Official Paper of the City of Jacksonville Oregon

A weekly newspaper published every Saturday at the county seat of Jackson County, Oregon

Tom W. Fulton, Editor.

Entered as second-class matter June 22 1907, at the post office at Jacksonville Oregon, under Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

SATURDAY, MAY 22, 1920

SUBSCRIPTION: One year by mail $2.00. Advertising rates furnished on application.

While two years is just two years too long to retain an incompetent county official in office, it is likewise two years too short to fitly reward efficient service. It is a positive injustice to require a capable county officer to campaign every two years. The answer is, double the length of the term; when you get a good man in office keep him there.

With potatoes selling at 12 cents per pound and sugar beyond the reach of a man of moderate means it is consoling to reflect that there is a 30 per cent cut on the price of golf balls and diamonds are reduced to only $425 per carat.

EDITORIAL.

At the field meet at Central Point, last Saturday, it is thought that Jacksonville came in a very close second in the number of points won. The official decision is not known yet.

In the forenoon, when the Jacksonville girls competed with the Rogue River girls in baseball, they won the game, but were defeated by Talent in the final game which took place in the afternoon.

Elva Coleman won the girl's singles in tennis. In the girl's double's, Belle Fleming and Claire Coleman defeated the Phoenix girls, but were defeated in their turn after a very close contest with the Central Point girls. Owing to a change in the program of events, the Jacksonville girls had no opportunity to get rested before beginning their contest with the Central girls; who had not yet played that day and were fully rested.

In the boy's double Harry Niedermeyer and Louis Thompson won third place, while Paul Ager in the boys' singles also won third place.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Mary Ryan's paper was selected for the "Know Oregon First" essay contest.

Margaret Garrett was absent from school on Monday.

The high school students assisted by some of the Eighth grade pupils are busily engaged in preparing a play which they hope to present sometime before school closes June 4th.

Judge Florey was absent from school Wednesday.

The latest fad among some of the boys seems to be to wear a black eye. John Heuners and Judge Florey are each displaying one. John Heuners, it is rumored, acquired his in a scarp with a grade boy, while Judge Florey obtained his black eye by colliding with a tennis racket.

AS OVERHEARD, BY THE HIGH SCHOOL.

Reports from Mrs. Hall's and from Miss Hurst's rooms tell us that everybody is busy and everybody is busy.

Virginia Fick has gone to Portland with her mother. She expects to be gone for some time.

The pupils who were neither absent nor tardy in Mrs. Smith's room last month are Homer Hartman and Orpha Ager.

The 3rd and 4th grades presented very interesting and well prepared program at the Parent Teachers' meeting, last Friday.

JOKES.

Perhaps some of the lads who are putting on overalls will be psychologically influenced to attempt a royal riddle's work.

Mr. Godward: "What is gravity John?"

John: "Gravity is a force that brings down every thing in the world but pine."

Miss S.: "What do you suggest for making the high school a better school?"

Henry: "Can all the prizes."

Mr. Godward: "Is an icon an image or a picture?"

Victoria: "Yes I think so."

Miss S. (in history class): "After the movement of good roads in the Roman Empire what would naturally come next?"

Lewis: "Fords."

Almost Golden Eggs.

The Messenger, of Pravolet has a White Minorca hen that he would not trade for the fabled goose that laid the golden eggs. She started laying on April 7 and has missed but four days. The eggs never measured less than 7 1/2 inches around lengthwise and seven inches in circumference. The days following those on which she did not lay, the eggs were larger. One of these measured 8 1/2 lengthwise and 7 inches around. The other three were almost as large. The largest one of the number weighed 4 1/2 oz.—Rogue River Courier.

GRIDDLE CAKES and WAFFLES

From the NEW ROYAL COOK BOOK

THERE is an art in making flapjack pancakes, griddle cakes or waffles, call them what you will. But it is an art very easily and quickly acquired if you follow the right recipes.

Here are some recipes for a variety of breakfast cakes that will make grandmother envious. The secret, of course, is Royal Baking Powder.

Royal Hot Griddle Cakes

2 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
4 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
1 cup milk
1 1/2 tablespoons shortening
Mix and sift dry ingredients; add milk and melted shortening; beat well. Bake on slightly greased hot griddle.

Griddle Cakes with Eggs

1 1/2 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
2 eggs
1 1/2 cups milk
1 tablespoon shortening
Mix and sift dry ingredients; add beaten eggs, milk and melted shortening; mix well. Bake immediately on hot griddle.

Buckwheat Cakes

2 cups buckwheat flour
1 cup flour
6 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup water
1 tablespoon molasses
1 tablespoon shortening
Sift together flours, baking powder and salt; add liquid, molasses and melted shortening; beat three minutes. Bake on hot greased griddle.

Waffles

2 cups flour
4 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup water
1 egg
1 tablespoon melted shortening
Sift flour, baking powder and salt together; add milk to yolks of eggs; mix thoroughly and add to dry ingredients; add melted shortening and mix in beaten whites of eggs. Bake in well greased hot waffle iron until brown. Serve hot with maple syrup. It should take about 1 1/2 minutes to bake each waffle.
