THE TELEPHONE RATES AGAIN.

The proposed toll upon telephone calls to Medford, if put into effect will work a hardship on many users in this city and will doubtless result in a large part of the subscribers cutting out the rental of phones, for in a town of this size no person is justified in paying the present high rates simply for the use of the town circuit. When these phones were put in it was generally understood and in fact was in most cases the main inducement to the subscriber, that he should have the right to call Medford without additional charge, but since the consolidation of the two companies it seems the policy of the management to "charge all the traffic will stand", regardless of the justice of the charge. Two years ago, the rates were raised to a point that was entirely too high for a town of this size and now it is proposed to levy a toll for Medford calls which is the principal use of the phone for most persons.

If we are bound to pay the toll, why not cut out the rental of all phones in the city, do our talking from the pay station, and if we want phones for use in the city we can build, equip and operate an independent company of our own for one half of this charge. Some are now talking along this line.

We notice another matter in the newspaper article published in Medford papers recently, and that is that the Telephone company proposes to add ten per cent to their bills for rental and if the same is paid by the tenth of the month, they will refund the ten per cent. As the service for which the bill is rendered is not completed until the end of the month it is pretty sharp finance to add interest to bills before the service is rendered. Most of us are glad to be allowed interest after 30 days from delivery.

Now, a few words as to the justness of the proposed toll: As we stated in an article some time ago, when the change in rates was made, the valuation of the telephone company's plant is excessive; numerous things are included that are in no wise necessary for the operation of such system to render the service we get here; because the concern built an expensive office building, put in conduits under the pavement, etc, in Medford, is no reason why Jacksonville patrons should pay for it. We maintain that in all reason, the present rates here are high enough to pay reasonable compensation for the use of phone with privilege to use the Medford list. In fact the business from this place going beyond Medford will more than pay for all switching at that place, whether long distance or local done for patrons here. In a word--we are now paying more here for service than it is worth to us even with Medford list and the addition of the proposed tolls would be the last straw to most of the patrons.

The President's Plan

And when he dreads the possibility of his people engendering "a false idea of honor," he fails to distinguish between training men to fit them for perfect citizenship, and that other training in which is imbued the idea that conquest shall follow conquest until native land shall dominate the world by force of arms. When our great Civil war closed and the soldiers' north and south silently merged back into the ranks of peace and rejoicing took up their work, they showed the difference between our republic and all other nations in the character of her men. As to the president's plan, that will be the wisdom of the nation's representatives to consider. An Englishman, and in common sense, and common sense, more, they would call in their own business men to help and lastly some great railroad men, to help direct where army and naval stores, ammunition, etc., could in an emergency be most transferred to needed points.—Gwyn's Weekly.

Glendale Postoffice Robbed

Glendale, Or., Nov. 15—The postoffice here was robbed on Saturday night. The thieves broke the pond in the cash door, sprang the padlock on the safe with an iron bar, took $210 in cash, $641 in stamps and 800 blank money orders. No stamps were left to do business with today.

Cosco County to Have Corn Show

Cosco, Or., Nov. 15—This city is making great preparations for the first annual corn show to be held here November 19 and 20. Prizes to the value of $350 have been offered for corn exhibits and sports, and it is expected a large crowd will attend. County Agriculturist Jay L. Smith has made strenuous efforts this year to have a large corn acreage planted and the samples being brought in for examination are excellent.

Can Prosecute Liquor Shipper

Washington, Nov. 15—The supreme court has ruled that a man who ships liquor from one state to another without labeling it as such, in violation of law, may be prosecuted in either state. It reversed the judgment of the Kansas federal court which quashed an indictment against Joseph Freeman and remanded the case for prosecution. Freeman was charged with shipping trunks full of liquor unlabeled from Joplin, Mo., to Cherokee, Kan.

Paper Mills Put on More Help

Oregon City, Nov. 17—Monday the Crown Willamette Paper company put to work 18 additional men and the Harby mills employed about 30 more. The locks have been opened. Steamers have not been able to pass through, owing to low water since the middle of August.

There has never been a time when a newspaper was more needed in the household. The great war in Europe has now entered its second year, with no promise of an end for a long time. These are world shaking events, in which the United States, willing or unwilling, has been compelled to take a part. No intelligent person can ignore such issues.

The Presidential contest also will soon be at hand. Already candidates for the nomination are in the field, and the campaign, owing to the extraordinary character of the times, will be of supreme interest. No other newspaper will inform you with the promptness and cheapness of the Thrice-a-Week edition of the New York World.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD'S regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and JACKSONVILLE POST together for one year for $2.00 cash only.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.50.

Saloons Must Pay Taxes

North Yakima, Wash., Nov. 15—Retail liquor dealers in Yakima county must pay their 1915 taxes now, not being allowed to wait until the taxes are regularly due next February. County Treasurer Wood holds that since the state is going dry the first of the year, saloon property comes under the classification of that which is in danger of being dissipated or removed and unless the remaining 15 of the 26 liquor dealers who have not already settled do so at once the sheriff will see if he can get the money.

Alleged Bad-Check Man Arrested in Dallas.

Dallas, Or., Nov. 15—Because he indulged in a big spree with the proceeds of a number of alleged fraudulent checks which he passed on business men in Dallas and Falls City, instead of leaving, R. L. Cornell of Salem is in the county jail here awaiting action of the grand jury at the next term of the circuit court in January. Cornell was arrested Sunday night in a local hotel, where the officers say he was sleeping off a drunken spree.

Branson and Mrs. Booth to Face Trial on Monday.

McMinnville, Or., Nov. 15—Mrs. Annie Booth and William Branson, jointly held for the murder of William Booth near Willamette on October 8 last, pleaded guilty to the circuit court here, through their attorneys, McLean & Vinton, and Judge Bell has set next Monday as the date for the opening of the trial. It is not known as yet whether or not the defendants will demand separate trials.
