

Jacksonville Post

Jacksonville Post

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1916.

LOCAL NEWS

Blank notes for sale at this office.

Chauncey Florey was at Medford Tuesday.

Bruce Buck of Watkins was in town this week.

H. K. Hanna was a visitor at Medford Tuesday.

The deer hunting season will close next Tuesday.

John Buckley of Rich was a recent visitor in this city.

The republicans are holding a rally at Butte Falls tonight.

John A. Perl of Medford was a recent visitor in this city.

Frank Hull of Central Point was a visitor in town Wednesday.

Ulrich & Finney are giving a social dance at Orth's Hall tonight.

George Farrell of Steamboat transacted business in this city Tuesday.

M. B. Henry of Roseburg was a business visitor in this city Wednesday.

Samuel Johns of Rogue River, transacted business in this city Wednesday.

This office has just finished printing the names of candidates and titles of offices, on the tally sheets for the election next week.

Ben C. Sheldon, candidate for the legislature is a man who does things and if elected, will come pretty near getting what he goes after. Don't forget this when marking your ballot.

Alta Walsh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Walsh of this city was operated on for appendicitis at the hospital at Ashland Tuesday evening and is getting along nicely.

Mr. Bullis expects that the railroad to the timber at the head of Jackson creek will be completed about December 10th and that the saw mill will be ready for operation by February 1st.

The city council held a special session Tuesday evening at which the budget of estimated expenses for the ensuing year was adopted. The budget as a whole appears in another column or this paper. In addition to the budget, the council considered the proposal of Mr. Bullis to have the charter amended so as to authorize the granting of franchises for a period of 50 years. An ordinance submitting the proposed amendment to a vote of the people, Nov. 13, was regularly introduced and under suspension of the rules passed. The ordinance with the full text of the proposed amendment also appears in this paper.

Dr. Shaw was a recent visitor at Ashland.

Ed Helms was a recent visitor at Medford.

All work done in 1916 spot cash at W. R. Sparks.

Ed Binns of Medford was a recent visitor in town.

For Fire Insurance that protects coal at this office.

Tommy Dunnington was over from Medford Sunday.

B. R. McCabe of Medford was at the court house Friday.

Mrs. S. E. Dunnington was a recent visitor in Medford.

Geo. A. Gardner was a business visitor at Ashland Wednesday.

Elmo Throckmorton of Rich was a visitor in this city Wednesday.

Boosey Sisters' Hominy for sale at Taylor-Williams Co. on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Stephenson of Ashland were visitors in this city Monday.

George M. Roberts of Medford was a business visitor in this city Wednesday morning.

C. M. Thomas of Medford was a business visitor in this city Wednesday afternoon.

E. S. Wilson who has been working on Klamath river for sometime returned Thursday evening.

Gertrude Dunnington, Mary Bagshaw and Flo Thompson were visitors in Medford Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fick, Mrs. E. S. Wilson and Misses Alice and Edith Hoels were Saturday evening visitors in Medford.

Merritt Dews who has been working at Klamath Falls for several months past visited his parents in this city several days this week.

Gus Stone of Forest creek was shot in the leg by his father while deer hunting Friday. Dr. Sealey attended the injured man and the wound is not serious.

A rousing republican meeting will be held at the court house in this city Tuesday evening. The county candidates will be present and several good addresses will be made. Don't miss it. Tuesday night.

Miss Regina Dorland Robinson daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Robinson of this city and C. H. Pearson of New York, were married at Portland Wednesday. The wedding was a surprise to the friends and acquaintances of the bride. The newly wedded couple left Friday evening on a trip to Spokane and other points. They will probably reside in San Francisco. The Post with a multitude of friends, wishes the young couple a long and happy married life.

Curly Wilson made a business trip to Ashland Tuesday.

Sheriff Singler was a business visitor at Medford Tuesday.

Wm Lowden of Buncom was a business visitor in this city Tuesday.

George A. Gardner transacted business at Medford Tuesday afternoon.

W. I. McIntyre, Joe McIntyre and G. Elksnat left Thursday on a hunting trip.

Geo. W. Scott, of Trail, died at the Sacred Heart Hospital, Tuesday, aged 68 years.

W. H. Miller of Gold Hill, democratic candidate for county clerk was a visitor at this office today.

D. W. Bagshaw attended a meeting of the republican committee at Medford, Tuesday afternoon.

The force at the county clerk's office are busy as bees, packing election supplies for the different precincts.

Mrs. J. M. T. Francis, Field Secy. for the Ore., Prohibition State Com. addressed a good sized audience at the M. E. Church Tuesday evening. She was assisted by Rev. Sharp of Medford who spoke on the platform of the pro party. Rev. Hutchinson of this city gave a good talk on the need of support of the party. Mrs. Francis expects to leave for Josephine county early next week.

At The Churches

PRESBYTERIAN

10: A. M. Sabbath school, classes for young and old.

11: A. M. Temperance Day Theme, "The Bible Message concerning Alcoholic Liquor"

6:45 Christian Endeavor, Leader, Miss Ruth Launspach.

7:30 Sermon, "The Christian a Debtor."

At the Prayer Meeting on Thursday night at 7:30 we will discuss Mission Work in Latin America.

Albert H. Gammons,
Minister.

METHODIST

Sunday School 10 a. m. W. G. Caudill, Superintendent.

Edworth League 6:30 p. m. Preaching at eleven a. m. Subject: "The Silver Cord"

Mr. Rees will sing "Evening Bells" at the morning service.

Preaching services at 7:30 p. m. Subject: "Happiness."

Mrs. J. M. F. Davis of Portland will speak on Prohibition, Monday evening at 7:30.

The church with a message and welcome for all.

R. A. Hutchinson
Pastor.