A Few Pertinent Questions

Do You Know?

That the greatest prosperity the United States ever enjoyed in its entire history was from 1897 to 1913, when there was a republican protective tariff continuously in force?

That in the 1912 campaign the democrats contended to us that all prosperity was on such a firm basis it couldn't be displaced by democratic tariff tinkering.

That in the summer of 1914, after the democratic tariff law had destroyed protection for the American producer and workingman and had been in operation a few months, the treasury faced a deficit?

That city streets then began to fill with idle workmen and farmers dreaded to look at reports of market prices?

That Uncle Sam was so hard up the democratic administration began to figuring on what things it could compel Americans to paste stamps and thus pay a direct tax to care for the deficiency the tariff tinkering caused.

That the obnoxious stamp taxes went into effect, the administration grasping at the chance offered by the outbreak of war in Europe to dub the deficiency tax a "war tax."

That we have ever since been paying "war taxes" despite the alluring assurance that "He kept us out of war."

One Dollar More For Sheep if Hughes is Elected.

Pendleton, Or., Oct. 16—The election of Hughes means that sheep are worth $1 more per head than if Wilson is returned to the White house. Such is the feeling of sheepmen of the county according to a transaction today by which C. P. Ragsdale, a Wallowa stockman, is to take all the yearling ewes owned by Frank Kernan, of Heppner, at a price of $10 a head if Hughes wins. If Wilson wins $9 a head will be paid. The agreement provides that $9 a head be paid on delivery and the remainder deposited in the bank until the result of the election is known.

Dallas Ashamed of Democratic Tactics.

Dallas, Or., Oct. 17—After reading the Sunday morning papers telling of how a number of Democrats endeavored to break up the Republican meeting in Portland, Saturday, at which the Eastern women were to preside, a large number of prominent Democrats of this city declared that they were done with a party the members of which were so forgetful of themselves as to be insulting and do insulting things in the presence of women of note from the East. More than one Democrat was heard to remark on the Dallas streets Sunday that the way the people acted in Portland would do more injury to the state than all the literature sent forth in years could overcome.

The Registration In Jackson County.

The final figures for 1916 registration of voters in this county show an increase of nearly one thousand for the republicans. Only 39 progressives are on the list this year; 226 prohibitionists and 289 socialists are registered.

The figures in detail are:

	Men	Women	Total
Republicans	3170	2313	5483
Democrats	1706	1178	2884
Progressives	29	10	39
Prohibitionists	60	166	226
Socialists	200	89	289
Miscellaneous	225	194	419
Total			9340

Railway Promoter Asks for Street Franchises.

Roseburg, Or., Oct. 18—W. J. Wilsey, the railroad promoter who is planning a line from Coos Bay to Roseburg has asked the citizens of Roseburg for terminal grounds, franchises on certain streets and the right-of-way in Douglas county, but says that bonds and money need not be offered. He says options have been given on Coos Bay properties sufficient for the interests he represents. Four and a half million dollars is the estimated cost of the construction of the proposed road and two routes are under consideration.

Rich Gold Strike Made in New Idaho District

Grangeville, Idaho, Oct. 16—G. L. Baskett has arrived in Grangeville from Elk City, Idaho, bringing out several sacks of gold from the Colonel Sellers property. Mr. Baskett stated that mining conditions were booming in the Elk City district ever since the strike was made in the Hercules, which is now in the hands of a Canadian company, and that one slab of quartz from the strike is literally filled with gold, from the size of a head of a pin up to a pea. Sawmills and boarding houses are being erected, and preparations are being made to carry on mining on an extensive scale.

Story of the Perfumes.
Persia saw the earliest development of the perfume industry. The priests in Egypt, who were the sole depositaries of science, knew the secret of aromatic substances and prepared them. Egyptian perfumes acquired great celebrity, especially those made in Alexandria. The Israelites during their sojourn in Egypt adopted the use of aromatic substances. All these perfumes were extracted from essences of trees and various plants. The Greeks, who loved elegance, were especially addicted to the use of perfumes, and they taught their secrets and usage to the Romans. The latter, in the days of their decadence, went so far as to scent the coats of their dogs. In the middle ages the Arabs, Venetians, Genoese and Florentines became famous for the preparation of sweet smelling essences. France did not become acquainted with perfumes until after the crusades, and it was Maria de' Medici who especially brought them into favor.

