Chinese Cooks. It is said by those who have employed them that the Chinese always cook by rule, if they have any rule to go by—following the receipt with which the same scientific exactness with which the druggists put up a prescription. Hence their results are equally satisfactory. They never burn or spoil anything, nor spill materials on the floor; consequently, nothing that goes through their hands is wasted. They cook just enough and no more.—Hotel Gazette.

TO THE LIBERTY LOAN WORKERS

State Liberty Loan Headquarters, Portland, Oregon, April 6, 1918.

To Ten Thousand Fellow Workers for the Liberty Loan in Oregon:

We set out today upon the accomplishment of a tremendous task—the raising of Oregon's share of that part of the National Defense Fund known as the Third Liberty Loan.

Let us, each one, take to the work in hand with our hearts confident of but one ultimate result—VICTORY.

Let us keep constantly in mind that a prompt and overwhelming subscription to the Third Liberty Loan Bonds is exacted of us. Faltering in this duty is virtually equivalent to an expression of willingness to abandon our boys who are in the trenches, suffering and fighting for us.

Thoroughly sweep the field on the canvass! No man should ask solicitors to come a second time in this effort.

In soliciting subscriptions see that they are enrolled before leaving. A task of this magnitude well begun is half done.

With the Spirit of the First Line Trenches let every man and woman do his or her duty.

"This war," said President Wilson, "must be won, not by the Government, but by the strength of the American people."

In the spirit of "WE-WILL" we will win.

Sincerely yours,

EDWARD COOKINGHAM, Executive Chairman Oregon State Central Liberty Loan Committee.

WILL OUR TOWN WIN AN HONOR FLAG?

In order to stimulate individual subscriptions to the Third Liberty Loan, to create community activity and to mobilize, systemize and unify the initiative and energy of citizens and districts in the accomplishment of a national purpose, an honor flag and honor roll system has been adopted by the Treasury Department for the Third Liberty Loan.

- This system is outlined by the Department as follows:
1. A specially designed honor flag, officially adopted as the Third Liberty Loan flag, will be awarded to all communities upon their attainment of their assigned quota.
 2. A small individual poster, containing a reproduction of the honor flag and a blank for the name of the subscriber, will be awarded to each subscriber for display in his home.
 3. A large honor roll, containing at the top a reproduction of the honor flag and the slogan, "Help Our Town Win the Right to Fly This Flag," and below space for the names of all subscribers, will be posted in a conspicuous place in the community.
 4. A large honor flag will be awarded to each state upon the attainment of its quota, the state flag to contain the names of those subordinate groups which have attained their quotas.
 5. A national honor flag will be unfurled at Washington on which will be presented the returns from all the states.

OREGON'S QUOTA

Fifteen Per Cent of the Population Should Subscribe to 3rd Loan.

The fact that Oregon in the First and Second Liberty Loans shows a percentage of only 8.77 per cent of the population subscribing to Liberty Loans, which was less than the average for the United States, and compares unfavorably with other states, makes it necessary for at least 15 per cent of the population to subscribe to the Third Liberty Loan, in order to bring Oregon into the same standing as her sister states.

Oregon's 8.77 per cent of Liberty Loan subscribers is insignificant beside New York's 16.64 per cent, Chicago's 12.22 per cent and Minneapolis' 12.04 per cent.

Canada's recent "Victory Loan" campaign, translated into the United States method of accounting, shows a percentage of 14.3 of the population subscribing for bonds.

Headquarters of the Third Liberty Loan of the Twelfth Federal Reserve District are in receipt of letters, calling attention to the fact that many banks have subscribed to previous loans so liberally that their capacity is somewhat curtailed, and it will be necessary for 15 per cent of the inhabitants of a given community to subscribe to the loan in order to fulfill the desired quota. With the well diffused prosperity on the Pacific Coast, it is felt that this should not be difficult, and from the country districts there should be a higher percentage of subscriptions than from the large, metropolitan centers where there is apt to be a greater proportion of the population living in comparative poverty.

WE MUST OVER SUBSCRIBE

Amount of Loan Estimated for Oregon is the Minimum.

"Rarin' to go" truly describes the frame of mind of the Third Liberty Loan organization of the state on the eve of the big drive.

The loan of three billion which the Secretary of the Treasury has just called for from the Nation is the minimum amount.

"Quotas for different districts will be announced within a few days," says State Chairman Cookingham. The quota of the state is $18,495,000. Portland will be allotted approximately half the amount or $9,000,000. While it is apparent that a $3,000,000,000 loan can be absorbed more readily by the people of the United States than if the loan had been placed at twice that sum, nevertheless I wish particularly to impress upon our small army of volunteer workers and upon every citizen of Oregon that it will be no puny task to raise $18,000,000."

The Republic's Battle Hymn. Harry Van Dyke, former American minister to the Netherlands, and now a chaplain in the United States service, has composed an additional stanza for the "Battle Hymn of the Republic." Here it is:

"We have passed the cry of anguish from the victims of the Hun
"And we know our country's peril if the war lords will be done—
"We will fight for world-wide freedom till the victory is won;
"For God is marching on."

Stanfield, Or. (To the Editor.)—I read with a thrill Mr. Van Dyke's additional stanza to "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," and, with the vision of my only son, just passed 20, as he left us a few months ago, eager to go over and do his bit to help avenge the wrongs of Belgium and France, I am constrained to add two more stanzas as my interpretation of America's answer to the cry of anguish.

We have pledged our lives and fortunes
To help freedom's cause advance,
Sent the flower of our young manhood
To the shell-torn fields of France.
We will overcome oppression,
All must have an equal chance.
For God is marching on.

True and loyal hearts are beating.
We are soldiers every one.
And we're Satan's host defeating
When we overthrow the Hun.
Out from Belgium they're retreating
When the victory we've won.
For God is marching on.

H. E. ALLEN.
