The ball game Saturday between the regular boys' teams and the "Fats" resulted in favor of the boys; score 6 to 5. Only four innings were played, owing to the time being wanted for other sports. Neither side put up a very classy game but the fun more than compensated for the errors.

In another column of this paper appears a letter signed "An Englishwoman," its author lived here several years ago and in a personal letter to the editor states that she retains pleasant memories of Jacksonville and its people. In the published letter the lady sets out some views held generally by the English people regarding the terrible European war now raging. As these are the sides to every question, we hope to get in the near future, a letter giving impressions of the war from the German viewpoint.

In our last issue we mentioned that our young merchant, Watson Caudill had gone on a vacation and that his return would be looked for with interest by his many friends. In fact, we were a little suspicious of "Pete" and the sequel proves that the suspicions were justifiable for on Sunday came the announcement that Mr. Caudill was married to Miss Lenora Fleming, on Friday, September 18, at Portland Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Caudill arrived on the evening train Tuesday and will begin housekeeping in this city, about November 1st. The Post extends congratulations and wishes the happy couple a peaceful voyage over the matrimonial sea.

Death Was Accidental

A verdict of "purely accidental" death was returned by the coroner's inquest Tuesday into the death of Chas. Bernst, a rancher of the Big Sticky district, aged 42 years, killed in a runaway accident Monday afternoon. Bernst was identified by friends a couple of hours after his death. At first it was thought the unfortunate man was a stranger in the valley. He leaves a wife. The body will be shipped to Cincinnati for burial. According to the testimony this morning the team Bernst was driving became frightened and ran away, hurling him beneath the binder, causing a quick death and badly mutilating the body.—Sun

Order to Show Cause.

IN THE COUNTY COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON, FOR THE COUNTY OF JACKSON.

In the Matter of the Estate of John D. Whitehead, Deceased. Order to show cause why order of sale of real estate should not be made.

It appearing to the Judge of said Court by the petition this day presented and filed by M. L. Baldwin, administrator of the estate of John D. Whitehead, deceased, praying for an order of sale of real estate, that it is necessary to sell all of the real estate to pay the claims presented and allowed against said estate and the costs and expenses of administration.

It is therefore ordered by the Judge F. L. Touvelle of said Court, that Alfred, Whitehead and all persons interested in the estate of said deceased, appear before said County Court on Saturday, the 10th day of October, A. D. 1914, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, at the Court Room of said County Court at the Court House in the County of Jackson, to show cause why an order should not be granted to the said M. L. Baldwin to sell so much of the hereinafter described real estate of the said deceased as shall be necessary, to-wit:

East Half of Southwest Quarter and West Half of Southeast Quarter, Section Twenty-five, Township Thirty-eight South, Range Four West of Willamette Meridian.

And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published in the Jacksonville Post for four consecutive weeks prior to October 10th, 1914.

Dated September 17th, 1914.

F. L. TOUVELLE,
County Judge.

Dogs For Draft Work.

The use of dogs for draft work was prohibited in London in 1829, but remained legal in the provinces for another fifteen years. Sir Walter Gilbey, in his "Recollections of Seventy Years," notes as a feature of his boyhood at Bishop Stortford the numbers of dog carriages and carts on the Essex lanes and highroads. "All sorts and conditions of men used dog carriages, from small tradesmen to poorer people who could not afford a pony. Dog draft was abolished because certain people agitated against it as cruel, but I think that generally the dogs were neither ill treated nor overworked. There are probably many people living who can remember when the tugging propensity of the dog was utilized in England. Workingmen made their 'dogcarts,' in which they made Sunday and holiday excursions. The dogs employed were, as a rule, heavy half bred bull mastiffs with a touch of the lurcher in them. They thought nothing of drawing their masters fifty or sixty miles in a day."—London Sphere.

Boots and a Bishop.

The bishop of Yukon says that on one of his longest journeys he and his companions were reduced to eating their sealskin coats. They set out to visit the Eskimos along the Arctic coast and, having accomplished this stage of the journey, hoped to cross the great divide over the Rocky mountains in order to reach Dawson City. The sickness of an Indian guide delayed them, the winter set in earlier than usual, and the travelers had to pass through a region which offered scarcely any game for food. When they began to eat their sealskin boots they had less than two pounds of flour, a little bacon and a handful of rice. The boots they tasted, and the bishop remarked that they found them palatable enough. When they came to eat the tops of the boots the bishop recorded the fact that they were "not as good as the soles."—New York Journal.

