

LOCAL NEWS

Subscribe for the Post. $1.50 per year.

Fred Luyb of Antioch was in town recently.

Ray Bunch and family were in Medford Sunday.

Mrs. R. B. Dow was a visitor in Medford Monday.

"Chuck" Wilcox visited friends in town recently.

Don Cameron visited friends in this city this week.

Lester Throckmorton was a visitor in town Thursday.

Bob Ray of Ruch spent several days in town this week.

Chas. Mitchell and Lou Baker were in Medford Sunday.

Mrs. Mary A. Bauten of Medford was in town Wednesday.

Pete Ord and Glen Downing were recent visitors at Medford.

Jacob Klippel of Medford was a visitor in this city Wednesday.

Henry Mankins was a business visitor at Medford Wednesday.

Charles Hull of Medford transacted business in this city Monday.

Judge TouVelle made a business trip to Medford Monday afternoon.

O. Harbaugh spent a few hours in Medford the first of the week.

M. M. Taylor who is employed at Medford was in town Thursday.

J. S. Frazee left the first of the week for his old home in Toledo, Ohio.

Mat Ray of Ruch was calling on Jacksonville friends last Saturday.

J. M. Cantral and Frank Smith were in Medford for a few hours Monday.

Miss Fleeta Ulrich and Ries Chapman were Sunday evening visitors at Medford.

Prof. and Mrs. F. C. Smith were in Medford for a few hours Sunday evening.

Al Townsend of Little Applegate was a business visitor in Jacksonville Monday.

Marie and Emma Martin and Leona Cantral were Sunday afternoon visitors in Medford.

W. W. Cameron, H. H. Taylor and Elmo Throckmorton were recent visitors at Medford.

Thanks of the Post family are due Mrs. R. Ennis for a fine box of apples presented them.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Luy were among the Jacksonville people in Medford Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Pernoll of Applegate were recent visitors in this city and Medford.

H. C. Gallup who spent the summer at Butte Falls, returned to his home in this city last week.

Miss Nellie Collins who is teaching at Ruch, visited Mrs. D. W. Bagshaw Saturday afternoon.

Frank R. Neil and daughter Mildred of Derby visited friends in Jacksonville and Medford recently.

Miss Nellie Collins was the guest of her uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. Benj. M. Collins last Saturday.

Mary Bagshaw, Ada Elmer, Jewell Bailey and Pauline Greaves were in Medford Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Warden Ennis have returned from the East and are visiting friends and relatives here.

T. DeBoest of Portland deputy United States marshal, was in town on official business the first of the week.

Prof. F. C. Smith attended the school superintendent's and high school principals' convention at Medford today.

D. W. Bagshaw was at Medford Thursday attending a hearing before State Water Commissioner Chincock.

School Superintendent J. Percy Wells was in Medford today attending the school superintendent and principals convention.

Homer and Myra Gallup of Medford attended the business meeting of the Epworth League at C. F. Hoef's residence Wednesday evening.

The R. R. V. Ry. ran a special car Wednesday evening to accommodate Jacksonville people attending the operatic performance at the Page theater.

Water Commissioner J. F. Chincock of Salem spent a few days this week in this city and Medford adjudicating water rights in Little and Big Applegate and on Sterling creek.

Among the Jacksonville people who attended the ball at Ruch Friday evening were: Oscar Lewis and wife, Misses Nell McIntire and Alice Morgan and Messrs Bob Finney, Charles Dunford, Jr. Lou Baker and "Toots" Thompson.

In the circuit court Thursday Mrs. William Ceol was found guilty of assault upon W. C. Daily, a Lake creek pioneer. The assault was committed 18 months ago and just one year ago her husband was acquitted on a similar charge. This is the first conviction of a woman in the circuit court for Jacksonville in over four years. Mrs. Ceol was given the minimum sentence, 100 and costs. It is within the powers of the court to remit the fine pending good behavior.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ulrich were in Medford Sunday.

Fred Offenbacher of Ruch was in town Thursday.

Luke Ryan made a business trip to Medford Monday.

Marie Oenchain of Calif. is visiting relatives in this city.

Miss Alice Hoefs was in Medford for a few hours Friday.

A. T. Lundgren was a recent business visitor at Medford.

Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Golden spent Sunday evening in Medford.

