Big Steelhead Landed After a Long Struggle.

Hood River, Or., April 11—The largest steelhead caught here this season was landed yesterday afternoon by A. W. Bishop. The fish, which was brought to bank after a struggle of 54 minutes, weighed, after it was dressed, 14½ pounds. Fishing is good in the Hood river, and many local anglers secure handsome catches daily.

CANDIDATE FOR SHERIFF.

I have heretofore formally announced my candidacy for the nomination for Sheriff on the republican ticket to be voted upon at the coming primary election, May 19th, 1916.

I have held the position of Deputy Sheriff during the past four years. It is unanimously conceded that a marked improvement has been made in all departments of the Sheriff's office during the incumbency of the present Sheriff, the records in the office at the beginning of the present administration were considered the worst in the state, they are now considered equal to any and better than most.

The work of tax collection has been systematized so that quicker and better service is now being rendered, and taxes collected at a much less cost than heretofore.

I am fully conversant with the duties and needs of the office for which I aspire.

If I am nominated and elected I pledge myself:

1st—To maintain the office in its present efficient condition.

2nd—To endeavor to further improve the service to taxpayers and to minimize the cost thereof.

3rd—To impartially perform all duties and enforce all laws.

E. W. (Curley) WILSON.

I hereby announce my candidacy for the Republican Nomination for Sheriff, to be voted on at the coming primaries May 19th, 1916.

I feel that I need no introduction to the public, having been a resident of Jackson County for 26 years.

I pledge myself, if elected, to give an impartial, economical and conservative administration of this important office.

I have endeavored to serve the public faithfully in the past and agree if elected, to strictly and impartially enforce all laws. Having a very large experience in the matters of taxation and knowing Jackson County thoroughly, I pledge myself to conduct the tax collecting branch of the office in such a manner as to serve the taxpayers honestly, promptly and efficiently.

I hereby announce that I have filed my declaration of intention to become a candidate for the republican nomination for the office of District Attorney for Jackson county, Oregon, subject to the decision of the republican party, at the primary election to be held May 19, 1916.

G. M. ROBERTS.

The first of the year a number of Republicans, including many who approved the new administration of the county, became candidates for the office of District Attorney, inasmuch as there would be in addition to the regular duties of the criminal and juvenile courts, new duties and conditions confronting the office. Among these were mentioned the enforcement of the Prohibition Act and the likelihood of having to foreclose many tax liens, particularly those against the Southern Pacific land grant of nearly half a million acres in Jackson County, amounting to about $200,000.

My reply was that I would become a candidate if it were generally desired and the race could be made without assuming special obligation to any particular individual, faction, locality or interest.

Therefore, after consulting personally or by letter with several hundred men and women of all occupations in all parts of the county, believing there is a real desire for my candidacy, I will be a candidate for the nomination for District Attorney on the Republican ticket.

Kiss Not Worth $7500

Portland, April 11—"The kiss wasn't worth $7500 if Becker did take it. Miss Jones wasn't damaged at all. She worked right on."

These were the final words of Tom Garland, attorney for Edwin D. Becker, a jeweler, and defendant in Miss Viola Jones' damage suit for $7500, to a jury in Judge Gatens' court this morning. Miss Jones charged that when she went to get some jewelry Becker had repaired for her last September he had seized her and kissed her.

"And he said that I had a devilish look in my eye," Miss Jones testified.

Flo Thompson and Minnie Kely were Saturday evening visitors at Medford.

Dave Cronemiller was a recent visitor in Medford.
