The case of the State of Oregon vs M. M. Garwood indicted for arson, which occupied the court Monday and Tuesday, was given to the jury Wednesday morning, resulted in a disagreement. The jury was out 12 hours and it is said, was about equally divided in opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the defendant. Mrs. Strickfadden and Mrs. Dryfuss, who were indicted for same offense, confessed their participation in the crime and sought to lay the blame on the defendant, Mrs. Garwood. One serious defect however was the lack of any evidence to show a motive for the crime, or any benefit to the defendant resulting therefrom. The defendant on the witness stand was alert and met the cross examination with entire good humor and although the prosecution tried all kinds of stunts to get her to contradict herself she was ready with a logical explanation for every seeming discrepancy.

Could anyone fool you on a Rose —with your eyes blindfolded?

Of course not—
"Your Nose Knows"

By its fragrance alone does the rose makes its universal appeal. Nor can anyone fool you on tobacco either if you rely on your unerring, personal sense of pure fragrance. Tobacco without a definite pure fragrance is like a rose without perfume—"Your Nose Knows."

But

Tuxedo
The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

is the rose of tobaccos. Its rich, ripe Burley leaves, grown in the "Blue Grass" region of Old Kentucky, are so carefully aged and blended that its pure fragrance is as individual, as appealing as the rose—"Your Nose Knows."

Try this Test: Rub a little Tuxedo briskly in the palm of your hand to bring out its full aroma. Then smell it deep—its delicious, pure fragrance will convince you. Try this test with any other tobacco and we will let Tuxedo stand or fall on your judgment—

"Your Nose Knows"

The American Tobacco Co.
