Because the patients of the state tuberculosis hospital are debarred from the public libraries, a state wide drive for gift books for the children patients of the institution has been started and will continue for two weeks. Anyone who can spare any story books that will give a world of pleasure to these afflicted children, may leave them at the office of the Post, whence they will be shipped to their destination.

Work on the new city park is steadily progressing and marked improvement in the appearance of the property has already been made. While material progress has been made on this project there remains much to be done and to provide means of meeting incidental expenses, those of our people who have not already contributed are requested to lend a helping hand. Contributions to the Cluggage Park fund will be received at the office of the Post.

Mrs. S. E. Dunnington is staying with her son C. B. Dunnington at Talent, while the latter's wife is enjoying a brief visit with relatives at Salinas, Cal.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES.

The annual business meeting and supper of the Presbyterian church was held in the basement of that building, Wednesday evening. After the supper which was served about 6:30 a business meeting was held and the following elected to office: Elders, Andrew Cantrell, E. A. Fleming and J. M. Cronmiller; Trustees, George Wendt and Carl Niedermeyer; Church organists, Misses Leora Godward and Mollie Bailey; Sunday School secretary, Paul Godward, assistant secretary, O. To Niedermeyer; Sunday School organist, Miss Ruth Fleming.

Mrs. T. W. Fulton gave an Easter party to a few children Saturday afternoon. The children enjoyed an egg hunt on the lawn, finding many pretty eggs, then various other games were played. At 3:30 luncheon was served, the table being decorated in pink peach blossoms and pink paper streamers, with Easter place cards and favors of baskets of candy eggs and rabbits for each child. The children present were: Virginia Nunan, Virginia Fick, Barbara and Phyllis Fulton, Maurice Putney and Maynard Putney of Medford.

High School Play A Huge Success.

One of the best amateur productions ever seen in this city was the drama entitled "Dust of the Earth," which was presented by the high school in the auditorium Tuesday evening. The audience, which filled the house to capacity, was appreciative was evidenced by the frequent applause and whispered comments. Much credit is due Miss Ruth Nash, who directed the play, for its successful production and to Mr. Langley and Dalton Terrill, who were responsible for the stage settings which added so much to the success of the play. These gentlemen also acted as stage managers and they deserve praise for the capable manner in which they executed their duties. Credit must also be given to all the young people who participated and helped in numerous ways to make the play a success.

All of the pupils who had a part in the play did very well and must be commended for their efforts, and the unanimous verdict of the audience was that each and every one portrayed his character in an excellent manner. Perhaps especially worthy of mention was Miss Thelma Childers who played the stellar role, and by her sweet appearance and good acting made a most appealing little heroine. Also worth of mention was Mose, the faithful old negro servant, portrayed by Charles Blitch, who was perfect in his lines and impersonation of the negro character, causing frequent bursts of laughter at his droll sayings. Robt. Broad as Jerry and Berenice Reter as Arabella, the village gossip, provoked much merriment.

Splendid music was furnished by the Majestic orchestra, consisting of piano, violin, saxophone and traps. The specialists were a violin selection by Prof. Haight, accompanied on the piano by Miss Bailey, a song by Miss Thelma Childers in costume and a recitation by Miss Regine Lytle, who impersonated an old negro mammy.

Approximately $5 was realized from the ticket sale, and it will be used to purchase various things for the school.

Following is the cast of characters:
 Neil Thelma Childers
 David Moore Harry Niedermeyer
 Susan Moore Ruth Fleming
 E. Z. Beth Ferroll Rock
 Jerry Robin Broad
 Rev. Dr. Templeton John Huensers
 Miss Arabella Berenice Reter
 John Kyder Fred Sparks
 Wandering Tom E. G. Stulz
 Od Mose Charles Blitch

J. T. Gagnon Will Resume Car Service.

J. T. Gagnon, the well known sawmill man and head of the Rogue River Valley Railway has a crew of men at work repairing the road-bed, track, trolley line, etc., preparatory to putting a street car on the route between this city and Medford.

