Notice of Sheriff's Sale.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON IN AND FOR JACKSON COUNTY Thomas E. Green, plaintiff.

By virtue of an execution and order of sale issued out of and under the seal of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, in and for the County of Jackson, to me directed, and dated the 29th day of March, 1916, in a certain suit therein for the foreclosure of a mortgage, wherein Thomas E. Green, as plaintiff, on the 11th day of March, 1916, recovered a judgment against the defendant Fred D. Hawkins, for the sum of One Thousand Six Hundred Fifty ($1650.00) Dollars, with interest thereon from the 11th day of March, 1916, at the rate of 8 per cent per annum, and $45.00 attorney's fees, and the further sum of $45.00 costs, which judgment is enrolled and docketed in the Clerk's Office of said Court in said County, on the 11th day of March, 1916, and is of record in Volume 24, of the Circuit Court Journal, at pages 130 and 131 thereof.

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given, that I will, on Monday, May 1st 1916, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. at the front door of the Court House, in Jacksonville, Jackson County, State of Oregon, offer for sale and will sell, at public auction, all the right, title and interest that the defendants herein had on the date of the mortgage herein foreclosed, or have since acquired or now have, in or to the following described real property situated, lying and being in the County of Jackson, State of Oregon, and more particularly described as follows, to-wit: The Southwest quarter (SW 1/4) of Section Twenty-two (22), Township Thirty-eight (38), South, Range Three (3) East, Willamette Meridian, Jackson County, Oregon, containing 160 acres of land.

Witness the Hon. F. L. Twombly, Sheriff of the County of Jackson, Oregon, for the County of Jackson, Oregon, on the 31st day of April 1916.

Now Laugh!

Smile. Don't think about it. Probably won't happen that way, anyway. And, if it does, 'twon't be as bad as you fear. There's the real trouble—being afraid. We take a little trouble about the size of a gnat and look at it through the magnifying glass of fear until it looks as big as an elephant. Then we are afraid of our own creation. Thing to do is to squash it while it is still no more than a gnat. We don't hate squirmy things because of what we know they will do to us, but because of what we fear they might. Our reason tells us they are harmless, but our fear contradicts. Men are just as bad. No need to tell a woman in what way. Smile. There's no much joy for the least of us. There's no little pain for the most of us. It seems funny to me that any of us Can't smile all the time at the rest of us. Now laugh!—Los Angeles Times.

Historic Rose Tree. The most venerable rose tree in existence is said to bloom against the ancient church of Hildesheim, in Germany. Notwithstanding the many parties which at different times have been in the ascendancy, they all seem to have respected and tended the rose tree, which, it is said, was planted by Charlemagne. The trunk is now almost as big as a man's body. There are five principal limbs trained against the church, the tree being protected by iron railings inclosing an area of about twenty-six square feet. The German soldiers in early ages tended the tree; Catholics and Protestants, in turn masters of the town, drained the ground; the soldiers of Turonne fastened up the branches with clamps, and those of Napoleon, a century and a half later, erected the railings.

For the Visitors. In full view of the crowd in a very busy street two vendors of berries were busy with piles of thin wooden boxes, each scantily filled with immature fruit. Emptying box after box, the vendors deftly punched up one layer of the box bottom to a sharp angle pointed in the middle, propped it there with paper and then refilled the receptacle, taking great care that the finest and freshest looking berries should make a showy top covering. One of the spectators grew indignant. "How in the world," he demanded, "do you expect to sell your wares when you openly show that they are not what they seem to be?" "Aw, gwan!" said the vendor addressed. "This is New York, and there are more trains coming with more people."—Everybody's.

First Steam Press. On Nov. 29, 1814, a newspaper for the first time was printed by steam. Although the application of steam power to printing machinery had been successfully experimented with some years previously, the hostility of the working printers rendered it inadvisable for the masters to introduce such a startling innovation into their printing houses. Toward the end of 1814, however, the growing circulation of the Times made a change of some kind necessary, and in the face of fierce opposition the second John Walter set up a steam printing press. So on the morning of Nov. 29 the leading article of the Times announced to its readers that they held in their hands that day a copy of the first newspaper to be printed by steam.—London Answers.

Wood Engraving. It is still a mystery whether wood engraving came to Europe from the east or was rediscovered by some European artist. There is a like uncertainty regarding the precise date of the first European woodcut. It is only known that European wood engraving was going on as early as the first quarter of the fifteenth century. It has been proved that a woodcut in the Paris library was printed in 1406. The very earliest wood engraving consisted of outlines and white spaces with smaller black spaces, but shading is rare.

Woeful Lack. "Although Chugson has had a car for almost six months, he still seems to think a pedestrian has some rights." "How do you account for that attitude?" "It's very peculiar. It certainly shows a woeful lack of self confidence."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Single and Double Flowers. The petals of a single flower fall sooner than do those of a double one for the reason that the inner petals are transformed more slowly and retain the power of adherence they need when performing their original function.

The Greek Kalends. "Postponed to the Greek kalends" is a Roman phrase used when the Greeks had no calendar and therefore meant, as regards a debt, that it would never be paid.

Misfortune. The fact that God has prohibited despair gives misfortune the right to hope all things and leaves hope free to dare all things.—Mme. Swetchine.

Commonplace Greatness. Not a day passes over the earth but men and women of no note do great deeds, speak great words or suffer noble sorrows.—Charles Reade

Patience is bitter, but its fruit is sweet.—Rousseau.
