Vote For 62 X G. A. GARDNER For County Clerk Does efficiency pay?

The following letter from accountant gives some reasons for voting for present clerk:

Corvallis, Ore., Sept. 13, 1916.
Mr. G. A. Gardner, Jacksonville, Ore. officers.
Dear Sir: I have just received your semi-annual statement, and it shows the county's affairs up in fine shape. It is a great pleasure to get a statement which can be relied upon. Among the several counties where I were, I am glad to testify that Jacksonville is now one of the best administered in the state. Your office, the Sheriff's, the Treasurer's and the Recorder's can not be beat. When I began to audit Jacksonville county in 1909, there had never been an audit of the affairs of the county, and naturally there were some things to correct. Especially as went back of that time ten years but since the audits have been made regularly since that time, the county has been coming to the front better and better until now it can not be beat. I was never more surprised, and agreeably surprised, than last winter when I found the offices in such uniform excellent condition. It speaks volumes for the business of auditing, and it speaks more for the industry, care and attention of the officers. Yours truly,

J. H. WILSON.

G. W. AGER
Republican Nominee For County School Superintendent

If elected, I pledge myself to an honest, impartial, and economic administration. I shall consider it my duty to get into the field at every opportunity and shall set aside certain duties of each week for the personal supervision of our schools. Routine office work will be delegated to a competent clerk. Your support will be appreciated at the polls on November 7th.

E. W. Wilson
Republican Nominee
FOR SHERIFF

E. W. Wilson is an active, progressive and capable young man, and stands for a rigid enforcement of all the laws.

He is finishing his fourth year as deputy in charge of the sheriff's office and is pre-eminently qualified to discharge the duties of that office in a highly satisfactory manner, and by reason of his experience and ability, the cost of the office should be reduced to the lowest figure in the history of Jacksonville county.

It is universally conceded that the sheriff's office is being conducted in a highly efficient manner, and the election of Mr. Wilson means a continuance in its present condition.

An excerpt from the certified public accountant's report to the County Court, filed March 4th, 1916, contains the following:

"All of these collections have been promptly deposited in the treasury. The sheriff is observing the law requiring all delinquent taxes to be brought forward on the current rolls and entered on the tax receipts. This is a huge task, and they are doing the work as diligently as possible during the stress of a heavy tax collection. It is praiseworthy in the sheriff to find his office administered with no bustle or confusion. Only expert men are employed in the office, in the tax collections and other departments of the office. And it is a pleasure to find Jacksonville county coming forward as one of the best officered counties in the state. Undoubtedly it is economy to employ only efficient men in the office of tax collector."

"I have scanned every tax collection and every fee coming into the office and I find nothing out of place nor entered wrongly. This is an unusually good record."

Mr. Wilson has by his own energy made himself a competent Deputy Sheriff, and by training an ability has the necessary qualifications for Sheriff.