MRS. ABIGAIL SCOTT DUNIWAY ISSUES AN OPEN LETTER TO THE PUBLIC

It has been brought to my attention that the Anti-Saloon League, following the same tactics it has followed in every campaign heretofore, is trying to besmirch this organization and to carry on a vicious campaign of untruths. No name seems to be too good to be dragged into the mud by them. I have reliable information that a statement has been made to the Anti-Saloon League and to the Committee of One Hundred by Mrs. Cora C. Talbot, former secretary of the Taxpayers' and Wage-Earners' League, that she was brought into this work by me under the impression that it was a Women's Suffrage movement, and her duties would be those of a physician while I made speeches throughout the state. I also understand that Mrs. Talbot makes the statement that funds have been collected without authority, and in some way the Brewers' Association has been collecting these funds. These two statements are absolutely untrue. The collection of funds was authorized by me as president, and the secretary was ordered to have a letter sent out in connection with this work. I understand that Mrs. Talbot, in this purported letter, in the hands of the Anti-Saloon League and the Committee of One Hundred, states that she objected to the raising of funds under her signature as secretary. How did the good lady think the work of this league was to be carried on? Why did she think Mr. Bortzmeyer, cashier of the Scandinavian-American Bank, was appointed treasurer of this league? Did she think we would ask the brewers to put up the money surreptitiously? If so, she reckoned without her host. I have always fought in the open, and now, in my 80th year, and probably in my last campaign, I do not intend to change the principles I have always fought for, nor depart from my honesty of purpose in advocacy of equal rights for all the people—by no means excluding women, for whose interests I have spent my life to obtain the ballot. My chief concern in their behalf has always been to secure for them their economic independence, as married mothers within the home, which alone will enable any woman to quit the business of marrying inebriates or raising drunkards. The moneys collected are in the hands of Treasurer Bortzmeyer, and all those who have donated have received a letter acknowledging receipt thereof. Any one so desiring may inquire from our treasurer as to whether the money has been put in his hands, and I am quite sure he will advise them of receipt of their donation. If there is any one who has paid their money into this organization under misapprehension as donation for carrying on this work, this league will be only too glad to refund it.

It is indeed strange that Mrs. Talbot thought this was a Suffrage movement when she went to the Portland Hotel, engaged the dining-room for our first luncheon for organization and arranged for the payment of this luncheon, and went so far as to get speakers to express their views against Prohibition.

The real break between Mrs. Talbot and myself was caused when I found out that she had gone to the Brewers' Association and told them she could be of good service to them in connection with this league, and asked and received a salary from the Brewers' Association on the ground that she was putting in her time and needed the money. On the 26th of August a meeting was held between Mrs. Talbot and myself for the purpose of getting matters straightened out before starting the general organization. At this meeting a statement was signed by myself as president and Mrs. Talbot as secretary that the two letters sent out by myself, as well as the letter sent out by the publicity department, were approved. This statement ended with the sentence: "After discussing generally the affairs of the league, the officers ratified all work that had been done up to date by the publicity bureau and officers of the association."

I have lived in this state for 60 years, during all of which time I have toiled and worked for the people of my state, and I am willing to leave it to the public to decide as to whether I would lend myself in any way to any organization or any act that could be construed as anything but honorable. Every one in this state knows Mrs. Duniway and her family. I wish further to say that, if the occasion arises and I deem it necessary to go further into this matter, I will be glad to publish some additional facts in these same papers not necessary to publish now, and will meet the conditions as they arise. If the Anti-Saloon League, by its paid foreign agitators or Committee of One Hundred, think they can belaud this issue by trying to drag into the mud my name or others, they are very much mistaken. I expect to carry this work on to the conclusion of this campaign, and then allow the people to judge as to whether we will control our own affairs in the State of Oregon or allow the paid agitators of the East to show us what to do.
