should be carefully cherished. Any country laborer or farmer is not a yeoman. A yeoman is a man who cultivates his own freehold, who farms his own land. He is no man's servant and may hold his head as high as the squire. There are still yeomen of ancient blood in England who would flinch at the offer of a title. One of the finest men I ever knew was a Dorset yeoman, and his ancestors had farmed the same land for three centuries.—London Globe.

The Boy and the Bee.
Bee Master (to pupil who has just brushed off bee which stung him)—Ah, you shouldn't do that! The bee will die now. You should have helped her to extract her sting, which is spirally barbed, by gently turning her round and round. Pupil—All very well for you, but how do I know which way she unscrews?—London Punch.

Music Without Sound.
The fundamental evil in music is the necessity of reproduction of its artistic creations by performance. Were it as easy to learn to read music as words, the sonatas of Beethoven would have the popularity of the poems of Schiller.—F. Hiller.
