When spoken to recently about the matter, the commissioner remarked that it was due to the rains washing dirt into the reservoir from the surrounding hills. If this is true, why did it not occur in other winter? The cause is doubtless due to neglect to "flush out" the service pipes at proper intervals as was done under former management.

Better at Home

He was an able-bodied Englishman, out of work, and made a genial request for a little assistance. It was perhaps natural for the donor of two-pence to inquire whether the recipient had contemplated enlisting in the army. "I'd go like a shot, sir," came the answer, "but I've such a 'ot temper, and when I read what them Germans 'ave done I can't 'd myself in. No, sir, if I was at the front I couldn't 'elp committing outrages on 'em. I'm best at 'ome."—Argonaut.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION OF THE NEW YORK WORLD

Practically a Daily at the Price of a Weekly. No Other Newspaper in the World Gives so Much at so Low a Price.

There has never been a time when a newspaper was more needed in the household. The great war in Europe has now entered its second year, with no promise of an end for a long time.

These are world shaking events, in which the United States, willing or unwilling, has been compelled to take a part. No intelligent person can ignore such issues.

The Presidential contest also will soon be at hand. Already candidates for the nomination are in the field, and the campaign, owing to the extraordinary character of the times, will be of supreme interest. No other newspaper will inform you with the promptness and cheapness of the Thrice-a-Week edition of the New York World.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD'S regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and together for one year for $2.00 cash only.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.50.

"What are your daughters studying now?" "Nothing," replied Mr. Cumrox. "They've learned all about music, painting and literature. All they've got left to learn is not to bother people with them."—Washington Star