Senator Von der Hellen of Wellen was a recent visitor at the county seat.

Mrs. John Norling of Medford visited Mrs. D. W. Bagshaw Tuesday afternoon.

W. J. Canton of Medford was at the county seat on professional business Tuesday.

Ike Coffman and Jesse Hamilton of Applegate were Jacksonville visitors this week.

Attorney W. I. Vauter of Medford was a business visitor at the county seat recently.

Good printing costs no more than the poor kind. Leave your orders at this office. We do good work at reasonable prices.

Don Cameron, who recently returned from a surveying camp in Washington, left Thursday for Oakland, California, where he will spend the winter.

A pleasant surprise birthday party was given Dan Bagshaw, Jr. Thursday evening. About 25 young ladies and gentlemen were present and a merry evening passed swiftly. Dan received a number of presents which he will cherish as mementoes of one of the most pleasant milestones in his life.

The "500" club held an enjoyable meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Pick last Saturday evening. The evening was spent at cards until a late hour when refreshments were served. After luncheon delightful vocal and instrumental music was rendered. Those present: Mr. and Mrs. Blain Klum of Medford; Prof. and Mrs. F. C. Smith, Lewis Ulrich and wife, Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Golden, Benj. M. Collins and wife and Mrs. H. Luy.

Electric Sparks

Some think it wise to be catching Mexico by way of Japan.

Our navy has gone to Europe to impress the governments over there that our policy toward Mexico is the correct one.

With Senator Ashurst's alternative of resign or work, the "most deliberative body" on earth is naturally forced to work.

Considering the Mexican example, President Wilson is extremely indulgent to "his" congress. Wocdy lets them talk like they owned themselves, but when it comes to acting that's different.

News that there are in England 1,000,000 more women than men ought to stimulate the business of matrimonial agencies in our own west, where there are more men than women.

The extra session of congress has assumed the proportions of a main tent performance and a regular session that of a side show.

We will soon be able to tell whether the new tariff law will make for a cheaper Thanksgiving dinner.

It is reported that Jack Johnson has taken out naturalization papers in France, but some reports are just to good to be true.

What Congress yearns for now most of all is a man big enough to put through a motion to adjourn.

The man who "goes after" things gets more than the chap who takes them as they come.

References by Mrs. Pankhurst to "dynamic" methods may have had something to do with the fact that her lecture hall was only partly filled.

Senator Burton remarks that each marine disaster has distinctive features of its own. Correct, also not a few that might well be omitted altogether.

Vic Huerta will soon find it incumbent upon him to place Mexico under arrest.

Doc Gildersleeve, 82, of John Hopkins, says he will think about resigning at 100. No wonder Doc Oiler fled that frivolous seat of learning.

Count Zeppelin evidently knows enough not to ride in his own airships.

Well, we shook hands the other day with a man who had shaken hands with the Prince of Monaco.

The fellow who pities himself gets no sympathy from anybody else.

It isn't a good plan to burn your bridges behind you unless you are a good swimmer.

The trouble in the Senate seems to be that while everybody knows what ought to be done nobody knows how to do it.

"Get a gown to fit your mind" says a fashion expert. And so many women seem to have open minds.

A fore-landed man is one who borrows an umbrella when it isn't raining.

Circuit Court News

C. E. Patterson on trial for larceny by bailee for securing a set of harness upon misrepresentation was acquitted by a jury in the circuit court Tuesday. Consideration was taken of the fact that Patterson had been in the county jail since July awaiting trial.

A jury in the circuit court has returned a verdict of $1500 in favor of Tom Taylor, in condemnation proceedings in connection with the building of a road by the county through his place in northeast Medford. The damage was appraised at $470 by viewers and the county court has decided to take another route, declaring the cost excessive and entirely out of proportion.

Because Prosecutor Kelly once defended her husband, in a criminal action of the same nature in the circuit court a year ago, the court yesterday appointed former Prosecutor B. F. Mulkey to try the charge against Mrs. William Ceol, charged with having assaulted W. C. Daily, a pioneer of Lake Creek, and well known politician with a "nigger hoe" during the progress of a quarrel over a ditch.

The case, when first called attracted considerable attention. Daily at the time was a candidate for county commissioner on the democratic ticket, and it was alleged that the entire Ceol family, husband, wife and daughter attacked him with fists and farm implements.

