J. M. UPTON, Register.

Art Critics.

When Grehardsen's picture, "Hard Hit," was exhibited at the Academy the artist was strolling through the rooms one day when he saw, to his alarm, an excited little foreigner making toward him with threatening aspect and brandishing a stick as he came. "Ah, sir," he exclaimed, "if I thought that by killing you I could paint a picture like that I would crush your skull this instant!"

David Murray, a Royal Academician, was once painting in Piccadilly when his stock of canvases became exhausted. Being desirous of securing an "impression" for use later in a more ambitious attempt, the artist did one bit on a handkerchief tacked on a stretcher. Upon his return to London this piece of work was being inspected, with others, by a wealthy old lady, who expressed a desire to purchase it. Murray thought it advisable to tell her that it had been painted on his pocket handkerchief. "On your pocket handkerchief?" exclaimed the old lady. "Then I'm quite sure you've ruined it, Mr. Murray. The paint will never come off!"—London Spectator.

Musical Calamity.

Mrs. Newriche—I believe our next door neighbors on the right are as poor as church mice. Hiram. Mr. Newriche—What makes you think so? Mrs. Newriche—Why, they can't afford one of them mechanical piano players; the daughter is taking lessons by hand.—Puck.

Celluloid Cement.

Celluloid articles can be mended with a cement made by dissolving bits of celluloid in acetone. It takes only a few minutes to make the cement, which is applied like glue, the broken edges are pressed together, and in fifteen minutes the cement is hard.

When a Mule Bites.

When a mule begins to bite it is a sure sign that he has rheumatism in his hind legs and can't use them.—New Orleans Picayune.

One Consolation.

First Photographer—You were rejected yesterday, weren't you? Second Dillo—Yes, but I got a clear negative.—Columbia Jester.

When He Went to the Front.

"Did you hear that George went to the front yesterday?" asked the brother of Ethel. Ethel's face blanched. "Why, what do you mean, Jack? He never told me."

"Well, I saw him go," said the brother as he reached for his hat. "Don't you remember last evening, when he kissed you first on your right cheek and then on your left, and then didn't he go to the front?"—Ladies Home Journal.

Perilous Mining.

Quicksilver miners follow the most unwholesome trade in the world. The fumes of the mercury produce constant salivation and the system becomes permeated with the metal; the teeth of the unfortunate men drop out, they lose their appetite, become emaciated and as a rule seldom live longer than two years.

Corrected.

Jealous One—So you screamed when Jack tried to kiss you? Other One—I did nothing of the kind! Jealous One—But I heard you! Other One—Oh that was not until after he had kissed me.—Illinois Siren.

Solar Freak.

"Leap year is so called because the earth goes round the sun for three years, but in the fourth year it leaps over it" wrote a very youthful student in an examination paper.

Teddy Wondered.

Teddy—Dad, what are ancestors? Father—Well, I'm one of yours. Your granddad is another. Teddy—Oh, but why is it that folk brag about them?

Luck and Pluck.

Griggs—I should say that the two keys to success are luck and pluck. Briggs—Certainly—luck in finding some one to pluck!

The Reason Why.

The information editor received this letter from a fresh youth: "Kindly tell me why a girl always closes her eyes when a fellow kisses her."

The editor replied: "If you will send us your photograph, we may be able to tell you the real reason."—Ladies Home Journal.
