The report recently published in a Medford newspaper to the effect that the brick furnished for the new Federal building at that place had been condemned by the inspector at the building, is not correct and is absolutely without foundation. W. H. Lewis who resides near Agate this county, sold his 1915 clip of wool to Col. Williams of the Taylor-Williams Co. of this city. The weight of the wool was 19742 pounds for which Mr. Lewis received a check for $3044.29 which considering the present stringency in financial matters is a pretty good return for one year's crop and beats fruitgrowing for sure returns. This is one of the many instances in Southern Oregon where money is being made out of sheep and although the clip sold by Mr. Lewis is the largest single clip in Jackson county and entitles the grower to the title of "Sheep King," it shows what can be done with sheep in this country notwithstanding the low tariff which was predicted to put the sheep men out of business.
