This is School marm's week, the regular examinations for teachers' State certificates is being held here this week beginning Wednesday and as a result a number of visitors, mostly of the gentler sex are seen on our street, as they wend their way to and from their boarding places. The air is full of large words and fine turned phrases mostly concerning professional subjects but now and then bordering on matters sentimental in character.

Because boys returning from a ball game played with a neighboring team do some cheering when entering their home town is no reason to charge them with being drunk, and persons who are blinded by prejudice against ball games and other innocent amusements on Sunday, who make such charges without a shadow of foundation therefore instead of injuring others will soon lose what little influence for good they may have possessed. Slender like chickens and curs, often come home to roost.

Spending Money on Diamonds Is Investing It

It's investing it too, in a way that is sure to pay dividends.

Diamond prices have been steadily advancing for years, and they are almost sure to continue to do so.

We have here a pretty, attractive display of diamonds to show our customers.

We back up every stone with our personal assurance of its purity.

Also, it will be found that we've priced them close to cost.

Which is a guarantee that a Diamond purchased here will prove the very best sort of an investment.

If you are in the market for a Diamond, let us point out to you just WHY our display excels.
