Potatoes for Patriotism.

By eating potatoes instead of wheat the people of the United States can help win the war. We have not enough wheat for the Allies and ourselves. We have an abundance of potatoes. Wheat flour is a concentrated food and therefore good for shipping; potatoes are bulky and are consequently not suited for limited shipping space, nor are the Allies so short of potatoes as of wheat. Next to cereals, potatoes have been in this country the mainstay of starchy food, which supplies energy.

The more potatoes we eat, the less wheat we need. A medium-sized potato, weighing about 3 1/2 ounces, supplies about as much starch as two small slices of wheat bread one-half inch thick. In other respects also, the potato measures up well with wheat bread and even has the advantage over it in supplying certain salts which the body needs to counteract the acidity resulting from the use of such foods as cereals, meat and eggs. By exercising her ingenuity the housewife can prepare potatoes in many different attractive ways, thus increasing their proportion in the family diet and conserving wheat and other staples needed for shipment abroad. An important use of potatoes, also, is in the mixing of breads, in which mashed potatoes up to fully ten per cent may be used without detracting from its appearance or taste; in fact, many persons hold that potatoes properly mixed in bread, improves both appearance and flavor.

"KI" in the Navy.

Navy coon, which Princess Mary thought might be good to eat as chocolate, is known aboard ship as ki. It is served out on the first dog watch every Thursday, and it is drunk whenever circumstances (in other words, the ship's "crusher" or policeman) permit. The men grate down a liberal quantity of it (for ki is less concentrated than shore cocoa) and drink it mixed in basins with sugar and condensed milk. At sea a special caudron or ki, prepared by the ship's cook, is sent round action stations in "franks," or large pitchers. Midnight for the guns' crews of our fleet is the hour when the ki boat arrives.—London Chronicle.

FIGHT, BUY OR SHOW WHY

That's What We're Up to in the Third Loan.

THE HUN GOES MARCHING ON AND AMERICAN BOYS BLEED WHILE THE TIGHT WADS WAVER.

It's up to this—fight, buy or show why! Every American who can afford to buy a Liberty Bond will be expected to buy.

If he refuses, the searchlights of public opinion will be so turned upon him that he may be put into the position of having to explain why he denies the government the use of his surplus money, if the plans of the National Liberty Loan headquarters at Washington are carried out.

Information regarding the standing of every individual, his worth, his income, his Red Cross activities, amounts which he has subscribed to the First and Second Liberty Loans, war work which he has done, his patriotic attitude, and other details, will all be carefully listed on a questionnaire which will be kept on file by the government.

Questionnaires, prepared in Spokane for use in Eastern Washington, contain 24 questions. One has to be filled out for every man, woman and child above 15 years of age. Among the inquiries were, nationality, present occupation, name of employer, other trades or occupations qualified in, Liberty Loan subscriptions, earnings, Red Cross war funds, Red Cross members in family, miscellaneous war donations, war activities engaged in, patriotic attitude, general reputation, opposition to war work, if any.

Considering the fact that Oregon's percentage appears to be rather low in comparison with other federal districts, the local Liberty Loan Committee feels that it may be necessary to adopt some such means here of reminding the people that they must do something to save the reputation of themselves and their state. Cards are now being prepared. The information for these cards will be gained by the captains of the different city precincts, after the cards have been assigned to their proper districts by postal employees. In the rural districts over the state, the work of indexing the inhabitants has been going on for some time.

Authorization for obtaining the information comes from Washington. When the system is finally complete, and when Uncle Sam makes the acquaintance of all his citizens and knows their means and their obligations, then John Jones must be induced to make him a loan or be able to give an excellent reason why.

BE NO SLACKER; BE A BACKER

In the Twilight Zone of War Financing.

FOR THE NEED FOR PROTECTION IS GREATEST WHEN EVENING APPROACHES AND THE WORKER TENDS TO REST.

(By John W. Kelly)

Upon a time there was a farmer whose sheep were threatened by coyotes, so he decided to protect them at night with a high, tight fence. All day he labored and when evening approached it was almost, but not quite, completed.

The farmer was fagged, twilight was approaching and instead of nailing up the remaining boards he drove in the sheep and decided to take a chance. In the morning he discovered the ravages caused in the flock by the enemy marauders; the fence he had built for protection was no protection, because when twilight came he failed to finish it.

Don't permit your patriotism to succumb to the twilight zone!

In the twilight there is a slacking of industry, a tendency to take things indifferently—to loaf.

Having performed a good day's work, twilight finds a man tired of the heat and the burdens, ready to rest and congratulate himself on his accomplishments.

The Third Liberty Loan is in the twilight zone of war financing. Twice have the people of Oregon labored indefatigably and accomplished a great work in over-subscribing the state's allotment.

Now comes the real test—now is to disclose whether they still have the vigor and patriotic strength heretofore displayed.

It remains to be seen whether they will consider their duty performed and are content to slacken, to take things indifferently, to loaf on the job of patriotism.

After a day in the fields it requires spunk and pluck to tackle additional work in the twilight. The man who determines to press the labor a little further—to make a real finish to the day's stunt, is doing something for himself. And so is it with those who have helped in the previous bond flotations. There is a bit more to go before turning in; a little more exertion

HOW RETURNS ARE NOTED

Map System to Be Used During Third Liberty Loan Drive.

Returns from the various counties of the state will be indicated at the Oregon State Central Liberty Loan headquarters, Portland, on a color scheme map, as will every town and district in which a quota has been assigned, by a yellow thumb tack. The counties will have a large headed tack and the districts a small yellow one.

As soon as one-half of the assigned quota has been reached in each town or district a red thumb tack will replace the yellow one on the map. Similarly with the counties on the state map. Each county headquarters will have their own map with the county divided into convenient districts which are to be bulletined likewise.

When the full quota in each town and district is attained it will be designated by a blue thumb tack. This system will afford an accurate check and will indicate those counties and districts of the state which are doing the most effective work in the Third Liberty Loan Campaign.

In each town and district a solicitor will be sent out with the Government household questionnaire upon which is written pertinent facts concerning the individual's ability to subscribe. Should the person be unable to subscribe one-half of the amount estimated that he is able to, a yellow card will be sent into district headquarters. When more than one-half but less than the full assignment has been received a red card replaces the yellow, and a blue card is used when the full quota of the individual has been subscribed. This system gives an accurate and detailed check on every person and the state and county headquarters will know exactly what can be expected and what is being done.

The master map at Washington, D. C., will indicate the advance in each state and the entire country.

Everyman's Pledge.

America shall win this war! Therefore, I will work, I will save, I will sacrifice, I will endure, I will fight—cheerfully, and to my utmost—as if the whole outcome of the struggle