Expert Pistol Shooting.
At short range an expert will keep a can moving until his gun is empty, either by shooting through it or striking the ground directly underneath it. If the nature of the ground is right this latter method makes the can jump in the air, the effect being quite spectacular. Bottles or cans thrown in the air are not particularly difficult to hit if thrown so as to make it as easy as possible for the shooter, and almost any fair shot can put two bullets through an old hat thrown in the air before it reaches the ground.
In general the secret of hitting objects thrown in the air is to aim the pistol underneath them and fire as the object is falling into the line of sight. One really good at this class of work will throw an object into the air, draw his pistol from the holster with the same hand with which he threw and hit the object before it reaches the ground. There are few who have the speed to do this, however.—Outing.

The Presidential Succession.
The presidential succession is fixed by chapter 4 of the acts of the Forty-ninth congress, first session. In case of removal, death, resignation or inability of both the president and the vice president the secretary of state shall act as president until the disability of the president or vice president is removed or a president is elected. If there be no secretary of state, then the secretary of the treasury will act, and the remainder of the order of succession is as follows: The secretary of war, attorney general, postmaster general, secretary of the navy and secretary of the interior. The acting president must, upon taking office, convene congress, if not at that time in session. In extraordinary session, giving twenty days' notice. This act applies only to such cabinet officers as shall have been confirmed by the senate and are eligible under the constitution to the presidency.

Grand Sport.
"A wfully sorry, old chap," said the host, greeting his guest, who had arrived for a week end with the guns. "but I shan't be able to come out today. However, a sportsman like you'll be able to get on by yourself. 'Ere's a gun and 'ere's a bag of ferrets. Keep well in the wood, and you ought to 'ave plenty of sport."
So away went the cockney sportsman, gloriously arrayed in glaring leggings, deer stalker and Norfolk jacket. At about empty-um-p. m. the mighty hunter returned.
"Well, 'ow'd you get on, ole chap?" asked his host.
"Oh, grand! Capital sport! Got any more?"
"Any more what?"
"Why, any more of those squurrl things you gave me in that bag. I've shot that lot."—London Mail.

Cat Mint Courage.
The peculiar virtue of cat mint, one of the ten varieties of mint, is probably unknown to town bred folk. "The root, when chewed," says Mrs. F. A. Bardswell in the Herb Garden, "is said to make the most gentle person fierce and quarrelsome, and a legend is extant of a certain hangman who could never screw up his courage to the point of hanging till he had partaken of it."

A Sauce For His Meals.
"Your friend, Dubwalte, would rather argue than eat."
"I have never been able to decide which he prefers."
"No?"
"His idea of perfect enjoyment is to argue and eat at the same time."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Too Close.
"Why are you asking me for help? Haven't you any close relatives?"
"Yes. That's the reason why I'm appealing to you."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

The Mean Men.
"When can I buy that dream of a bonnet, hubby?"
"When you go shopping while you're walking in your sleep, dear."—Baltimore American.

Contingent.

NORMAL REGENTS FAVOR MEASURE

BOARD MEMBERS ASSERT ONE SCHOOL AT MONMOUTH CAN NOT SUPPLY NEEDS OF ENTIRE STATE.

Salem, Ore., Sep. 22.—The Board of Regents of the Oregon Normal School filed its final draft of a survey made of the Normal School condition to the State Superintendent of Public Instruction on Thursday. That the State of Oregon is sadly in need of an additional Normal School as is provided by the initiative measure creating such a school at Pendleton is recognized by the Board of Regents in their final report made after an exhaustive survey of the condition of the one present school at Monmouth. They recognize too, in their report, that any new Normal School should be located in a town having public schools large enough to provide ample teacher training practice for the (teacher) students of the Normal.

