

The Greatest Mother Turns to Tasks of Peace.

THE THREE CROSSES

The iron cross is black as death and hard as human hate; The wooden cross is white and still and whispers us, "Too Late," But the Red Cross sings of life and love and hearts regenerate.

The iron cross is a boastful cross and marks the war-mad slave; The wooden cross is a dumb, dead cross and marks a shallow grave, But the Red Cross reaches out its arms to solace and to save.

The iron cross is a kaiser's cross and narrow is its clan; The wooden cross is a soldier's cross and mourns its partisan, But the Red Cross is the Cross of One who served his fellowman.

—Edmond Vance Cooke.

Invest a dollar in Red Cross and get happiness coupons the rest of the year.

The Red Cross service flag, indicating membership in the great organization of mercy, will appear again in November in every window in the Northwest. In every farmhouse, in every city home, in the cabins of homesteaders, in the huts of fishermen in far Alaska, will appear this symbol of affiliation with the one great organization that knows no politics, no distinction of creed, no high, no low—but unites the hearts of all for service to fellow-men. The window service flag this year has one more stripe than last year, indicating three years of membership in the Red Cross.

RED CROSS HOUSE GIVES CHEER AT LEWIS

For the Red Cross, the war did not end with the armistice, and even yet there are thirty thousand soldiers and sailors still under treatment in army and navy hospitals. The Red Cross convalescent house at Camp Lewis stands next to home itself in the affections of hundreds of boys who, sick or wounded, looked forward to the day when they might leave the bare and cheerless ward in the base hospital and spend part of each day enjoying its easy chairs, its music, its books, its pictures, and its good cheer. Even now, a year after the armistice, there are overseas men, patients at Camp Lewis, not yet well enough to be discharged, who sit before the great fireplace these autumn days, thankful that The Greatest Mother is still mindful of them. The picture is duplicated in army hospitals all over the land, and wherever throughout the world American boys are still in Uncle Sam's service.

HAS YOUR CLUB SET ITS RED CROSS DAY?

A series of Red Cross "club days" are to be held in all parts of the United States during October. Granges, Church Societies, Business, Commercial, Rotary, Kiwanis, Advertising, Fraternal, Woman's and other clubs, are being invited to set aside a regular meeting or a day for a special luncheon at which plans will be made for aiding the Third Red Cross Roll Call, to be held throughout the country November 2 to 11.

The clubs will call for volunteer workers, including prominent members for speakers, in the interest of enrolling members for the peace-time program of the Red Cross. Many of the speakers on the war-time activities of the Red Cross will be former service men and women who came in contact with the Red Cross on the field of action.

Chinese Influence in Hawaii.
The Chinese first planted sugar cane at the "Crossroads of the Pacific" and manufactured sugar, and when the Hawaiians began to cease the cultivation of taro it was the Chinese who became the taro planters and the makers of poi—the staff of life of the native Hawaiian.
