Happy New Year to everybody.

Dr. Oftedal expects to make a professional visit to Portland next week.

Leonard McKee of Applegate and Miss Lois Childers of Jacksonville were married Monday at Roseburg.

R. C. Witter, who is employed as carpenter at Sisson, spent Christmas with his family in Jacksonville.

Roy Martin, the painter, and his wife and little son enjoyed Christmas with relatives, V. E. Brittsan and family, near Eagle Point.

Wm. Broad and family, of Weed, John of Klamath Falls and Mike of Coquille spent Christmas here at the home of their mother, Mrs. Anna Broad.

Philippine Sauer, of Grants Pass, drew a fine of $10 in Judge Roe's court Monday for speeding through Gold Hill. Traffic Officer McMahon made the arrest.

Prompt action by the Fire Company Monday prevented what might have been a big blaze in the S. K. Ogle residence, caused by wallpaper around a flue catching fire. Little or no damage resulted.

The matter of establishing a sawmill at Jacksonville is still being investigated by the chamber of commerce and D. H. Clare, recently from Idaho, and no doubt the matter will come to a head soon.

Victor Johnson is doing some sewer work at the courthouse and county jail. He is making a lot of improvements about his new home—the old Cameron place, which he recently purchased.

Walter Armppriest of Forest creek and Mrs. Annette Abbott Armppriest, one of our schoolmams, were married at the manse in Jacksonville on Sunday, Dec. 23, Rev. Edgar officiating. They left at once for a brief honeymoon trip to Portland.

Fred, Tiney and Hugh Combost and a man named Hamilton, while returning home Tuesday from a trip to Klamath Falls, were all more or less injured when their car turned over near Green Springs. Hamilton is being treated in a hospital at Ashland.

Miss Charlotte Reed of Portland and Miss Katherine Reed of San Francisco are here visiting their mother, Mrs. C. Reed and sister, Miss Emma, at their home half a mile west of town. These four ladies comprise the entire family and they are enjoying a happy family reunion.

Wm. Schmidt and wife arrived here today from San Francisco to make their home. They are staying at the Holland Hotel in Medford until their residence in Jacksonville receives some needed improvements. The report that twins were born to Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt recently was "grossly exaggerated," as Bill says there's nothing to it—and he ought to know. Evidently it was some other Schmidt family that was blessed with such an increase in population.

Ada E. Vest of Salem, daughter of J. L. Roe, and her daughter, Mrs. Spencer of Portland, are here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Roe.

Prof. Eagy carried himself in a sling for several days this week, as a result of an auto accident near Medford Saturday, which made his face look like he had been run through a threshing machine a time or two.