"It is apparent to anyone who has studied the situation that there is need of additional Normal School facilities in Oregon; the Monmouth School alone cannot care for the number of students who desire to be or should be enrolled in Normal School within the next two or three years, and it will be necessary to send Oregon students to Washington and California for their training."

WESTON PRESIDENT FAVORS PENDLETON

PROF. R. C. FRENCH, FORMER HEAD OF WESTON NORMAL, IS BOOSTER FOR PENDLETON AS NORMAL LOCATION.

Portland, Ore.—Professor R. C. French, ex-President of the State Normal School at Weston, Oregon, prefers Pendleton to Weston as the facilities for practice teaching at Pendleton make it the logical site for the Eastern Oregon Normal School. Here is what he says:

"The previous history of the Normal School in Eastern Oregon proves that a large number of young people to whom other educational institutions are not easily accessible are ready to avail themselves of the privileges offered by a Normal School to fit themselves for community service in public school work. The immediate establishment of such a school at some central point, such as Pendleton, would prove a great asset to the State of Oregon."

Three Classes on the Cars.
An Italian drummer explains in the Milan Domenica del Corriere that "in the first class the passengers abuse the trainmen, in the third class the trainmen are rude to the passengers in the second class the passengers insult each other."

Muffled.
"They tell me Jimson is over his ears in debt."
"Yes; so much so that he can't hear the doorbell when his creditors call."—Exchange.

Agitator Ordered to Leave

Hood River, Or., Oct. 17—Labor agitators have been giving local police authorities and inspectors of the Apple Grower's association no small worry. City Marshal J. K. Carson arrested Mike Jackson, who persuaded four fellow employes in the orchards to walk away and leave their jobs. Jackson was released and ordered to leave town.

Runaway Reform School Boy is Captured on Train

Salem, Or., Oct. 18—Isaac Circus who recently escaped from the state training school for boys, has been returned. He was apprehended on board a Southern Pacific train between here and Woodburn, and attempted to leap through the window and escape after an officer of the school had taken him into custody. He was committed from Multnomah county.

Potatoes Go High and Further Rise Expected.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 13—An advance of 20 cents a barrel in the price of flour and 10 cents a hundred pounds for sugar was followed by a quotation of $35 a ton for potatoes here late yesterday. Potato growers in eastern Washington have advanced quotations from $2.50 to $7.50 a ton during the last 10 days and the market still is rising. Wholesale dealers say the price will reach $50 a ton before next spring.

Electric Sparks (From Off Our Wireless)

When Henry Ford endorsed President Wilson, he was particular not to advise Ford owners to vote for Wilson, and they will not, to any considerable extent.

Apparently the strike in New York has not achieved the success that it had so fondly hoped.

Woodrow Wilson at Baltimore disclaimed any reference to politics. In fact the president is so annoyed by politics that he would like to see it abolished completely until after Nov.

German editors are becoming almost as restive under the censorship as the Washington reporters are under titles publicity.

Socialist leaders are urging their people to vote for Wilson, and it must be admitted that the earnest angler deserves his fish.

When Henry Ford gets through suing and being sued, he should be awarded the contract for getting the joint commissioners out of New London before Christmas.

George M. Cohan says stageland is for Wilson. Even though all the world's a stage, all the actors in it are not assigned their roles by Mr. Cohan.

The president is reported to be solicitous as to whether his campaign managers have made any pledges to Tammany Hall. Such as one-term pledges, perhaps?

Rumors of shorter gowns next season are still in circulation, but seeing is believing.

With the present demand in Europe, China may have to wait her turn for a much needed loan.

"Combles Crumbles" makes a hard headline for a guilty wayfarer to repeat when he reaches home.

At the present price of flour it'll soon become popular to sandwich the bread between the ham.

Gens. Haig and Brusiloff are doing their best to keep George and Nick in their customary good health.

Perhaps President Wilson will be able to prevent the introduction of politics into business when the tariff is taken out of politics.
