Athena the Coat of Learning. It may be said unobtrusively that the country which has produced the greatest men in literature and philosophy, art and architecture is Greece. In the little state of Attica not much larger than Greater New York true civilization and all that goes along with it were born. All that has been done since the "age of Pericles" has been simply the carrying out of the ideas, principles and methods laid down by the men who won Marathon and Salamis, Plataea and Mycale. Galton, a high authority, does not hesitate to say that Athens and the little state of which it was the capital produced more first class intellects than have since been produced by all the world put together.

How to Remember Things. In an article about a man with a great memory a writer in the American Magazine says:

"Any test which trains your mind to really see things at a quick glance will help a lot. One of the best tests I know is to stand in front of the show window of a store and glance quickly at all the articles in the window and then turn away and see how many you can remember. Practice will make any one pretty adept at this.

"Look at the passengers opposite you in a street car. Then shut your eyes and try to visualize each one of them. Glance at the advertising placards over their heads. Close your eyes and see how many you can remember. All these things will help you in remembering a man's features from a quick glance. It would be impolite and usually impossible to stand and stare in a man's face for three or four minutes.

"Meet all the people you can. Watch them. Keep lists of their names. Sit down at night and check up the people you have met that day. See how clearly you can call up the image of each."

The Taking of Umbrage.

Barrie's famous story in "When a Man's Single" about the "taking of Umbrage" is said to have been by no means fictitious. The "incident" was actually the work of a practical joker on the staff of a well known provincial paper in England. It was in 1864, at the time of the famous Seven Days' war waged by Austria and Germany on Denmark, and this journalist, knowing how hot news was dealt with at the office of a certain other paper, contrived that a message should reach that paper early one morning announcing, under the heading of "The War in Denmark," "The Enemy Have Taken Umbrage." "Umbrage" was given as a place in the North sea, and full particulars about it were supplied. The plot succeeded, the momentous news item was published, and the "taking of Umbrage" was the talk of the town for several days.—Arkonaut.
