"Life Atom" Discovery Finds "Pep" in Orange
 New York.—Prof. Calvin S. Page used an orange in his lecture on Rx, the life atom which he discovered in 1889. The lecture was delivered before about 100 persons, most of them instructors or students, in the hall of the Engineering Societies building, 20 West Thirty-ninth street. It is an element which combines with everything except itself. He himself has isolated an atom of it and Lynx Killed at Wurtsboro.

 Bloomingburg, N. Y.—Hanging in a garage at Wurtsboro is the body of a 29-pound lynx, one of the last of the many that formerly prowled along the Shawangunk mountain range, making excursions into valley farms to get chickens and other poultry. The lynx was shot by a posse which hunted for several days for the strange animal that had been seen roaming at night near Wurtsboro and High View. The animal was killed in a cave on the Captain Krune property.

Dover's War Harbor for Commerce.
 Dover, N. H.—Constructed at a cost of $25,000,000 between 1901 and 1908, the Admiralty harbor, which played such a conspicuous part during the war as the headquarters of the Dover patrol, has been handed over to the Dover harbor board for commercial purposes. The harbor, which incloses 610 acres of water, housed the feet of destroyers and cruisers which convoyed troops and munitions across to France between 1914 and 1918.

The dirt floor in laying house is a carrier of disease, unless five or six inches of the soil are removed and replaced each year. Board floors are all right, but expensive. Concrete floors are the most economical in the end.

Enough roosts should be provided in a poultry house to allow eight inches per bird. The roosts should be nine inches from the front of the dropping boards and nine inches from the back and they should be fourteen inches apart.

MEN YOU MAY MARRY

By E. R. PEYSER

Has a man like this proposed to you?
 Symptoms: Short, trig, full of pep, good dresser. Sensitive, charming, never wants to sit home, always wants to "go somewhere" else. Leaves a play if he doesn't like first act, leaves a restaurant if he doesn't like his waiter, raises a row anywhere—always has some fuss wherever he goes. You sit in fear and trembling lest the steak is too rare or the egg is too soft.

IN FACT
 He, being short, has a horror of being thought soft.

Mother's Cook Book

Books! 'Tis a dull and endless strife:
 Come, hear the woodland linnet,
 How sweet his music! on my life,
 There's more of wisdom in it.
 And hark! How blithe the throats sing!
 He, too, is no mean preacher,
 Come forth into the light of things,
 Let nature be your teacher.
 One impulse from a vernal wood
 May teach you more of man,
 Of moral evil and of good,
 Than all the sages can."
 —Wordsworth.

HERE ARE SOME SOUPS

CUT up six white onions and fry in a tablespoonful of butter until light brown. Add a quart of water and a pint of milk, season with one teaspoonful of salt and a dash of pepper, a teaspoonful of sugar and a pinch of mace. Cook slowly for an hour and strain; beat four eggs until light, add a cupful of cream and a tablespoonful of cornstarch mixed with a little cold water; cook until the starch is well done before adding the eggs and cream. Just heat but do not boil or the eggs will be curdled.

Quick Soup.
 Take a can of pea soup and a can of condensed milk—that which is less sweet is more desirable. Mix well, heat hot and serve with crackers.

Curried Chicken.
 Take two cupfuls of cold cooked chicken cut into small pieces, one cupful of chicken gravy, one cupful of milk or cream, one-half of a small onion minced fine, one teaspoonful of curry powder, one tablespoonful of butter and salt to taste. Cook the onion in the butter, stir in the gravy and curry powder, then add the chicken and simmer ten minutes. Ice cold bananas with rice make a nice accompaniment to curry of any kind.

Cream of Barley Soup.
 Melt two tablespoonfuls of butter in a saucepan, add two tablespoonfuls of flour, and cook three minutes, stirring steadily. Then add one cupful of pearl barley and cook two minutes. Add slowly one pint of boiling water and one of milk, stirring until well-blended and simmer gently for one hour. Rub through a sieve, return to the heat and add three pints of chicken stock, one tablespoonful of cornstarch mixed with a little cold water. Boil until the starch is well cooked and serve hot. Condensed milk added to a canned pea soup, heated hot and served with fingers of toast makes fine cup of soup for a chilly night.

A cupful of mashed potatoes blended well with a little cream, added to a quart of hot milk, seasoned with butter, pepper and salt is another quick, nourishing and tasty soup to serve as a supper dish.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF.

