Our Gifts.

As the Magi came bearing gifts, so do we also bear gifts that relieve want; gifts that are sweet and fragrant with friendship; gifts that breathe love; gifts that mean service; gifts inspired still by the star which shone over the City of David two thousand years ago.—Kate Douglas Wiggin.

Old Rivers and New.

Henry praised to me lately the manners of an old-established, calm, well-behaved river, as perfectly distinguished from those of a new river. A new river is a torrent; an old one slow and steadily supplied. What happens in any part of the old river relates to what befalls in the other part of it. 'Tis full of compensations, resources and reserve funds.—Emerson's Journal.

The Lobster.
Unlike most other marine animals the lobster is not truly migratory in its habits. It remains on about the same ground. It is believed, from year to year, coming into shallower water in spring and returning to the less accessible depths in autumn.

Dangerous Natural Gas.
One of the disadvantages of natural gas localities is that the filtered gas has practically no odor and leakages are, therefore, undetected. Gas has been discovered to be nearly always present in buildings fronting on asphalted streets.
