Carl Neidermayer and Miss Leora Godward spent Sunday afternoon in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Saulsbury returned the first of the week from Portland and where they spent several days.

A fire was started in the brush fifty yards from Gagnons saw mill on Jackson creek Saturday afternoon, presumably from a spark from the logging engine. The blaze was finally extinguished by volunteer fighters but not before it had burned over about five acres. The fire was discovered by one of the airplanes of the forest patrol.

Jacksonville people in Medford Tuesday included Peter Fick, Mrs. James Rock Jr, Miss Katherine Johnson, W. G. Kinney, L. H. Niedermeyer and Chester Wendt.

The attendance at the weekly band concert in Medford Wednesday night was lighter owing to the chilly and threatening weather. Only a few concerts remain to be given this season which is greatly regretted as the music has been excellent and greatly enjoyed by valley people.

Mrs. I. D. Knight and daughters Daisy and Irene were in Medford Thursday afternoon.

The threshing machine and crew have finally reached this corner of the valley and have been engaged in threshing grain for Charles Nunan, Peter Fick and the Wendt brothers. Mrs. Jasten Hartman was shopping in Medford Thursday morning.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly falling to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

James J. Donegan, of Harney county, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hanley and other friends. Mr. Donegan was raised at Jacksonville but left several years ago. He says the people of eastern Oregon are very anxious to be connected with Medford with a good road via the Klamath Falls country to Pelican Bay, Lake of the Woods and Fish Lake, and would come here to trade if the road between these places was connected and it would only take about eight miles of road to do it. The Chamber of Commerce should look into this proposition.—Tribune

Among those who attended the Eastern Star picnic at Ashland Friday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Fick, Mrs. E. S. Wilson, Mrs. S. E. Dunnington and Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Chapman.

The new stretch of Pacific Highway between Medford and Grants Pass is proving a great attraction to motorists. The scenery is beautiful particularly along the river and the new cement bridge at Rock Point is worth going miles to see.

The Medford troop of Boy Scouts enjoyed an ice cream social and boxing bout Monday evening. Robin Broad, a Jacksonville member, attended.

G. O. Timothy, Medford's most able chief of police, was in town on business matters Monday afternoon.

Charles Nunan, who has been clerking in a store at Prospect for the past two months, was in town looking after his ranch affairs recently.

A miscellaneous shower was given at the home of Mrs. A. R. Thompson, by the Rebekah and Royal Neighbor lodges, for Mrs. Carl Kline, formerly Miss Alta Walsh, who was married at Klamath Falls, July 28th. Many beautiful and useful presents were received by Mrs. Kline. At the close of the evening a delicious two course lunch was served and the guests, twenty-five in number, then adjourned to charivari Mr. and Mrs. Frank Saulsbury.

Mrs. W. P. Bailey and Mrs. Mamie Nelson were Medford visitors Wednesday.

Iron Rust Proof.

To make ironwork proof against rust, heat it until it is almost red hot and then brush it over with linseed oil. This makes a varnish which, unlike ordinary paint or enamel, does not chip.
Forces Within.
Trials without discover forces within. Says Victor Hugo: "There are instincts for all the crises of life." A deep perplexity awakens a flash of insight; a bitter opposition sets the soul on fire; a brave peril opens our eyes to horses and chariots of fire; a severe catastrophe evokes a heroism of which the sufferer had not thought himself capable.—W. L. Watkinson.

Bids may be made on amounts of 25 cords or more by any one party. The Court reserves the right to reject any or all bids and to accept the one for the best interest of the County. No bid will be considered unless there is a bond or certified check in the sum of at least 5% of the amount bid.