Parents-Teachers Meeting

The Parents-Teachers' Association held its regular monthly meeting at the school house in this city Friday evening. A large crowd was in attendance and the program, from beginning to end, was thoroughly enjoyed. Dr. Ed. Bywater a specialist from Grants Pass delivered a very interesting address, illustrated with charts, on "Adenoids." He examined 25 or 30 of the pupils and pronounced a number of them to be afflicted with adenoid growths. Arrangements may be made in the near future whereby Dr. Bywater will examine all children attending the local school. He offers to give free treatment to any child afflicted with adenoids whose parents are financially unable to bear the expense. In such cases hospital fees only will be charged.

The ladies of the association had tastefully decorated the school assembly room where the meeting was held and prepared booths where refreshments were served at a small cost, the proceeds going into the association fund. A noteworthy part of the program was the musical numbers which were rendered in an excellent manner.

Obituary

LANTERMAN—Sarah E., wife of John G. Lanterman, died at the family home in Merlin Wednesday, Nov. 12, at the age of 82 years. Funeral Friday at Merlin.

Sarah E. Harkness was married to John G. Lanterman in 1854, removing to the state of Oregon from Wisconsin with her husband in 1870. They were pioneers in the valley, and were factors in the early business and social life of Southern Oregon. They located upon the land now occupied by the Merlin townsite, and Mr. Lanterman was for 20 years the postmaster at the town of Merlin. The bereaved husband, now in his 87th year has the sympathy of all the loss of his life companion.

Fugene After a City Manager

The managerial plan of city government has been indorsed by the National Municipal league at its nineteenth annual meeting. This is the result of a special committee appointed two and a half years ago to investigate the various plans throughout the country. The old commission form of government was discarded as cumbersome and the newer idea of electing one commissioner as a representative body of legislators and leave the management of the city affairs in the hands of an executive who will have control of all city employes under the civil service. Those who have been studying this question are rapidly coming to the conclusion that the city manager plan is the only solution of the many problems that confront the various municipalities throughout the United States. Even Eugene hopes to some day join the ranks of the progressives and have a city manager. —Eugene Guard

Chas. Murphy has given the public to understand that he will be more careful in selecting men for office in the future.

Doc Oiler, a well known merchant of Medford, Wis., bought a stock of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be able to supply them to his customers. After receiving it he was himself taken sick and says that he was cured by the Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He says it is worth more to him than the cost of his entire stock of these medicines. For sale by all dealers. —Advertisement.

Henri Rochefort and Beranger.

One finds an interesting link with the past in the fact that Henri Rochefort began his literary career as a poet and in that character presented a poem, together with a letter of introduction, to no less a literary master than Beranger, whose reply, carefully preserved by the distinguished journalist, is interesting.

"Can it be true," Beranger wrote, "that you are only sixteen? If I had written verses so well turned at that age I should indeed have believed that a great destiny was in store for me. But then you college gentlemen are brought up, as it were, in forcing houses, whereas when I was sixteen I hardly knew how to spell. Remember, then, all the devices employed for the development of your faculties and do not be too uplifted by vanity at the praises of an old rimer, dazzled by your compliments."

And the letter concludes with a commendation to the young aspirant to return to his studies and not to challenge serious criticism by premature publication. —Westminster Gazette.

To See Through Paper.

A very remarkable experiment which any one can repeat with very little trouble has been unearthed by a German. Take a piece of paper of such thickness that when it is laid upon a piece of printed matter the characters just show through, but cannot be read. Placing it over a printed sheet, impart to it a circular motion to and fro, and to your surprise you will find that now you can read the print below the paper. It is rather difficult to explain this peculiar effect. The explanation offered is that the paper has thin places in it, and by rapidly moving it over the print every part of the printed matter is exposed in turn underneath one or the other of the thin places in the paper, and thus the entire print can be read. However that may be, the experiment is interesting and very simple, requiring for its performance only the simplest means imaginable. —New York Press.

Helping Her Mamma.

The Youngs had dropped in unexpectedly upon the Ballays just as dinner was about to be served. Mother, who was somewhat disturbed, called Helen aside and explained that there would not be oysters enough to go round and added: "Now, you and I will just have some of the broth. And please do not make any fuss about it at table."

