

SALVATION ARMY OPENS STATE RESCUE HOME FOR UNFORTUNATE GIRLS OF OREGON

Salvation Army Rescue Home and some of its babies.

The Salvation Army, as one of the big features of its Home Service Program for 1920, has taken over and opened the White Shield home in Portland as a rescue and maternity home for unfortunate girls. It is a state-wide home, where, under the most pleasant surroundings, with expert medical care the young mother is helped to shape her life anew. Last year, in the west alone, 1948 girls turned from the nightmare of despair to such Salvation Army sanctuaries as this. Of these, 999 were returned to the homes they left in their shame and, through the offices of the Salvation Army workers, were welcomed and their burdens lightened for them. The Portland home nursery now echoes to the delighted cooing of more than a score of babies whose mothers are sheltered under its roof and taught how to go out into the world and win a clean living for herself and her baby.

Bird Trials.
It is said to be an established fact that several kinds of birds, crows in particular, hold trials to judge one of their number which has in some way offended.

Ancient Admonition.

Thoughtless persons who insist on talking during a musical performance, marring the pleasure of those who would listen to the music, we have always with us. It is curious to note that this particular pest was already extant more than 2,000 years ago. In the ancient book "Ecclesiasticus" we read, "Speak, thou that art the elder, for it becometh thee, but with sound judgment, and hinder not music."
