

A Useless Advertisement.
An old man, well past sixty, entered the publication offices of the Book and Life and asked to be directed to the lost and found corner. At the proper department, he requested the insertion of the following "liner ad.":

LOST—About forty years ago—an opportunity. It is probably worthless now, but I will reward the honest finder who brings it to me, as I am curious to know what it might have done for me had I not been careless with it.

The clerk read the advertisement and then looked pityingly at the old man.

"We'll insert your ad.," he said, "but it is my duty to inform you that there is hardly any use in putting it in. We have no records of any lost opportunities ever having been found."

The old man thought for a few minutes, then he said:

"Well, insert it anyhow. People will read it and start to thinking."

Then he went away. — Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Cross Eyed Mentally.
Do you ever start to say something and find yourself using the word you hadn't the faintest idea of using? Just a little cross eyed mentally, aren't you? Did you ever mean to jam your foot on the accelerator and slam it down on the brake instead? Have you ever put salt twice on the same plateful of food when one of the applications should have been pepper? Did you ever laugh at the wrong time at the theater, or sneeze unnecessarily at a funeral, or fall to sleep quietly in church, or solitiously inquire where So-and-so is nowadays when the poor chap has been dead six months? Sure you have. Everybody does it. We're all just a bit mentally cross eyed sometimes, and we don't look where it seems that we are looking. What we really need to look out for is not doing queer things too often. If we do there's no telling what may happen to us. We may get into the papers—Springfield Union.
