SUBSCRIPTION: One year by mail $1.50. Advertising rates furnished on application.

We have received several communications this week in regard to our recent appeal for a clean-up week. Several citizens have signified their willingness to help in the work, but so far, no one has volunteered their services as a leader in the campaign.

So while we wait for a leader, let us start at home, and see what can be done about beautifying our property. It will be surprising what results can be attained by applying one hour a day to making the weeds call for mercy and cleaning up generally.

How about that pile of tin cans in the back yard? How about those old tumble-down buildings? They are of no use, and by tearing them down you will greatly help the appearance of the town, besides getting some kindling wood.

The time has come when the citizens of Jacksonville should appear before the City Council and demand the repair of the lower end of Fifth street. This street is in a frightful condition and is just about on a par with the worst of our Jacksonville hill road.

It is time for Jacksonville to make some definite plans regarding street work. Several schemes have been tried, and in the course of a very short time appeared to be money wasted.

In the long run it will be much more economical to build a hard surface, one that will last and that the rains will not wash away in the course of one rainy season.

A subscriber writes to ask what Congress has done in regard to assessment work on mining claims.

Congress has passed a bill, submitted by Mr. Hawley of this state, waiving all assessment work, providing that the locator files a statement with the county clerk, to the effect that he or she intends to hold the property.

EDITORIAL

It seems as though Bolshevism has been started in our High School. It has gone so far as to cause our joke and sport editors to resign their offices. So let's get together as a high school and show some class spirit and down the Bolshevism.

SOCIETY.

The seventh and eighth grade extended a cordial invitation to attend a weenie roast at the city dam, Thursday evening. About twenty of the high school students have accepted. We are to meet at the confectionary corner at 6:30. We are looking forward to having a grand and glorious time.

The High School gave their first school party last Friday night. Games were played and at 10:00 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Godward, Miss Spulak and Mrs. Wertz served refreshments, bounteously provided by the high school students. The refreshments consisted of chocolate, sandwiches and cake, and as none of the girls brought a knife Mr. Godward cut the cake with a magnetized saw, belonging to the science class, but as long as they were out, what did we care. After refreshments were served we played a few more games, and then adjourned.

Mrs. Wertz, teacher of the fifth and sixth grades, gave a party, Wednesday evening, October 7, at her rooms at Mrs. Hoffman's. Those present were: Miss Spulak; Mrs. Hall, Miss Holmes, Miss Wertz. They made divinity fudge into which they put many giggles. Any body that wants the receipt come along.

SQUIBS.

A photographer was at the school house, Tuesday afternoon, and took the pictures of the high school. However Paul Ager and Dalt Terrill were afraid the camera could not do justice to their beautiful countenances and had to be coaxed to have their pictures taken by the photographer along with the rest of the high school.

MEETING OF THE STUDENT BODY

The meeting was called to order by the President and minutes of previous meeting read and approved.

Then the reports of the constitutional, athletic and social committees were heard. The constitution was accepted without any opposition. The athletic committee reported that no suitable building had been found as yet. The social committee presented the following means for some means to raise money. They suggested, a box social, Tag Day, Apple day and a vaudeville. Then the meeting was adjourned.

SPORTS.

The high school boys were to turn out Monday evening and help finish the tennis court but only one or two appeared. You who play tennis certainly out to be willing to help. Let's get together and in a few evenings the court will be finished. If we keep on letting it go bad weather will be here and we will not get any use from it before next spring.

The committee which was to report on a suitable building for athletics had not found any building, at the last meeting of the Student Body. One will certainly have to be found soon as at present there is no place for athletics indoors.

Plans are being made for the organization of a baseball team, which certainly ought to be a success as all the equipment except a ball is the property of the school, and practically all the boys want to play.

Both the high school and eighth grade girls have organized an indoor base ball team. A lively game was played last Monday evening, the high schools winning with a score of 14 to 10.

DUES

The constitution provides that all members of the high school who have not paid their dues within a month after school has started cannot vote at any of the meetings or represent the Student Body in any way whatsoever.

MUSIC

Mr. Haight's music class continues to grow in number. Genell Kelly has started to take lessons from Mr. Haight.

Miss Ruth Eaton while playing flying dutchmen at the party last Friday night met with an accident in which her tuffy rolls, which are all the rage among the girls, and made of yarn, wool, curled hair and hev. were badly shattered.

JOKES.

Paul Ager: Dault! how do you teach a girl to swim.
Dalt Terrill: Just put your arm gently around her waist and just as gently take her hand and—
Paul Ager: Oh! go on, its my sister.
Dalt Terrill: Shove her off the dock.

Mr. Fred S parks resigned his position as sport editor. His reasons are as follows:
1. There were too many girls on the staff.
2. Belle Fleming had not spoken to him since Friday.
3. He did not know the members of the staff as well when elected as he does at present.

Elva Coleman said the other day to Paul Lay, "Learn to keep your temper."
Paul: Believe me nobody else wants it.

Lewis Thompson: (blocked by a load of hay) I say there pull out and let me by. You seemed in a hurry to let that other fellow get past.

Henry Niedermeyer: That was because his horses were eating my hay.

John Heurers, James Gwin and Johnnie Niedermeyer were walking in the country one day when they met Bill Kinney and feeling in the mood decided to have a little fun.

"Good morning, father Abraham" greeted John Heurers.
"Good morning, father Isaac" said James Gwin.
"Good morning, father Jacob, said Johnnie Niedermeyer.

Bill Kinney looked the students over for a second, then he said in a low tone: "I am neither Abraham, Isaac or Jacob. I am Bill, the son of Mr. Kinney. I am looking for my father's asses and behold I have found all three.

"Dear Thelma" wrote John Johnson, "pardon me, but I am getting so forgetful. I proposed to you Friday night but really forgot whether you said yes or no."
"Dear John" Thelma replied by note, "So glad to hear from you. I knew I said "No" to some one Friday night, but had forgotten who it was.

Mrs. Godward (at the party) "Wont you have another piece of cake Lewis. Lewis Thompson: Yes, I believe I will, I can still chew, but I can't swallow.

"Waiter" Mr. Godward called, sniffing the air suspiciously. "what is this smell of fresh paint around here."
Waiter: Just wait a minute sir, Belle Fleming and Mary Ryan will be going in a minute.