Little Helen promised to be good and say nothing. But when the oysters were served Helen discovered a small one that had been accidentally ladled up with her broth. She could not remember any instructions that covered this contingency, so, after studying the situation awhile, she held the oyster up as high as she could on her spoon and piped out:

"Mamma, mamma, shouldn't Mrs. Young have this oyster too?" —New York Globe.

Monarchs in Mourning.

Periods of court mourning are apt to be regarded with something akin to alarm by people in the official social world, for court mourning means to them submission to published rules and regulations, from which there is no appeal.

In most eastern capitals white garments are the usual sign of mourning, and purple is frequently in Europe given preference to black. Mourning, of course, is strictly enforced in the court of St. James; also in that at Madrid and in the Austrian court. At the latter, by the way, etiquette is exaggerated to an extreme.

At the court of Berlin, where ceremony is regarded as the language of power, the blackest of mourning is worn during the day, but not in the evening. The empress objects to black evening frocks and insists on her ladies wearing white dresses trimmed with black.

In Denmark also black is not allowed, but the wives of high officials and of noblemen are permitted to wear a high peaked headdress when in mourning. —Pearson's Weekly.

The Greater Evil.

"A visitor to see you, sir," said Senator Greathead's secretary.

"I'll not be wanting some favor," grumbled the senator.

"It's a lady, sir."

"Ah! That means half a dozen favors." —Catholic Standard and Times

Vicious.

Mr. Henry Peck the bridegroom—Come this way, Miss Pickles. I want to show you my new talking machine. Miss Pickles: I believe I have met Mrs. Peck before. —Boston Post.

Never Again.

"Why don't you give your wife an allowance?"

"I did once, and she spent it before I could borrow it back." —Washington Herald.

Had His Number.

"Do you remember old Judge Plunks?"

"I'm sorry that I cannot recall him."

"You remember him all right." —Luck.

Open Case.

"The men they elected from the hall was burning with rage."

"Yes, and, strange to say, he was full of fire after they put him out." —Baltimore American.

Just Where He Sweeps.

Stude—Don't you ever sweep under the carpet? Janitor—Yessuh; I always sweeps everything under the carpet. —Yale Record.

If you want to buy, or sell anything, advertise in the Post

How to Barter with the Doctors.

A prominent New York physician says: "If it were not for the thin stockings and thin soled shoes worn by women the doctor would probably be bankrupt." When you contract a cold do not wait for it to develop into pneumonia but treat it at once. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is intended especially for coughs and colds, and has won a wide reputation by its cures of these diseases. It is most effectual and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all dealers. —Advertisement.

Did you ever hear of anybody drow in his troubles in grape juice?

POLK'S OREGON and WASHINGTON Business Directory

A Directory of each City, Town and Village, giving descriptive sketch of each place, location, population, telegraph, shipping and banking points; also Classified Directory, compiled by business and profession.

R. L. POLK & CO., CHICAGO

SPEND THANKSGIVING WITH THE FOLKS

LOW ROUND TRIP FARES

Via the

"The Exposition Line 1915"

between all points on the S. P. Lines in Oregon north and south including branches; also on the C. & E., P. R. & N., S. F. C. & W. and P. E. & E.

Sale Dates

November 20th and 27th

Final Return Limit December 1st

Superior Train Service, Observation Cars, Dining Cars and Big Wide All-Steel Coaches.

Call an nearest agent for specific fares, train schedules, etc.

John M. Scott, General Passenger Agent.

Great Combination Offer

The Post management has made arrangements with the Portland Evening Telegram whereby we can give subscribers the advantage of a gigantic combination offer for a limited period. You can get a Metropolitan evening paper with all the latest news from all over the world and all the news of Jackson County and vicinity in the Post at a remarkably low price.

The Evening Telegram is the best paper in the state, market reports unexcelled, Saturday edition contains a magazine and comic section in colors.

The Evening Telegram— $5. per year
The Jacksonville Post— 1.50 "

Total— $6 50 "

Both papers through this office if paid in advance for 1 year, on or before December 31st 1913. $5

WE ARE HERE

To fill your wants in the Drug, Stationery and Sundry Line, and to give you the best service possible.

If we haven't what you want, we are always glad to procure it for you.

YOURS FOR HEALTH,

CITY DRUG STORE