The proposal of Mr. Bullis to build an electric railroad to the Blue Ledge mines has been the principal topic for several days past. Those of the people who realize what the construction of such a road will mean to the development and prosperity of the valley, heartily favor the project and hope that some way will be found to meet the requirements of the proposal.

At the city hall Tuesday evening, Mr. Bullis discussed the proposed extension of the electric road in an informal manner and in the course of his conversation stated that if the negotiations now pending were concluded in a satisfactory manner he would ask the City of Jacksonville to extend the franchise of the road for as long a period as is permissible under the laws of the state. The present franchise, granted by the council in March, 1913, has about 17 years yet to run.

GROWERS SEEK INFORMATION

Hegeman Answers Yost and Replies to Davidson

JOBBERS MISLEAD

H. B. Hegeman, secretary-treasurer of the American Fruit and Produce Auction Association is getting many letters of inquiry at his offices, 204 Franklin Street, New York, from apple growers in the Northwest. The following is an answering letter which recently was received from Mr. Hegeman by W. N. Yost, former vice-president of the North Pacific Fruit Distributors:

"Mr. Davidson's main objection to auction for Northwest apples, as far as we can judge from the correspondence that we have had with him, seems to be that the sale at auction of inferior stock tends to bear the market, but he does not seem to take into consideration that this fruit has to be disposed of and that the method that will put the most money into the grower's pocket should be the most satisfactory to all concerned. His contention that a car of waxy fruit selling at auction tends to reduce the price of good fruit is untenable, as at the auction sale practically all of the apple buyers are in attendance to purchase other kinds of fruit and are therefore fully conversant with quality and condition of the apples offered.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION OF THE NEW YORK WORLD

Practically a Daily at the Price of a Weekly. No Other Newspaper in the World Gives so Much at so Low a Price.

There has never been a time when a newspaper was more needed in the household. The great war in Europe has now entered its second year, with no promise of an end for a long time. These are world shaking events, in which the United States, willing or unwilling, has been compelled to take a part. No intelligent person can ignore such issues.

The Presidential contest also will soon be at hand. Already candidates for the nomination are in the field, and the campaign, owing to the extraordinary character of the times, will be of supreme interest. No other newspaper will inform you with the promptness and cheapness of the Thrice-a-Week edition of the New York World.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD'S regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and JACKSONVILLE POST together for one year for $2.00 cash only.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.50.
