Our school boards are to be commended for favorably considering better wages for teachers, continuous terms of schools and better appliances for school rooms. In nearly every case they have manifested a willingness to appropriate the necessary funds to put the building and grounds in good order. What is needed most is some one in every district to lead. The teacher should not leave it to the director nor the director to the teacher; both, with the assistance of the patrons and pupils, should lend a hand.

Present Company Excepted.

The editor sat in his office whence all but him had fled, and he wished that every last dead beat was in his grave—stone dead. His mind then wandered far away to the time when he should die, and his royal editorial soul go scooting to the sky; when he'd roam the fields of paradise and sail o'er Jasper seas and all things glorious would combine his every sense to please. He thought how then he'd look across the great gulf dark and drear, that'll yawn between his happy soul and those who swindle here, and when for water they would call, and in agony they'd caper, he'd shout to them: "Just quench your thirst with the due that's on your paper."

Some Should Be Broken.
"These talking machines at $50.95," advertises a Chicago music house. "Break all records. After listening to some records one simply can't shake off the conviction that there cannot be too many such machines in constant use."—Springfield Union.

Fought Unnecessary Battle.
Very dramatic was the conclusion of the Peninsular war. Wellington had just won his triumph at Toulouse, the casualties on both sides numbering some 15,000, and the armies were rejoicing or sorrowing, when a tired courier rode up to announce that Napoleon had abdicated five days before, and the war was over.

Health Improvement in Brazil.
The famous saying "Brazil is a vast hospital" is in a fair way to being outlawed. Yellow fever is stamped out and the government has made an immense appropriation for supplying quinine to the entire community. To these achievements must be added the labors of the Oswaldo Cruz Institute in the realms of scientific prevention of communicable diseases of all kinds. —Brazil-Medico.

STOMACH TROUBLES

AN IRRITABLE, fault finding disposition is often due to a disordered stomach. A man with good digestion is nearly always good natured. A great many have been permanently cured of stomach troubles by Chamberlain's Tablets after years of suffering. These tablets strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Try them. They only cost a quarter.
