Poetry of Words.
When I feel inclined to read poetry I take down my dictionary. The poetry of words is quite as beautiful as that of sentences. The author may arrange the gems effectively, but their shape and luster have been given by the attrition of ages. Bring me the finest simile from the whole range of imaginative writing and I will show you a single work which conveys a more profound, a more accurate and a more eloquent analogy.—Housser.

Making Tin.
The tin of trade is not pure, but has in it a little iron, lead or arsenic. Tin is a metal of chemistry. Its principal ore is called tin stone or tin oxide and is made up of tin and oxygen. To obtain the tin the ore is heated in furnaces with charcoal. The carbon of the charcoal unites with the oxygen of the ore, forming carbonic acid gas, which passes off into the air, leaving the tin, which melts and is drawn off and cooled in iron molds. This is called block tin. Tin ore is chiefly found in Cornwall, England; Banca, in Dutch East Indies; Malacca and Queensland and New South Wales, in Australia. Tin was used by the ancients. The Phoenicians obtained most of their tin from the British Isles. When the Romans conquered Britain they worked the tin mines in Cornwall by means of slaves.

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON: You and each of you are hereby notified that you are required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled court and cause on or before the expiration of the time so prescribed in the order for service of summons herein upon you by publication, to-wit: on or before the expiration of six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, namely, on or before June 12, 1915, and if you or either of you fail to so appear and answer, for want thereof the plaintiffs will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in the complaint herein, a succinct statement of which is as follows: that a decree be entered herein decreeing plaintiffs to be the absolute owners in fee simple of the following described property, situated and being in Jackson County, State of Oregon, to-wit:

That deed in plaintiffs' chain of title to the aforesaid property from Nicholas Webber to Henry Weydeman, recorded in Volume 6 at page 261, of the Deed Records of Jackson County, State of Oregon, be declared to have been executed by Nicholas Weber, a married man, and that the cloud caused by the failure of said deed to recite such fact be removed and plaintiffs' title be quieted as to the same.

That the purported will of Henry Wideman described in the complaint and proven and admitted to probate in the County Court of Jackson County State of Oregon, on February 13, 1904, be declared to have been executed by Henry Weydeman and that the cloud caused by the misspelling of his name in said will, as aforesaid, and in the other papers, records and files of the administration of his estate in said court be removed and that plaintiffs' title be quieted as to the same.

Barnhill and William H. Mead, both unmarried men, and that the cloud caused by the failure of said deed to recite such fact be removed and that plaintiffs' title be quieted as to the same.

That all claims of the defendants adverse to plaintiffs' title be determined by a decree of this court and that by said decree it be adjudged that the defendants and each and all of them have no estate, interest, lien or right in or to the premises herein described or to any part thereof; that each and all of said defendants, designated and unknown, be forever enjoined and debarred from asserting any claim whatsoever in or to above described land or any part thereof, adverse to plaintiffs' and that plaintiffs have a decree for such other and further relief as to the court may seem equitable.