Mr. Gagnon is of the opinion that given unlimited opportunity to travel to and from their places of business, Medford men who are aware of the many advantages of Jacksonville as a place of residence will remove their families to this city. That this belief is well founded is proven by the number of newcomers who have made their homes here in recent months. Believing as he does that first class service will result in increased population for Jacksonville, and consequently heavier traffic over his line, Mr. Gagnon, it is said, is contemplating an hourly passenger service between the two towns as soon as necessary repairs can be made.

Passenger service on the local line was discontinued more than a year ago and rolling stock as well as roadway will require thorough overhauling before a schedule can be put in effect.

Many Jacksonville friends will be pleased to learn that Frank Lindsey has completed negotiation for the purchase of the John Dunnington bungalow on Third street and expects to move his family from Medford to their new home next week. This residence is centrally located and is a comfortable and attractive home. Deputy Sheriff MeMahon and family who have occupied the premises for the past few months will remove to the Maize on California street.

County Clerk Chauncey Florey has sold property on Oregon street, consisting of a residence and about two acres of land to a Mr. Merrifield, who is in the employ of the California-Oregon Power Co. at Medford. Mr. Merrifield and family took possession of the beginning of the week.

The old Zook Gun Store building on California street has again changed hands. Schmidt having sold the property to Alvin Harder, a newcomer, who intends using the building as a residence. Mr. and Mrs. Harder moved into their new home this week.

ASKS INDEPENDENCE FOR PHILIPPINES

Francis Burton Harrison

Manila. — Francis Burton Harrison, former governor general of the Philippine Islands, offered to tender his resignation eighteen months ago upon condition that the Secretary of War recommend to President Wilson that a Filipino be appointed his successor. He made the offer while in Washington in 1919.

Discussing Philippine independence, the governor general said: "I can see in the future a very beautiful vision. When the flag of the Philippine republic shall be hoisted, when the Stars and Stripes will come floating down to the strains of 'The Star Spangled Banner'—that flag Old Glory, so rich in happy and honorable achievements, will be made doubly dear because it will mean that the United States will have kept its word to the people of the Philippine Islands."

School of Journalism in Philippines
 Manila.—A school of journalism, the first in the Far East, has been established at the University of the Philippines, in Manila.

Admission to the School of Journalism is limited to third and fourth year students who have shown marked ability in the use of English. The course is open to both men and women. A class of about 50 registered at the opening of the journalistic course.

The Old Age of Santa Claus.
 In Anna Farquhar's "Convictions" in The National Magazine, she says: "Santa Claus toilers under his pack, wearing a long, old face these days. Probably in his youth he had no idea of growing old or departing this life; therefore when his enthusiasm and joyousness began to wane unaccountably, he must have opined that the world was tottering—not his own generous throne of life. Nowadays he creeps down the chimney stealthily as if somewhat ashamed of his mission, like a polar burglar, and his eight tiny reindeer make small clatter on the lawn, for many of their joy bells have been lost. When Santa lays a finger aside of his nose reflectively in our times, he exclaims, without a bit of jolly shake below the waist: 'Degenerates! Degenerates! Has my world come to such a pass that people wish to pay me for my presents? Can it be that little children are so surfeited with toys that they stop to ask how much they cost before accepting them. There was little Willie, last year, who said to his mamma, when he first saw a beautiful woolly dog, 'What's it got inside? Candy or money? Don't want a dog 'less it's got somethin' inside!'"

Auto Worked Change.
 He used to be a pretty easy-going fellow before he bought his machine. Some days his name would decorate the spare board at the car barn and some days it wouldn't, for he and work were not firm friends.

But now how different. He contracted the automobile fever. The machine was the result. Now, buying an auto is easy. But keeping it running and taking your girl out is another thing that requires coin of the realm.

He has developed into a terrible clerk. His face is now a familiar figure on the North Easton line and if there are any spare trips lying around loose he is right up to the window leaning on both elbows.

We should have made an exception as to Sunday. Ah, that is the day he shines. The little machine rolls merrily along.

"It's worth it at that, to be a millionaire one day a week," he remarked as he unlimbered his portly form after 11 hours' labor the other night on a North Easton back.—Brocton Enterprise.

Borrowed Dignity.
 She—"Doesn't Charles look distinguished in that full-dress suit?" He—"How could he help it? That outfit in its day has been on the backs of three football captains, two editors and the leading man in our last college production."—Stanford Clapart.
