Today, Memorial Day, is a holiday.

Geo. Merritt motored to San Francisco last week on a two weeks' vacation.

Henry Hoefs, of the U. S. navy, is now on the battleship Huron, stationed in China.

Mrs. Mart Hannan of Silverton is here visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. A. Childers.

Hollis Parks of Applegate is in a Medford hospital with a broken ankle, received Sunday when a horse fell with him.

Oliver Dews, who has a position with the Cal-Ore Power Co. at Klamath Falls, visited his brother "Poke" at Jacksonville several days this week.

Paul Borde and Miss Martha Mathwick, of this place, were married Monday by Judge Roe. They will reside at Weed, Cal., where Paul is employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Johnson and Mrs. Jackson are here from Weiser, Idaho, visiting their relatives—the ladies being daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Parke.

Miss Victoria Gwin has accepted a position in the Panatorium at Medford. Miss Lydia Borde now has the position of elevator girl in the Medford building.

In circuit court this week Ossie Goodie was granted a divorce from T. Ed Goodie, who formerly conducted a garage here, but who now resides in Klamath Falls.

During May the local library loaned 384 volumes, collected 76c in fines and registered 5 new readers. The library will be open on Tuesday only during the school vacation.

Roy Martin, the painter, and his wife and son have gone to Diamond Lake, where they will spend the summer in the employ of Geo. Howard, who is supt. of the lake resort company.

Garland and Gerald Lorton, who graduated from the J. H. S. this week, expect to enter the U. of O. this Fall. Garland will spend the summer clerking in Jim Grieve's store at Prospect, where he spent last summer.

An elderly couple named Norcott, recently from Bend, have bought the J. F. Moore residence property opposite the depot in Jacksonville and have moved into their new home. The old gentleman's health has been poor and they came here in the hope that the change of climate will benefit him.

Miss Edith Hoefs of Portland, a trained nurse, arrived here yesterday for a month's vacation at the home of her father, Fred Hoefs. Her sister, Miss Alice, left today for a month's vacation in Portland at the home of her sister, Mrs. Butler, wife of Dr. Butler. She is making the trip to the city in the car with Miss Mabel Stevens, the schoolmam, who will also enjoy a brief vacation in Portland. During Alice's absence Mrs. Wm. Eaton will assist Miss Thompson in the postoffice.

D. Dresler of Applegate underwent an operation one day this week in the Ashland hospital.

Broil -Electrically

The perfectly broiled steak or chop—crisply brown from without, juicy tender from within—no longer depends on the specialized skill of a cook or on good luck in the cooking—where there's an electric range in the home.

In this locality the experience of hundreds of our range customers has been that the electric range improves the savoriness and flavor of all cooking. The many ways it eases the kitchen routine and saves fuss and muss have long been recognized. But to most people the economy of it comes as a distinct surprise!

The average bill for cooking and lighting together is often as low as the cost of other kinds of fuel alone.

Ask about the special rate for cooking and lighting at our office. See the electric ranges today at your dealer's. You can get one on easy payments to be installed immediately.