Eugene.—The governor of Arizona has refused to sign the requisition papers for Lewis Arnold, under arrest at Phoenix and wanted here for alleged larceny by bailee of two diamond rings.

Gaston.—Orion Horine and Swede Larsen, farmer boys of Gaston, received $130 for six gunnysacks of Chittam bark, representing two weeks' work in the woods. They sold it in Portland.

Salem.—Copies of the proposed new state income tax bill to be initiated by the state grange at the November election have been printed, and the necessary petitions will be placed in circulation within the next few days.

Eugene.—Nine petitions containing more than 600 signatures asking that an election be ordered for the recall of Willard A. Elkins and Mrs. Roy Loomis, members of the school board, have been filed with the school clerk here.

Albany.—The lack of rain in this section is seriously damaging the spring grain and to some extent the fall grain. Clover also is being dwarfed by the lack of moisture. Farmers are fearing a repetition of a failure of spring crops such as struck the valley several years ago.

Salem.—Modification of the quarantine against California products probably will be modified in a proclamation to be issued here. This was announced by Governor Pierce Saturday following a conference with Dr. W. H. Lytle, state veterinarian and secretary of the state livestock sanitary board.

Pendleton.—The sale of wool at Pilot Rock, originally set for Saturday, May 31, has been postponed until Tuesday, June 3, according to a statement by Mac Hoke, secretary of the Oregon Wool Growers' association. Approximately 400,000 pounds of wool will be offered at auction at the sale.

Eugene.—Lark Bilyeu, pioneer attorney of Eugene, for many years prominent in democratic party activities in Oregon and 33d-degree Mason, died at the Pacific Christian hospital here Saturday at the age of 72. Today was his birthday. He is survived by his widow and one son, Coke L. Bilyeu.

Salem.—Three fatalities were due to industrial accidents in Oregon during the week ending May 23, according to a report prepared here by the state industrial accident commission. The victims included Carl Mathias, Holbrook, laborer; William A. Ballard, Albany, laborer, and Clemens Oster, Bend, faller.

Salem.—"When it costs more to market products through a co-operative organization than through the present marketing system, that organization will never get very far." This was set out in a letter prepared by C. E. Spence, state market agent, which was received at the executive department here recently.

Medford.—According to a telegram received Saturday by the Rogue River Valley Canning company, the California Pear Growers' association has announced the opening price for Bartlett's for canning purposes as follows: No. 1 grade, $55 per ton; No. 2 grade, $32.50 per ton. The price last year was $50 and $25.

Albany.—The home of Mrs. Jennie Kelley in north Albany was destroyed by fire Friday. Mrs. Kelley, who had lived in the house for the last 45 years, is blind. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kelley lived with the aged woman and worked her farm. Only by courageous fighting was the Albany fire department able to save the barn and other out-buildings.

Baker.—While a large part of Baker's population was attending the baseball game with Weiser, five prisoners escaped from the Baker county jail about 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. They broke out through the roof of the courthouse and easily reached the ground. Search was started within an hour. Farmers and nearby cities were notified by telephone.

Cottage Grove.—Mrs. George Kappan claims the honor for the first garden peas for the season. She served them upon the family table upon May 21, which is somewhat early even in this favored portion of the famous fertile Willamette. Peas are going to be a good crop this year. So far weather conditions have been ideal and there have been no aphids to bother them.

Salem.—Dairymen of Marion county at a meeting held here Saturday night went on record opposed to the referendum of the so-called oleomargarine law enacted at the last session of the legislature. The law prohibits the sale of oleomargarine in the state and is being attacked by the associated industries of Oregon, with headquarters in Portland. Enactment of the oleomargarine law was one of the outstanding features of the 1923 legislature, and was preceded by numerous debates and public hearings.

Weak Women Can Find The Help They Need

Portland, Ore.—"In my early married life, after motherhood, I suffered a relapse and blood poisoning set in, which left me a nervous wreck. I was thin and weak and my nerves were in such a bad state that I could not sleep. I went down in weight from 140 to 90 pounds. I doctored and took medicine and had begun to think there was no help for me, when I learned of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. By using this medicine according to directions I was completely relieved of all my nervousness and restored to perfect health and since then whenever I have felt badly or in the need of a tonic, I take the 'Favorite Prescription' and it builds me right up. I found it especially good during the critical time of life, it kept me in good health. I would advise all women who are weak and ailing to take the 'Prescription' so they may enjoy good health."
