Medford papers take another fling at Jacksonville this week by a pretended summary of an article by David W. Hazen, published in the Portland Telegram, Monday. Mr. Hazen did not state that "it has more people in its cemetery than its corporate being, due to waiting for the Southern Pacific to come," nor did he mention the Southern Pacific in anyway. The Jacksonville cemetery is the resting place of many hundreds of people, many more than the number stated in Mr. Hazen's article, people who once lived in Jacksonville, Ashland, Medford, Central Point and different parts of the valley and because of this and the natural beauties of our cemetery far exceeding those of Medford's burying ground, some smart Alec thinks to stir his grouch and show the smallness of his soul by another sneer at Jacksonville, a people, the living and the dead.

THE FLAVOR OF "SPEAR HEAD" IS UNIQUE

A Chew That Has Been Famous for a Third of a Century

HAS THE RICH RED BURLEY TASTE

Chewing is the only way to get the rich taste of the tobacco leaf. And the only form of tobacco in which you get the leaf as Nature made it is the plug form.

A chew of Spear Head plug tobacco has a wonderful flavor such as you never did and never will taste in any other tobacco.

That Spear Head flavor is unique, mellow, fruity, everlastingly delicious and satisfying.

Spear Head has been famous for a third of a century as the richest, tastiest of chews.

It's made of sun-ripened, red Burley. And it's produced by the most modern methods, which develop the luscious flavor of the leaf to the supreme degree.

It is safeguarded at every step in its making. The factory is clean and sanitary—the processes are pure-food processes.

When the choice red Burley has been pressed into mellow, sweet Spear Head plugs you have a chew that simply can't be equalled.

Spear Head is the high quality chew of the world.

Try Spear Head—you'll never again be satisfied with any other chew. In 10c cuts, wrapped in wax paper.

The Portland Market.

CATTLE

A very light run of cattle started the week, trading about 600 having been received. There was a very good demand and prices took an advance of a good 25 cents. Quality of stuff was very good as a rule. Bulk of receipts were steers and most sales were from $6.25 to $7.00. There was a very light run of cows yesterday with a very good demand. Prices were in some cases as much as 50 cents higher, but most sales were about 25 cents better. There were but a few bulls here; choice bulls sold at $5.00. There was a continued good demand from feeder buyers at 25 cents higher basis and a good many were taken. Best feeders sold around $6.00, most feeder stuff was thin and brought $5.00 to $5.50. Calves sold at $7.50.

HOGS

A liberal offering of hogs yesterday. The best run received for several weeks. The market was unsettled throughout. Tops sold at $9.30, although the general market was on a 5 cents lower basis. Bulk of sales were $9.64 to $9.75.

SHEEP

Sheep receipts yesterday were light, 900 head received. There is a very good demand for fat stuff. Valley lambs continue to sell at $3.00 while choice Mt. Adams lambs are bringing $8.25. Best yearling wethers $6.00 to $6.50 and ewes $5.00 to $5.25.
